OLD LINE WHIGS, READ!

If any Whig thinks of acting with the Locofoco party in the coming contest, we commend to his careful perusal the following precious extract from a tract issued from Democratic head-quarters at Washington shortly before the Presidential election in 1844, entitled "Tract No. 2. The Sub-Treasury—What is it?" many copies of which were circulated during the canvass:

"Who they [the Whigs] take a man [Henry Clay] foaming with passion, a pistol in one hand and a pack of cards in the other, for the Presidency, they may expect to win the support of the moral and religious by associating with him a psalm singing professor, [Theodore Frelinghuysen,] with a hymn book in his hand and a bible in his arm.

"Clay, half intoxicated with wine, raving at a debauch, and Frelinhuysen fervently addressing the Almighty in a prayer-meeting.

"Clay at a card table, and Frelinghuysen at the communion table.

"Clay pointing with deadly aim at the heart of his fellow man, and Frelinghuysen lecturing against duelling as cold-blooded murder.

"Never yet was there a tyrant or usurper so bloody and wicked, that he could not find priests or clergy of some religion or sect to cloak his crimes, and mock Heaven by invoking its blessings on his enormities. Our Whigs have not read history in vain, and they are attempting to profit by its lessons.

"Religion is called upon to take the bloody hand of the duellist and sit down with him in the seat of power.

"Religion is called upon to take to her embraces the devotee of the gaming table and the brothel, that she may share with him the civil power of the country.

"Theodore, the Gift of God, is to take upon his sanctified shoulders, HAL, THE PRINCE OF REVILERS, and seat him the chair of President, that he may be at his side."

This is what the Buchanan party said of Henry Clay in 1844. Can Whigs ever forget the base slanders then scattered broadcast throughout the Union? And now Buchanites ask Whigs to vote for the man who slandered Henry Clay! They slandered him till he sank into the tomb, and now they give him faint praise to catch old line Whig votes? Will the day of righteous retribution never come?

A WARNING TO THE SOUTH.—The Black Republican papers have ratsed a tremendous shout of victory, at the news of the election of Blair, the Black Republican candidate for Congress in Missouri, over Kennett, American. This they triumphantly exclaim is the first republican victory in a Southern State! Now let it be understood that Blair is a so-call "Democrat," and a supporter of Buchanan for the Presidency, going "head, and hand, and heart, and all his might," with Forney, Wise, Van Buren, and Rynders. "Must the earth qnake before the Southern people cease to sleep?"

FREMONTISM ON THE WANE.—During the last ten days, as we learn from our exchanges, 27 newspapers have taken down the Fremont flag and run up FILLMORE, and 17 Buchanan papers have followed suit. These papers are distributed in different States, and embrace many of the most influential papers in their party. —Utica Gazette.
