"I bequeath to my well beloved nephew, ANDREW J. DONELSON, son of Samuel Donelson, deceased, the elegant sword presented to me by the State of Tennessee, with this injunction, that he fail not to use it when necessary in support and protection of our glorious Union and for the protection of the constitutional rights of our beloved country, should they be assailed by foreign, or domestic traitors. This bequeath is made as a memento of my high regard, affection and esteem which I bear to him as A HIGH-MINDED, HONEST and HONORABLE MAN."—ANDREW JACKSON.

FOREIGN NEWS.—The steamer Africa, with Liverpool dates to the 9th inst., arrived at New York on Thursday. There is no news of interest. The crops in different parts of Europe are said to be excellent, and Breadstuffs have declined.

THE HON. R. C. WINTHROP, of Massachusetts, has written a letter endorsing the nomination of Fillmore and Donelson, in which he says, "I have seen no nomination for the Presidency which seems to promise so much of peace and harmony to the country at large, and so much of assured stability to its institutions, under existing circumstances, as that of Mr. Fillmore."

THE OLD LINE WHIG CONVENTION.—The Delegates to the late Old Line Whig Convention which assembled in Baltimore in July last, have been called to re-assemble in that city on Wednesday, third day of September next, to nominate Delegates to the Whig National Convention to assemble in Baltimore on the 17th September. Judge Weisel, the President, wishes a full attendance, and if any of the members cannot attend, others should be appointed in their stead, by the late members. The National Convention will be a large one, Virginia, New York, and other States have appointed Delegates and Alternates, of high character and talents. The assembling of such a body of men, will be an interesting and sublime spectacle. The call of Judge Weisel will be found in another column of our paper.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS—CALL FOR AN EXTRA SESSION.—The first session of the thirty-fourth Congress adjourned on on Monday last, in accordance with the previous resolution of the two Houses, but having failed to pass the army appropriation bill by reason of the House pertinaciously clogging it with provisos in reference to Kansas, which the Senate deemed irrevelant and arbitrary, would not therefore agree to, the President of the United States issued a proclamation calling an Extra Session, which convened at the Capitol on Thursday last.

All the general appropriation bills were passed, excepting the one for the army, which embraces some $14,000,000.

The entire appropriations so far made is nearly $50,000,000. Among the last of the appropriation bills disposed of was the "omnibus," or civil and diplomatic bill, in which there is an item appropriating three hundred thousand dollars for the building of a post office in Baltimore.

THE YELLOW FEVER IN KING'S COUNTY, N. Y.—The New York Times alleges that the yellow fever has found a lodgment in Kings county. It made its appearance about three weeks ago, and since that time not less than fifty persons have died in the vicinity of New Utrecht alone.

MR. FILLMORE'S REPLY

To the Resolutions of the Virginia Whig State Convention.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 6th, 1856.

Wyndham Robinson, Esq:

SIR—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 23d ult., transmitting a copy of the Preamble and Resolutions adopted by the Whig Convention of Virginia, lately assembled at Richmond, by which that intelligent and patriotic body recommended to their Whig brethren throughout the State to yield to my nomination for the Presidency their active and zealous suppert.

Standing, as I do, as the known candidate of another party, I yet receive this recommendation with gratitute and pride. I feel that it is made, not because the principlos of the two parties are identical, nor with a view of merging them with each other—for such an object is expressly disclaimed by the convention—but because the principles which my nomination represents, approach more nearly to those maintained by the Whigs of Virginia, than those of any other candidate; and because, as the convention was pleased to say, of their confidence of my late administration of the government.

Whatever may be our differences on minor subjects, I am sure there is one on which we agree—and that one at this moment is paramount to all others. I allude to the preservation of the Union of these States, and the rescuing the country from sectional strife. The question is not so much, how shall the government be administered, as how shall it be preserved; and on this great, vital question, national Whigs, national Democrats, and Union-loving Americans may well act in concert. On this basis, I shall with pleasure receive the votes of all who have confidence in my integrity and ability, and who ask no other pledge than my past service for my future conduct. This position seems to me alike honorable to all. No principle is sacrificed. No deception is practiced; and I trust that no one, casting his vote for me on this ground will have cause to regret it.

With many thanks for the flattering manner in which you have been pleased to communicate the result of the convention, I have the honor to be

Your friend and fellow citizen,

MILLARD FILLMORE.

WOLVES IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING.—The opponents of the American party have adopted a new "dodge." A number of men in different parts of the country, who are bitter and uncompromising opponents of the American party, are seeking to disparage the prospects of Mr. Fillmore and to frighten timid and vacilliating men from his support by falsely representing that they would prefer Mr. Fillmore for President if there were any chance of his election, but that, since there is not, they have determined to vote for Mr. Buchanan. This is altogether a Sag Nicht trick. These men are wolves in sheep's clothing. In this deceptive disguise they approach the friends of Mr. Fillmore and thus seek to dampen their ardor and lessen their hope of success. We warn our friends to beware of such tricksters. This is the newest device of Sag-Nichtism to arrest if possible the increasing popular enthusiasm in favor of Fillmore and Donelson that grows in the hearts of millions of our country men. We say again that Fillmore's prospects of success are far better than those of any other candidate for the Presidency, and the South will be compelled to choose between Freemont and Fillmore which she will have for President.

THE NORTHERN CONSERVATIVES.—The following is a copy of a letter from G. W. B., dated Saratogo, Friday, the 15th of August:

"The Whig Convention at Albany, yesterday, was very enthusiastic and large and unanimous for Fillmore. New York State is certain for Mr. Fillmore, and every day he is growing stronger. I only hope the Southern people will support him. It will be bad policy for them to support Buchanan, rest assured. For the National party of the North would be discouraged, and afterwards go for the North. I really believe if the Fillmore people of the North were convinced the Southern people would desert him, and support Buchanan, that Fremont would sweep every Northern State.

"Fillmore is stronger at the North than you imagine, and will carry several Northern States. This State surely.

"Do tell your Southern friends, while there is a good chance for Fillmore, to rally in his support."—Am. Organ.

DIABOLICAL MURDERER.—An atrocious murder has been committes at Florence, Ala. A correspondent of the Mobile Morning Herald, thus furnishes the particulars:

"A schoolmaster had a tame sparrow of which he was very fond, and he had warned his scholars that if any of them killed it, they should die by his hands.—By accident, or intentionally, one of the boys stepped on the bird and killed it. Alarmed at the threats of his master, the boy was afraid to return to school; but the master tranquilized the boy's mind, and begged him to come back. He did so, and after the lessons were finished, he took him into a private room and strangled him. On the boy's father hearing what had occurred, he loaded his gun and went and shot the schoolmaster."

Congressional Squabble.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—This morning Hon. Mr. McMullen, of Virginia, and Hon. Mr. Granger, of New York, whilst riding to the Capitol in an omnibus, got into a dispute about politics, when Mr. McMullen seized and struck Mr. Granger in the eye. The parties then clinched, but were separated by the passengers.

Late and Interesting News from Mexico.

The New Orleans Picayune has advices from the city of Mexico to the 5th inst.

The article of the new constitution guaranteeing the toleration of religion has been adopted.

The sales of church property are progressing steadily. It is supposed that the Government will obtain a large revenue from thia source.

Gen. Wheat had resigned his commission in the Mexican army and has returned to the United States.

The Mexican Government have adopted the Ramsey route for an inter-oceanic railroad between the Gulf of Mexico and the Pacific, at Acapulco. Col. Albert C. Ramsey is authorized to form the company and take charge of the works. There is to be an office in New York and one in Mexico.

About thirty persons, principally priests have been exiled from Puebla on the charge of endeavoring to excite insurrection and revolution.

A new postal tariff has been published. Heraafter letters will pay at the rate of 6½ cents per half ounce for thirty leagues. Unpaid letters are charged double.

Senor Velasquez de Leon, an ex-minister of Santa Anna, has been apprehended and imprisoned in the capital.

POST THE BOOKS.—How econimical the present Democratic Pierce Administration has been! How stand the figures? Here they are from official sources. The expenses of this Democratic Administration are $75,684,400 a year!

$6,307,200 a month!!
$1,452,600 a week!!!
$207,660 a day!!!!
$8,600 an hour!!!!!
$144 a minute!!!!!
$2.40 a second!!!!!!

Let us ask what is the guarantee that James Buchanan, if elected to the Presidency, will be any more careful of the people's money than Franklin Pierce has been? We beg the honest, hard-working citizens to ponder on this wasteful expenditure of the public money, and then ask themselves the question whether Democracy is a luxury or a burden? The taxgathere with double bills against you, is already on his way to your homes!—When he comes, bless the Democracy for his visit.

ANOTHER PRIZE FIGHT ON THE TAPIS.—We understand on very good authority, that on Wednesday the friends of Mr. Thomas Hyer made the preliminary arrangements for a prize fight between that gentleman and Mr. Dominick Bradley, of Philadelphia. The challenge it is understood came from Bradley, who is a man of 225 lbs. weight, and six feet, four inches in height. Hyer is about 6 feet two, and weighs 190 lbs., or thereabouts The stakes are to be $10,000 a side, and Mr. Hyer's friends put up $200 as a guarantee that he would accede to the terms, but we have not heard that he has os yet done so, and it is to be sincerely hoped that he will not.—N. Y. Express.

Important from Kansas—More Bloodshed.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 18.—The Westport "Border Ruffian" of the 13th says:—"On Monday night 200 free-soilers attacked the town of Franklin, containing only 20 pro-slavery men, and fought for several hours. Six free-soilers and four pro-slavery men were killed, and the post office was robbed and burnt, when the assailants retreated, carrying off the cannon belonging to the town."

Another report states that seventeen free-soilers were killed and wounded.—The Government troops occupied the town next day.

Old Line Whig Convention.

To the Delegates composing the Old Line Whig Convention of the State of Maryland, which Assembled in the city of Baltimore on the 10th day of July last:

As a National Whig Convention is proposed to be held in the City of Baltimore on the third Wednesday (the 17th day) of September next, a day and a measure recommended by Whig Conventions and meetings in many of the States of the Union; and as it is highly proper and important that the Whigs of Maryland should co-operate in this National movement and be represedted in a body of conservative Whigs, the deliberations of which may be productive of vast good to the Republic in its present excited and distracted condition—and as the Whig State Convention of Maryland, which assembled in the city of Baltimore on the 10th day of July last, conferred on me, as its presiding officer, the power to re-convene the Convention at any time when it should in my judgment become necessary, I do therefore call upon you to assemble again in the City of Baltimore on Wednesday, the third day of September next; then and there to confer and to adopt suitable measures for a full representation of the Whigs of Maryland in the proposed National Convention.

And in order to secure this object and the more effectually to promote the salutary and patriotic ends in view, it has been suggested and recommended, that I should not only urge upon the members of the Convention a full and prompt attendance on the day named, but that I should also give notice, as I now most respectfully do, to the Old Line Whigs in those counties in Maryland, which had not appointed delegates to the last State Convention, to hold meetings in their respective counties, and at their usual places of meeting, on Saturday, the 23d day of August, inst., then and there to appoint Delegates to the State Convention that is by this call to be re-convened.

D. WEISEL,

President of the Old Line Whig State Convention of Maryland.
