KENT COUNTY CHURCH ITEMS

WESLEY, RAUM M. P. CHAPELS
C. L. Dawson, Pastor

Three hundred and twenty-two people attended our churches last Sunday and worshipped with us. What a fine record for country churches made splendid contributions to the Red Cross Flood Relief.

Next Sunday is the day of days—Mother's Day. Mother will be remembered in songs, recitations and special talk by the pastor. Our boys and girls will tell us how to remember and honor Mother. Come out and show your appreciation to God for His greatest handiwork. Any mother, young or old, will be conveyed to Wesley Church by informing the pastor of the desire to come. Let us honor you, Mothers?

Wesley and Raum are having wonderful Sunday school services. Come out and study God's word with us.

Our Christian Endeavor services as usual with fine leaders. Do you have a church home? If not be at home with us.

The members and friends of the Methodist Protestant Church of Sharptown and of Mt. Herman Church, a part of the charge, gave their pastor, Rev. A. F. T. Raum, a public reception in the church. Joseph P. Cooper presided. The following addresses were made representing the different organizations of the churches: Samuel W. Owens, representing the Sharptown Sunday school; Mrs. Julia Wright, representing the Ladies' Aid Society; Harland E. Phillips, representing Mt. Herman Church at Columbia; L. Pratt Cooper, the Sunday School of that church; Mrs. Frank Hitch, representing the Aid Society. Rev. P. P. Truitt, of the M. E. Church made an address. Rev. A. F. T. Raum responded. J. S. Cooper, of Mt. Herman Church made an address. These addresses were interspersed with musical selections. After these exercises the company was invited into the basement where refreshments were served. Mrs. A. F. T. Raum and Mrs. Paul Truitt were each presented with a large cake.

That same cordial welcome, as in the past, awaits you at both St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches this week. There is however a special to all mothers, for this will be "Mother's Day." A special program has been prepared in all departments of the church, and in Sabbath School, Hour of worship and Christian Endeavor, at both churches, Motherhood will be extolled and honored. At St. James, the following services invite you. Sabbath school at 10 a. m.; the hour of worship at 11 a. m., at which time the pastor, Rev. L. Colvin Randall will discourse on an appropriate theme; and the Christian Endeavor at 7.30 p. m. with Mrs. J. H. Usilton and Thomas Moffett as the leaders. Special musical numbers at all these hours. At Lynch, there is Sabbath school at 2 p. m.; worship at 3 p. m., and Christian Endeavor at 7.30 p. m. with Mr. Hackett, of Still Pond, as the speaker.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. James will meet on Tuesday afternoon of next week, in Chestertown, as the guest of Mrs. C. L. Dodd. On the following day, at Rock Hall, as the guest of Mrs. Crew, formerly of Lynch, will gather the Ladies' Aid of Lynch.
