CHESTERTOWN FARM BOY FORGES AHEAD IN N. Y.

The friends of Slater C. Blackiston, who was born and raised on a farm near Chestertown, will be pleased to know of his rise from the ranks to an officership in the largest terminal company in the world.

The Bush Companies own and operate the Bush Building on West 42nd Street, New York City, who's tower is one of the oustanding sights of mid-New York and may be seen for miles from the surrounding country and at sea.

They also own and control the Bush properties in Brooklyn where are located the most modern and up-to-date manufacturing and warehouse buildings in the country, with piers able to accommodate the largest freight boats in use. The entire Brooklyn property, factories, warehouses and piers are so located as to cut handling costs to a minimum and are served by the Bush Railroad Company and the Bush Trucking Company.

The outstonding feature of Mr. Blackiston's (known better to his vast army of friends as "Slator") success is that although he has worked hard and earnestly in New York, his heart and thoughts will always remain with Chestertown and Kent County.

$10,000 BOND ISSUE WINS AT ROCK HALL

At the annual election for three members of the Town Council of Rock Hall held on Saturday afternoon Joseph B. Davis, Charles B. Judefind and Melvin Kendall were elected by substantial majorities, and the proposition to bond the town for $10,000 for an adequate water supply won by a majority of 62 out of a total of 200 votes.

Mayor Is Named.

The new board organized Monday by the election of Joseph B. Davis as Mayor of the town. The Council then held a joint meeting with officials of the Rock Hall Progressive Association, and it was decided to take immedite steps to sell the bonds and to begin as soon as possible the installation of a water system which will furnish fire protection and also supply the homes of the town.

It is believed that a number of artesian wells will be sunk. At the present time the town is without adequate fire protection, which has caused unusually high insurance rates which are fifty-eight cents on dwellings as compared with a rate of thirty-two cents in Chestertown.

It is believed a new water supply and fire apparatus, which is to be installed for use in connection with the Chestertown engines, will greatly reduce insurance rates and also furnish the householders with an adequate supply of water.

"MERRY WHIRL" A BIG SUCCESS

This week witnessed the splendid third success of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company's Annual Benefit. "Merry Whirl" was the title of the musical revue put on by the Firemen under the direction of the Wheeler Producing Company.

Every seat was taken at Lyceum Theatre for three evenings and standing room utilized to accommodate those anxious to witness the performances. Everyone left the theatre well-pleased with every feature of the plays.

The little tots were cute; the older ones were nice and all took their parts beautifully.

The proceeds for the three nights will go above $1,000..

Mary Joe Wheatley sold 235 tickets and won first prize and Gladys Rebecca Aldridge sold 205 and won the second prize.

The cast of the shhw were entertaiend after the show on Wednesday night by the Fire Company.

The Wheeler Company have made a contract with the Ladies' Auxiliary of Chestertown Fire Company for a ladies' mistrel show thits fall. Also for another play next spring for the firemen.

It was a great show for all concerned and we congratulate the Wheeler Producing Company, the actors and actresses, young and old, and the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company.

Only space prevents us going into each event in detail.

Mrs. D. B. Ford, the artistic accompanist was presented a beautiful bar pin.

Mrs. Wheeler was presented with a beautiful fountain pen and pencil.

AUTO SMASHED AND HORSE KILLED

A serious accident took place last Saturday night on the stone road at Urieville Mill hill between Chestertown and Kennedyville, Md. Vernon Hill and brother, sons of Walter Hill were riding home from Chestertown in an Overland Sedan about 11 p. m. when without warning at Urieville hill a horse appeared in the path of their machine and horse and auto crashed together. The horse had his neck broken by the collision and the automobile was considerably damaged.

Fortunately the Hill boys were not hurt, which is very remarkable. The horse belonged to H. D. Orem and had broken out of the field.

KENT COUNTIAN IN $1,000,000 SUIT

J. Henry Baker, Esq., son of Mrs. James H. Baker, and brother of Mrs. A. H. Covey and Miss Lizzie Baker, all of Chestertown, is interested in the $1,000,000 estate of the late Dr. Edw. E. Tull. Mrs. J. Henry Baker is the half-sister of Dr. Tull.

Leaving $1,000,000 to a 13-year-old girl whom he had unsuccessfully attempted to adopt, Dr. Edward E. Tull, of Somerset county made no legacies for any of his living relatives, it was learned when his will was opened.

A caveat to the will has been filed by the dead man's sister, Mrs. Louise Tull Baker, wife of J. Henry Baker, Baltimore attorney. The purpose of this action is to stop administration of the estate. Robert H. Jones, member of the Somerset County Board of Education and half-brother of both Dr. Tull and Mrs. Baker, also joined in the filing of the caveat.

Dr. Tull died last Friday week at his estate on Wicomico creek, in Somerset county. He was 61 years old. Previous to retiring from medical practice about 10 years ago, Dr. Tull had won a reputation as a surgeon in New York, where he practiced. He was one of the 12 surviving charter members of the American Surgical Society.

Dr. Tull's will was written about five years ago and was found in his safe deposit box. The residue of the estate is left to Edna Davy, daughter of a farmer of Fairmount, Md. The only specific bequests are to his nurses and employes and an annuity of $300 a month to Edna's sister, Ruth Davy, 15 years old.

For several years the two girls had resided with Dr. Tull, who, on occasions, had made offers to adopt them. This the father of the girls declined to permit.

The Baltimore Trust Company is named executor and trustee of the estate by the will. Both of the girls are to receive complete educations and to be maintained in comfortable circumstances until they attain their majority, it was provided. Edna is to gain possession of the estate when she becomes 25.

The only relative recognized in the will was Dr. Tull's mother, who died since the will was made.

In the caveat papers filed in the Orphans' Court for Somerset county it was stated that Dr. Tull's parents were dead and that he had no children or descendants. The papers asserted that Mrs. Baker and Mr. Jones consequently were next of kin. The case will be heard in the September term of court.

G. Roy Mueller, vice-president of the Baltimore Trust Company and trust officer of the institution, said that no accurate estimate could be made of Dr. Tull's estate or the amount which Miss Davy would receive until an inventory had been completed.

The value of the estate is considered in Princess Anne to be about $1,250,000.

The estate includes a farm of $1,000 acres, regarded as one of the show places on the Eastern Shore. In addition Dr. Tull is said to have held a number of mortgages and other securities. The live stock on the farm also is highly valued, it was asserted.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Baker live in Baltimore ot 2008 Park ave., she is the corresponding secretary of the Arundel Club. Mr. Baker, her husband, is known outside his profession for his activity in Republican politics and the prohibition movement. He once was considered by his party as a candidate for Mayor. He was born in Kent and his father James H. Baker was State Senator from Kent County in 1896.

SOMETHING NEW AT COLLEGE

A May Pageant will be staged on the Campus of Washington College by the Co-eds on the afternoon of Commencement, June 6, at 2 p. m. This is the first presentation of what it is hoped will be established as a tradition of the college.

There wll be a May Queen, Maid of Honor, and Ladies in waiting chosen from among the Senior Class. Miss Cora McWhorter, as Queen of May, accompanied by little Betty Wickes as crown bearer, six train bearers, and her attendants will lead the procession from William Smith Hall to the throne arranged on the campus.

MAY BE PARDONED

Elsewhere in the Kent News today is a notice from the office of Governor Ritchie that he will take up the case of Frank Fallin for a pardon. He was sentenced to the penitentiary from Kent County for three years for arson.

MASONIC HOME FOR MARYLAND

At last the Masons of Maryland are to have a Masonic Home. At the Grand Lodge meeting in Baltimore this week definite action was taken. A beautiful tract of land with a fine house on it has been purchased near Cockeysville, 30 minutes from Baltimore, as the site of the new home. This estate was bought by the Grand Lodge for $45,000 and will be improved and added to as the needs of the home require.

Prof. Wm. R. Howell, Paul Adams and C. M. Melvin, Jr., represented the Chestertown Lodge of Masons at the Grand Lodge meeting in Baltimore this week and were among those who made the pilgrimage to the site of the new home. They report it an ideal location for a splendid retreat for the Masons.

KENT'S GOOD WORK FOR FLOOD SUFFERERS

As announced in the Kent News last week Kent county, through the efforts of Howard Turner, Chairman, and his able assistants have put Kent over the top in the Red Cross drive by subscribing $1671.24. The fuota for the county was $1500. The first quota was $750. This was doubled when the size of the flood grew. The local people responded in a generous manner to over subscribe the quota.

Chairman Howard Turner wishes to commend the varinus committees in the different localities for the fine work they did. Through them it was possible for the people to raise such a generous amount.

The final reports from the different districts give the following amounts:

MONEY NOT SCARCE

More than $225 was cleared from the Rummage Sale held at the Parks Building last week.

The Senior Class of the Chestertown High School cleared $178 from their play last week.

The Firemen will take in about $1500 at the "Merry Whirl" benefit.

The success of all these worthy affairs does not look like money is scarce in Kent.
