KENT NEWS.

CHESTER TOWN, Md.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 30, 1856.

AMERICAN NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT,

MILLARD FILLMORE,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

Andrew Jackson Donelson,

OF TENNESSEE.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

Eastern Shore.—Col. JAMES WALLACE,
Western Shore.—Hon. J. DIXON ROMAN,
1st. Cong. Dist.—Dr. R. GOLDSBOROUGH,
2nd. Cong. Dist.—EDWIN H. WEBSTER
3r Cong. Dist.—CORNELIUS L. L. LEARY.
4th Cong. Dist.—THOMAS SWANN,
5th Cong. Dist.—FRED'K A. SCHLEY,
th Cong. Dist.—Hon. AUG. R. SOLLERS,

"If there be those, North or South, who desire an administration for the North as against the South, or for the South as against the North, they are not the men who should give their suffrages to me. For my own part, I know only my country, my whole country, and nothing but my country."—Millard Fillmore's Address on his landing at New York.

"I bequeath to my well beloved nephew, ANDREW J. DONELSON, son of Samuel Donelson, deceased, the elegant sword presented to me by the State of Tennessee, with this injunction, that he fail not to use it when necessary in support and protection of our glorious Union and for the protection of the constitutional rights of our beloved country, should they be assailed by foreign, or domestic traitors. This bequeath is made as a memento of my high regard, affection and esteem which I bear to him as a HIGH-MINDED, HONEST and HONORABLE MAN."—ANDREW JACKSON.

"The foundation of my preference is that Mr. Fillmore has administered the Executive Government with signal success and ability. He has been tried and found true, faithful, honest and conscientious."—Henry Clay.

Out for Fillmore.—Gov. Pollock of Pennsylvania, has declared for Fillmore, and will soon mount the stump for the American ticket.

Massachussetts Politicks.—The Massachussetts Whig State Committee have approved of the nomination of Amos A. Lawrence for Governor, and Homer Foote for Lieutenant Governor, the gentlemen nominated for those offices by the recent Fillmore Convention.

Camp Meeting.—The M. E. Camp, which broke up yesterday, was the largest that has been held here for a number of years—it is said that over one hundred were converted to God. All praise is due to the ministers and managers for their indefatigable exertions to check that rowdyism which has heretofore disgraced our county, upon such occasions. During the week there were two white men committed to jail for disturbing the encampment, and a negro for selling liquor on the ground.

Excursions.—Last Sunday the steamers Georgia, Express and Champion, arrived here from Baltimore, with about twenty-five hundred negroes, which gave to our beautiful little town rather a dark appearance. These negro excursions are very objectionable to a large number of our citizens and we hope that some steps will taken to prevent them landing in future.

Old Line Whigs in Baltimore.—The Whigs of Baltimore held a Convention on Wednesday evening last to provide for and entertain the numerous delegates to the Whig National Convention, who are to assemble in that city on the 17th september Resolutions were passed inviting their brethren of the whole Union to meet in the city of Baltimore on the 17th of September 1856, and appealing to the memory of 1840 and 1844, and assuring them a hospitable welcome. Among those expected to be present Judge Conrad, of La., Edward Everett, R. C. Winthrop, Edward Curtis, of Mass., Wm. A. Graham of N. C., Francis Granger, of N. Y., Wm, C. Rives of Va., and others.

Serious Affray in Arkansas.—We learn from a gentleman direct from Linden, on the St. Francis river, that a difficulty occurred between a number of gentlemen, residents of that place, which resulted in the death of six of the party.—The disturbance grew out of a political dispute.—Memphis Eagle.

Thos. H. Clay, son of Henry Clay has been elected Pecsident of the American State Council of Kentucky.

☞ Hon. J. W. Thomas a Democratic electorial candidate in Georgia, declines serving on the electorial ticket because, as he states, he will not vote for Buchanan!

☞ The "Harrison Flag" is the title of a new Fillmore paper, that has been started in Texas.

Stand by your Guns!

Americans stand by your guns! Let no cheek blench, no nerve tremble. Let the same high resolve and patriotic impulses which have actuated you, actuate you still. A truly brave man exhibits that bravery to more advantage on the field of battle, than on the field of victory. Any coward can shoot manfully when the battle is won, but it makes the man of high determination and true grit, to face the dangers and bear the fatigue that precede the victory.

We are now in the midst of a great battle—the greatest political battle of the country. Never was there as much at stake or more to win. The Fillmore-American party has taken upon itself higher and holier objects than any other, perhaps, since this country became a nation. We seek to preserve the Union and the Constitution, and to restore the government to its pristile condition. We seek to deliver our country from demagoguery, corruption and fraud; to preserve our elective franchise in its original purity, and to prevent the institutions of our country from utter contamination by the corrupting influences of foreign political power. In short we seek to clinch the nails in our glorious old ship of State, which our revolutionary fathers have driven, and to secure what they established. We wish to put down, and forever crush out, the baneful spirit of sectional agitation which is rife in the land, and which is as unnecessary as it is villainous and disgusting! Such is our cause. It is one that commends itself to the patriotic sons of patriotic sires; and on its own merits, must and will become the dominant party of the land.

And in our leader, Fillmore, we have a captain worthy the high mission he leads. A man, the whole course of whose life, has been pure as the mountain rill. A man who has been ever prompt, efficient and patriotic. A man whom no prospect of honors or rewards could seduce from the line of political duty, and who in the exercise of that duty, has evinced a wisdom, judgment, and firmness beyond any living man of our time.—This is admitted. The Locofocos, even—unscrupulous as they ever have been, and ever will be, in their slanderous attacks upon the character of their opponents—dare not breathe a word of reproach upon the fair fame of Millard Fillmore. Friends, let this be recollected, that the party who painted Henry Clay (who they are now ready to canonize) as the veriest political, moral and social scoundrel that ever went unhung—now, with all their proclivities for slander and abuse cannot and dare not bring a charge against the fair fame of Millard Fillmore!

You are called upon to surrender.—Yes, surrender in favor of the very men, and the very party, whom you have been fighting with such desperation and with stern resolve; and which has been fighting you in a style, which set at naught every principle of honorable political warfare. Aye, not only this, but they most impudently ask us to help them to retain the loaves and fishes, the pursuit of which has been the sole occasion for the most unholy, ann merciless, and abusive warfare, which they have chosen to wage upon us and our party. Will you surrender? Will you assist in placing the rod in the hand of our enemy, which has scarified our backs so often and so unmercifully? Will you stoop to kiss the boot that has spurned you so frequently and so contemptuously?

Stand by your guns, then! There is nothing in the principles of your party that should cause you to forsake it—There is nothing in your noble captain that should cause you to desert him.—There is nothing in the character of the glorious leaders of our party, who compose the noblest of the noble men of every State of the Union, who that can afford you the least excuse for either surrender or desertion. Why then, should you do it? Is it for the love of the parties which had such a peculiar way of showing its affection for you? Is it that you, who have borne so many defeats, with the nerve of men, fear any defeat that may come upon us now? Those that know the old Guards, know them too well for that. Is it because the prospect may not be as charming as might be wished? If so, would not the same motive be a good excuse for the treachery of Arnold? Did Washington turn against his country, when, with a handful of ragged and half starved soldiers, he retreated before an overwhelming foe, across the plains of New Jersey? Did Marion or Sumpter surrender, when, with a few troops, they were hemmed in the swamps of South Carolina? Did Warren quail, when on the brow of Bunker Hill, he surveyed the advancing columns of the enemy? No!—none of them surrendered, none of them despaired at the blackness of the prospect or quailed before the danger. They were true to their cause, their companions and themselves. They stood by their guns and succeeded gloriously, and so will our party, and in this election if we stand by our guns!

The Fillmore-American party has no cause for despair. Even if the fear of defeat could influence a man of our party there is no occasion for it exercise.—Millard Fillmore will be the next President of the United States! Let enemies cavil at the declaration who may. Let friends shake their heads despondingly over it, who choose to. We repeat, with more confidence this morning, than ever before, that Millard Fillmore will be the next President of the United States and, in succeeding issues, will give our reasons for so believing. Then, friends, let every man stand by his guns!—Norfolk American.

TEN CENT JIMMY.

AN HISTORICAL ROMANCE.

BY A WORKING MAN.

There's Ten Cent Jimmy of olden time,
Who never earned a dollar or dime,
And by his wits from then till now,
Has always sucked the public cow.
Get out of the way, Old Ten Cent Jimmy,
Get out of the way, Old Ten Cent Jimmy,
Get out of the way, Old Ten Cent Jimmy,
Clear the track for Fillmore and Hick'ry.

In 1812 we began our fights
About Free Trade and Sailor's Rights,
There's Ten Cent Jimmy, of pure intention,
Whose Heart was in the Hartford Convention.
Get out of the way, &c.

About this time a speech he made
Which caused the Democrats to fade—
His blood was pure and rather fat,
But not a drop of Democrat.
Get out of the way, &c.

To Cincinnati the Sages go,
A Platform they have made, you know,
A rickety thing and rather skinny,
On which they pla Old Ten Cent Jimmy.
Get out of the way, &c.

There's Fillmore, he's a National Man,
And Donelson makes up the span;
The track is clear, and I'll bet a guinea
We'll easily beat Old Ten Cent Jimmy.
Get out of the way, &c.

Ye workingmen on you I call,
Who think your wages are too small—
Who prefer a dollar to a penny—
Down at once on Ten Cent Jimmy.
Down at once on Ten Cent Jimmy,
Down at once on Ten Cent Jimmy,
Down at once on Ten Cent Jimmy,
Up with the flag of Fillmore and Hick'ry.
