KENNEDYVILLE WINS AT BASE BALL

The base ball team representing the Kennedyville Athletic Association won three games over the holiday week-end.

On Saturday they defeated the Marcus Hook nine in a double header taking both ends.

The first contest went to the Kennedyville Farmers by a 2 to 1 score. Eddie Blackway, Chestertown star, twirled this engagement for the Kent Countians and let the visitors from Pennsylvania down with three hits.

Bill Loller, Worton boy who had a try out with Easton, pitched the second half of the bargain bill, and allowed but one hit, shutting the Marcus Hook tossers out while Kennedyville pushed a quartette of counters across.

On Monday the Kennedyville A. A. journeyed to Bay View in Cecil County and bagged the town from that place 26 to 9. Loller was again on the mound and pitched in superb form.

Automobile Club Plans Annual Banquet

The annual banquet of the Automobile Club of Kent County has been set for June 16 and will be held this year at the Hotel Rigbie at Betterton, Md.

President James G. Beck, of the club, said today that tickets for the banquet should be purchased at once as the supply would be limited.

The price of the banquet tickets will be $1.50.
