The 'Baltimore Leit Stern,' a German paper, in speaking of the election says: "We doubt not, that two thousand German votes will be cast for Mr. Swann."

LAND SALE.—R. Hynson, Esq., agent for Dr. Thos. D. Hurtt, sold at public sale, on Wednesday last, a farm near Geo. Town X Roads, containing 201 acres, for $11,500 00. James W. Hurtt, purchaser.

INQUEST.—Coroner Frazier, on Thursday morning last, held an inquest over the body of a negro man belonging to Thomas M. Blackiston, Esq., near this place. The deceased was deaf and dumb—he was missing on Monday, and found dead in the corn-field Wednesday about one o'clock. We could not learn the verdict of the jury.

RATIFICATION MASS MEETING IN BALTIMORE.—The Mass Meeting at Monument Square, Baltimore, Thursday evening last, to ratify the nomination Fillmore and Donelson, by the Whig National Convention, was one of the largest and most imposing assemblages ever held in that city. The meeting was organized by appointing William Schley, Esq. President, thirty-one Vice Presidents and a number of Secretaries. The meeting is said to have numbered thirty thousand people at the lowest estimate, and was addressed by Hon. W. L. Goggin, of Va Francis Granger, of N. York; Hon. Alex. Rives, of Va., Mr. Warren of Mass., Hon. Wm. A. Graham, of N. Carolina, ex-Governor Hunt, of N. York and others.

Welcome to the Ranks.

The National Intelligencer of Tuesday acquiesces in the nomination of the Whig National Convention, and is out for Fillmore and Donelson.

The New Orleans Picayune, the most influential and widely circulated journal in the South, has come out for Fillmore and Donelson.

The Virginia Herald, published at Fredericksburg, Va., hitherto a neutral journal, has hoisted the flag of Fillmore and Donelson.

The American Register, is the title of a new paper published at Towsontown, Baltimore county. It has the flag of Fillmore and Donelson at its mast-head.

Stephen M. Allen, of Massachusetts, one of the prime movers in the New England portion of the North Americans, has abandoned Fremont and come out for Fillmore.

From every section of the country we have the most cheering accounts of the progress of our cause. Thousands are leaving the ranks of Buchanan and Fremont and rallying to the support of the Constitution and Laws,

Whig National Convention.

The assembling of the Whig National Convention, is an event destined to shine conspicuously in the political history of our country, and doubtless will decide the result of the Presidential election.—The nomination of Fillmore and Donelson will be hailed with delight by every good Whig in the land. On Thursday the committee on resolutions reported the following Platform, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Whigs of the United States now assembled in convention, hereby declare their reverence for the Constitution and their unalterable attachment to the National Union and their fixed determination to do all in their power to preserve it for themselves and their posterity. They have no new principles to announce—no new platform to establish—but are content broadly to rest where their forefathers have rested—upon the Constitution of the United States—wishing no safer guide, no higher law.

Resolved, That they regard with the deepest anxiety the present disordered condition of our national affairs—a portion of our country ravaged by civil war and large sections of our population embittered by mutual recriminations; and they distinctly trace these calamities to the culpable neglect of duty by the present national administration.

Resolved, That the government of the United States was formed by the conjunction in political unity of wide spread geographical sections materially differing not only in climate and products but in social and domestic institutions—and that any cause which shall permanently array these sections in political hostility and organize parties founded only on geographical distinctions must inevitably prove fatal to the continuance of the national Union.

Resolved, That the Whigs of the United States declare, as a fundamental article of their political faith, the absolute necessity for avoiding geographical parties. The danger to clearly discerned by the Father of his Country, in "parties founded on geographical distinctions," has now become fearfully apparent in the agitation which is convulsing the nation to its centre, and which must be arrested at once, if we would preserve our Constitutional Union from being blotted from the family of civilized nations.

Resolved, That all who revere the Constitution and love the Union, must look with alarm at the attitude assumed by two of the great parties in the field in the present Presidential canvass—the one claiming only to represent sixteen northern States of the Union,—the other appealing mainly to the passions and prejudices of the Southern States, and that the masses of either of those factions must add fuel to the flame which now threatens to wrap our dearest interests in one common ruin.

Resolved, That the only remedy for evils so appalling is the support of a candidate pledged to neither of the geographical sections now arrayed in political antagonism, but holding both in just and equal regard. We congratulate the friends of the Union that such a candidate exists in Milliard Fillmore, of the State of New York.

Resolved, That without adopting or referring to the peculiar doctrines of the party, which has already selected Mr. Fillmore as its candidate, we look to him as a well tried and faithful friend of the Constitution and the Union—eminent alike for his wisdom and firmness; for his justice and moderation in our foreign relations; for his calm pacific temperment, well becoming the head of a great and enlightened government; for his devotion to the Constitution, in its true spirit, and his inflexibility in executing all laws passed under its authority; but beyond all these attributes, in possessing the one, transcendent merit, of being the representative of neither of the two sectional parties now struggling for political supremacy.

Resolved, That in the present exigency of public affairs, we are not called on to discuss any subordinate question of administration in exercising the constitutional rights of our Government—it is enough to know that civil war is raging, and the Union is in peril, and to proclaim our earnest conviction that the restoration of Mr. Fillmore to the Presidential chair will furnish the best, if not the only means of restoring peace to the country.

Resolved, That we cordially approve the nomination of Andrew J. Donelson, of Tennessee, for the office of Vice President, regarding him as a national conservative patriot, faithfully devoted to the Constitution and the Union.

Resolved, That the spontaneous rising of the Whigs throughout the country, their prompt rally in support of our highest national interests, and the spirit here displayed, sufficiently attest the national importance of preserving and invigorating their party organization and that a National Whig Committee of one from each of the States, be now appointed by the President, with authority to call any future convention, and generally promote the effective organization of the party throughout the United States.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published and respectfully submitted by this convention, as an address to the people of the United States.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.—A desperate attempt was made on Saturday night last, to murder Col. J. Maybury Turner and F. Woolen, Esq., two highly respectable citizens of Baltimore city. The assassin is named Antoine Faupaier, an Italian organ-grinder, who was found lurking, with his son, at the ice-house of Col. T., and when arrested on the cry of "stop thief" and brought back, suddenly stabbed the Col., nearly cutting off his left arm and inflicting a very dangerous wound in his side, then instantly stabbing Woollen leaving a wound four or five inches deep in his chest, then turning on the officer who arrested him, and cutting him dreadfully on the shoulder. At the last accounts strong hopes were entertained of the recovery the wounded. The scoundrel was safely lodged in prison; he has been fifteen months in this country.

GEORGIA.

A correspondent at Rome, Ga., writes us as follows:

"We are gaining strength every day in Georgia, and I am fully of the opinion that we will carry this State for the American party. Our prospects here were rather gloomy two months ago, but now the enthusiasm of 1840 is here, and Buck and Breck stock is going down, and Fillmore and Donelson's rising."

The Georgia Citizen, which has hitherto declined to sustain the nominations of Fillmore and Donelson, have finally taken position in their behalf. After giving the manifestations in different sections of the country in favor of Fillmore the Citizen says:

"We see on all sides unmistakable indications that the tide has turned, and now promises to carry Mr. Fillmore into the White House with a rush of waters. No use voting for 'old Buck.' He can't get a single Northern State, not even Pennsylvania, and the few States he will get in the South will only take so much from Fillmore, and benefit the Black Republicans. This is the signs of the times to-day. Three weeks ago we saw no sign at all that was favorable to Fillmore. Now the political barometer shows that the elements are at work to bring upon us such another flood as swept the country in 1840. A like flood occurred in 1848, eight years afterwards, when Gen. Taylor and Millard Fillmore were elevated to power. And lo! another eight years have passed, and another clean sweep may confidently be expected."

MR. FILLMORE IN LOUISIANA.—We received this morning a business letter from a highly intelligent gentleman in New Orleans, in which he gives the most cheering prospect for Mr. Fillmore in that State. He says: "The city of New Orleans is good for 2,000 majority for Fillmore, and you may depend upon it, we intend to carry the State."

☞ The "Fillmore Intelligencer" is the name of a new paper started at Zanesville, Ohio.

DEAD.—Col. Jas. Roe, an old an respectable citizen of Queen Ann's County, died last Tuesday.

Union of the North Americans with the Fillmore Party.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 24th.—The North Americans at their last night's session adopted a resolution cheerfully responding to the proposition of the Fillmore convention for a fusion on the Fillmore ticket, reaffirming the principles of the North American party, but declaring their national committee disbanded; they then adjourned finally.

ROCHESTER, Sept. 24.—The Fillmore convention have completed their State electorial ticket, Daniel Ullman and Jesse C. Dunn being selected electors at large. The convention adjourned at three o'clock this morning, with twelve cheers for Fillmore and Donelson.

American Mass Meeting.

ROCHESTER, Sept. 23.—A large American mass meeting was held here this evening. From five to six thousand people were present. A torch-light procession paraded the streets, accompanied with numerous bands of music, banners, transparances, flags, &c., the whole ending with a most magnificent display of fire-works, in the public square.

Kentucky Sure for Fillmore and Donelson—Large Accessions to the American Ranks.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 22.—The contest is becoming warm throughout this State. The cause of Fillmore and Donelson is daily gaining strength, and the good old State may be looked at as sure for them. This may be set down as a fixed fact. Although no one here ever despaired of the sober second thought of Kentuckians, the proceeding of the late Baltimore Whig Convention has done the business, and sealed forever the political fate of the two B's.

From Kansas.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20th.—The steamer Polar Star from Kansas with dates to the 15th has reached here. Capt. Robinson with 52 Pro-Slavery men attacked the Free-State force at Grasshopper Falls on the 13th, killing two Free State men and capturing their ammunition, provisions and horses. Next day Col. Harvey, with 200 Free-State men, attacked Robinson's party in a fortified log house at Hickory Point. After fighting two hours and losing twelve men, Harvey proposed an armistice of 30 days, which was accepted. Robinson had three men killed and many wounded.

Leavenworth is deserted. Governor Geary is at Lecompton.

☞ The home organ of Hon. John M. Clayton, in Delaware, has raised the Fillmore flag.

☞ There are forty-four newspapers in Virginia supporting Fillmore and Donelson. The work goes bravely on.
