KENT COUNTY CHURCH NOTES

The Christian Endeavor of Lynch M. P. Church held an interesting meeting last Sunday evening. The leader, Master Edward Harris, had a splendid program. Special features of the evening were music furnished by the orchestra of the Chestertown M. E. Church and an inspiring address by W. Frazier Russell, Jr. Our Christian Endeavor extends a cordial welcome to all.

St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches
L. Colvin Randall, Pastor.

The order of service at these churches of St. James and Lynch will be as usual, with the St. James Church observing the 11 a. m. service as a thank offering occasion, when all members are urged to bring an extra gift to express appreciation to Almighty God for His goodness. The schedule of services for the Sabbath is as follows:

Sabbath School at 10 a. m., G. A. Carroll, superintendent, Stanley B. Sutton, assistant.

Hour of worship at 11 a. m., sermon, thank offering service.

Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m.

Services for Lynch will follow the usual schedule as follows:

Sabbath School at 2 p. m., Mrs. Kate Collins, superintendent.

Hour of worship at 3 p. m., sermon by the pastor.

Christian Endeavor at 7.30 p. m.

The mid-week prayer and praise service of St. James will be held on Wednesday at 7.30 p. m. Last Sunday morning witnessed a beautiful scene, when in the 11 a. m. service at St. James, fourteen young men and boys, five girls and two adults, twenty-one in all, joined in fellowship with the church; others are expected to join on this coming Sabbath, all as the result of a two weeks campaign conducted through the past two weeks, in which the pastor who conducted the campaign received a very fine bit of co-operation from the membership and friends, displayed in personal work.

Dr. L. C. Clark, Chancellor of the American University, Washington, D. C., occupied the pulpit of Chestertown M. E. Church morning and evening Sunday in the absence of the pastor, who dedicated a new church building at Claymont, Del. Dr. Clark has the distinction of being at the head of the Post Graduate University for all the Colleges and Universities of Methodism. He served in the ministry for 25 years and his preaching met with a hearty welcome here. Dr. Titsworth, president of Washington College, assisted Chancellor Clark in the service in the morning.

At the morning service in St James' M. P. Church on Sunday, 21 persons, including 14 young men, five ladies, and a husband and wife were received into active membership in the church as the result of a successful revival conducted by the pastor, Rev. L. Colvin Randall.

The By-Kota Club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. S. Kreeger Monday evening and will be entertained by Mrs. Kreeger, Mrs. Townsend Anthony and Mrs. Rumsey Anthony.

Chestertown M. E. Church
W. F. Corkran, Pastor.

Our program for the next few days is as follows:

Sunday—10 a. m. Sunday school; 11 a. m. public service, preaching by the pastor; 7 p. m. Epworth League, subject "Win My Chum," leader, Clinton Dawson; 7.30 p. m. public service in charge of the pastor. The orchestra will greatly aid the Sunday school and the Epworth League meetings. The choir will have fine programs for both morning and evening.

Tuesday—7.30 p. m. the Teacher Training Class will meet in the Sunday school rooms. This school is very fine this year and the attendance is larger than ever. It is not too late to join.

Wednesday — 7.30 p. m. prayer meeting followed by choir rehearsal.

Thursday—10.30 a. m., the Union Thanksgiving service at the M. P. Church. The pastor of the M. E. Church will preach.

The By-Kota Club supper on the evening of November 10th, was a great occasion for eats and social enjoyment.

Members of Women's Clubs in all sections of the county attended the meeting of the Kent County Council held in the courthouse Tuesday afternoon, under the direction of Miss Helen L. Schellinger, county home demonstration agent. Mrs. John White, wife of the rector of St. Paul's P. E. Church, gave a very interesting talk on Christmas suggestions, stressing the art of making valuable Christmas presents with needle and materials. Other club meetings scheduled for the week were with the Quaker Neck Neighborhood Club; the Chestertown Women's Club in an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. A. E. Culver, and a meeting of the Sassafras Girls' Club on Saturday afternoon.

Many thanks to those who contributed and helped to make the supper at Pomona School a success. $46.27 wes cleared.
