SATURDAY, JANUARY 28, 1928

Next Thursday is Ground-hog Day.

Members of the Delmarva Press Association which embraces newspapers of the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Delaware will meet in Wilmington Saturday for the annual convention.

It is expected that Representative T. Alan Goldsborough, of the First district of Maryland and Representative Robert Houston, Delaware, will be the principal speakers at the annual banquet to be served in the Hotel DuPont-Biltmore Saturday afternoon.

THOUGHTS FOR 1928

In a recent issue of The Manufacturers Record, Richard H. Edmunds presents the following timely article which appeals to us as the most philosophical answer to the much discussed question—"The needs of the present hour." He says:—

The supreme need of this country is a nation-wide revival of the old time, genuine prayer-meeting religion.

A religion that makes us realize that the same Divine authority that tells us that there is a Heaven also tells us that there is a Hell. If we accept the belief in a Heaven, we must accept from the same authority the belief in a Hell—

A religion that makes men realize that every act of evil is recorded on their consicence and that, though it may sleep for a while, it can never die—

A religion that makes an employer understand that if he is unfair to his employes and pays them less than fair wages measured by his ability and their efficiency and zeal, he is a robber—a robber of his employes and a robber of himself of honor—

A religion that makes an employe know that if he does not give full and efficient service to the extent of his ability he, too, is a robber of his employer's time and a robber of his own character—

A religion that makes a farmer who packs bad fruit at the bottom to deceive the buyer by the good fruit on the top, realize that he is a thief just as much as the one who robs a hen roost at night, and is thereby destroying his own character—

A religion that makes a man realize that by driving too hard a bargain with his servant, his employe or his merchant, he can be just as much a robber as the seller or purchaser who swindles by false weight, false packing or false claims—

A religion that will teach church members who fail to contribute to the extent of their ability to the support of religion that they are robbing God and man alike, and compels them to recognize that if they are paying their pastor less that a living salary they also are robbing God and man alike—

A religiou that makes the minister of the Gospel realize that he has not been called by Heaven to preach economical questions about which he knows very little, but to preach in all its fulness "Christ and Him Crucified," or else the blood of the lost will be upon him—

A religion that will make the politician who yields principle to his party politics, who worships at the feet of any class to secure votes and sells his soul for preferment, not only know that he is a coward and a poltroon and unworthy of the respect of any decent man, but also will make him see that he is helping to murder human liberty—

A religion that makes every newspaper worker feel the tremendous responsibility of the press to help mold the shape for good the people of this land in this day of wild turmoil in thinking and acting that he may appreciate his high calling, or prove recreant to God and humanity—

A religion that will make every man who professes to be a Christian realize that if he violates the laws of the land, whether it be a Prohibition laws or others, merely to gratify his own views or desires, he is to the extent of his influence breaking down all law, and has no right to expect that his family and his friends will not violate any law, moral or statute which does not suit their convenience—

A religion that is active, not passive—

A religion that gives a man backbone to stand for the truth, however great may be the dangers that he may have to face in upholding the right as God gives him the power to see the right—

In short, we need a revival of that soul-searching religion which will make men and women strive in every act of life to do that which on the great Judgment Day they will wish they had done, as with soul uncovered they stand before the Judgment Seat of the Eternal—

Until the people of this nation accept and live this religion, there will be strife where there should be harmony; there will be strikes and lockouts and murder where there should be co-operation and peace; there will be law violation where there should be law obedience; there will be hatred where there should be friendship and love.

Religion of this kind is not measured by the hope of Heaven hereafter nor the fear of Hell, but by the full fruition now of "peace on earth to men of good will." It is not merely the chanting of hymns or the offering of Pharisaical prayers, but it is in the recognition and full application by rich and poor, by learned and unlearned, that each one is indeed his Brother's Keeper," that we can bring this country and the world back to safety. A nation-wide acceptation of this, in heart and in life, would bring peace, and world peace, where there is now turmoil, and men would then cease to seek to gain their ends by lawless acts of immorality, but would in spirit and indeed, follow the Divine command:

"All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

DEL-MAR-VA MEETS IN CHESTERTOWN

Following the Del-Mar-Va organization meeting held here last week the districts of Kent county are being organized to raise funds to complete the county's quota of the three-year budget of the Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association.

Local chairmen have been appointed as follows: Chestertown, fourth district, Marion deK. Smith; Kennedyville, second district, Edgar Pennington; Galena, first, Ivanhoe Willis; Betterton, third, Howard Turner and Quaker Neck, seventh, Wm. T. Brown.

Canvassers will start to solicit subscriptions from townfolk and farmers. Dr. Franklin B. Bomberger, executive director of the Association has asked that $2,500 be raised in the county. In addition local banks have been asked to contribute one-tenth of one per cent, of their capital stock and surplus to the association.

The suggestion of Dr. Bomberger that farmers engage in cooperative marketing projects, is receiving consideration from the Kent County Farm Bureau and other local agricultural organizations. The Del-Mar-Va officials promised the full cooperation of that organization in any local projects of this nature.

Toll charges on the State-owned Susquehanna river bridge at Havre de Grace will be removed August 1 under plans of the State Roads Commission. The State's indebtedness incurred in its purchase will have been paid by then.

ORDER PUBLICATION

Florence M. Street Hall versus
Francis W. Hall

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, In Equity, No. 2503.

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree setting aside and annulling marriage.

The Bill states:

1. That your Oratrix, Florence M. Street Hall, is a resident of the City of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania.

2. That on the 5th day of April, 1927, she was married to Francis W. Hall at Chestertown, Maryland, with whom she resided in Newark, Delaware, for about two weeks.

3. That while residing in Newark, Delaware, shortly after our marriage I discovered that Francis W. Hall, my husband, was a married man and that he had a wife living at the time of our marriage. As soon as I found this out I confronted my husband with this fact and he admitted it. I then left him and have not seen him since nor do I know of his present whereabouts. I have understood that he was in the State of Delaware.

4. My husband, Francis W. Hall, had been for some time attentive to me prior to our marriage and he always represented himself as a single man, he was a resident of the State of Pennsylvania.

5. There has been no children born as a result of said marriage.

It is thereupon, this 26th day of January, 1928, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 27th day of February next, give notice to the said Francis W. Hall, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 13th day of March next, to show cause, if any he has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
