DEATHS!

Mrs. J. Carville H. Maslin

Mrs. J. Carville H. Maslin died in Baltimore on Saturday afternoon last at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. S. Gardner, aged 80 years. She and her husband, the late J Carville H. Maslin, spent most of their life in Quaker Neck, where they raised a large family and their hospitable home was always open to neighbors and friends alike.

Unselfish was her devotion to her family, her neighbors and fellowman, and in the latter years of her life her five daughters and friends showed their appreciation in their loving, faithful and priceless service to her.

It can be said of Mrs. Maslin what is true of few and that is that she absolutely bore malice towards neither friend or foe.

She leaves five daughters, Mrs. W. E. Loud, of Worton, Mrs. Wm. S. Gardner, of Baltimore, Mrs. E. J. Watson, of Fairlee, Mrs. Wm. B Usilton, of Chestertown, and Mrs. W. L. Gibson, of Newbergh, N. Y.

The body was conveyed to Chestertown to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, where the funeral services were held on Monday afternoon last conducted by Dr. N. O. Gibson and Dr. Chas. L. Atwater. Interment in Chester Cemetery.

The bearers were Walter S. Trew, Wm. T. Brown, S. Scott Beck, Dr. Frank B. Hines, Dr. H. G. Simpers, Wm. B. Wilmer, Thomas Massey and J. H. Clendaniel, Jr. Chas. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Louisa A. Gardner

Mrs. Louisa A. Gardner, aged 87, widow of the Rev. Samuel T. Gardner, died Saturday morning of old age at the Masonic Home, Wilmington, Del.

Mrs. Gardner was intimately connected throughout her life with the Methodist Episcopal Church in Delaware, her husband, her eldest son, the late Rev. Edwin Gardner, of Marshallton, and her brother-in-law, the Rev. Thomas Harding, having been members of the Wilmington M. E. Conference.

Mrs. Gardner is survived by several nieces, among them Miss Florence Knapp, Mrs. Katherine Tomkin, Mrs. T. V. McGinnes, Mrs. Wilhemina Moffett, of Wilmington, Mrs. Louisa Hurtt, of Millington, Md., and Mrs. Cora Baldwin, of Chestertown, Md.

The Rev. Thomas Gardner, of the Troy, N. Y., M. E. Conference is a step son.

Funeral services for Mrs. Gardner was held Tuesday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock at the Chandler funeral home, Delaware avenue and Jefferson street, interment in Bethel Cemetery, near Chesapeake City, Md.

Mrs. Fannie B. Burke

Mrs. Fannie B. Burke, wife of Wm. A. Burke, died suddenly on Sunday morning last at her home on Cross street, Chestertown. She was 65 years old and besides her husband, leaves one son and one daughter.

She seemed to be in her usual health Sunday morning and Mr. Burke attended morning church as usual. When he returned home his wife was dead. She was a Miss Lambert before marriage.

Besides her husband she is survived by two children, William Burk, of Philadelphia, Miss Elizabeth Gurk at home; also one sister, Mrs. C. G. Hadaway, of Worton, and two brothers, Wm. H. and Frank Lambert, of Chestertown.

The services were held at Christ M. P. Church on Wednesday afternoon, Dr. N. O. Gibson officiating. W. T. Hicks, undertaker. The interment was in Chester Cemetery, and the bearers were George French, Owen C. Smith, A. L. Sparks, Wm. A. Wheatley, Charles S. Smith and Charles F. Wheatley; Wm. T. Hicks, undertaker.

Mrs. Mary E. Hubbard

The funeral of Mrs. Mary E. Hubbard, widow of the Rev. David B. Hubbard and stepmother of J. Stanley McQuay, of Wilmington, who died Friday afternoon following a brief illness at her home, 829 Elm street, Buffalo, N. Y., was held from the late residence in that city Monday afternoon after which the body was taken to Federalsburg, Md., for burial.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. W. B. Coleman, of Chestertown, Md., and Mrs. M. S. Bramble of Annapolis.

The cosy home at McClain's Corner, near Fairlee, the home of the late Mr. Moore, has been vurchased by Philip T. Jones, who will take possession of it at once.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Bryan

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Bryan, widow of the late William Bryan, died on Monday, February 13th, at the home of her niece, Mrs. Mary E. Bowen, of near Tolchester, aged 87 years. She is survived by several nephews. She was much interested in W. C. T. T. work and active in all temperance organizations. She was a sister of the late C. D. McClary.

Funeral services were held in Christ M. P. Church on Wednesday morning at 12 o'clock, Dr. N. O. Gibson officiating. Interment in Chester Cemetery. The bearers were her two nephews, Everett and J. Wesley McCleary, J. Page Gale, Thomas Bryan, Geo. Berger and Findley Sparks. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Robert Smith Barnes

Robert Smith Barnes died at the home of his parents, John E. and Clara V. Barnes, on Princess street Thursday, in his tenth year. Robert had been ill with pneumonia for some weeks. He was the idol of his home. He leaves two brothers, John E. and Wilbur Pyle. The funeral will take place Sunday at 2 p. m., interment Chester Cemetery, Dr. W. F. Corkran officiating. The bearers will be Frank Fowler, Clarke Davis, Charles Kirby, John Wilkison, Allan Barnes, Harry Lewis; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Annie Rickey

Mrs. Annie Rickey, widow of Harry Rickey, former cashier of the Chestertown Bank, died Sunday in Westminster. A strange coincidence in connection with her death is that on Saturday Mrs. Fannie Wheatley, a friend, received a letter from Mrs. Rickey in which she made a request that Mrs. Wheatley's son meet her remains at the Chestertown railway station, giving evidence of a premonition of her death. She is survived by one son, Harry W. Rickey, with the extension service, University of Maryland.

Her remains were brought by train to Chestertown and burial service held in Chester Cemetery Thursday at 11 o'clock. The pall bearers were Herbert E. Perkins, Fred. G. Usilton, J. W. Russell, W. F. Russell, Roy Strong and H. C. Black. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Mary C. Linder

Mrs. Mary C. Linder died Wednesday, February 8th, 1928, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Apsley, of 4001 West Hamilton avenue, Raspeburg, Baltimore, aged 79 years. Mrs. Linder was the oldest daughter of the late John A. Hersch, of Rock Hall, and leaves two sisters there, Mrs Elizabeth Casey and Mrs. Sallie Legg, also three in Baltimore, Mrs. Apsley, Mrs. Ella Middleton and Mrs. Georgia Ayres. Funeral services were held Friday at Arbutus M. E. Church and interment made in Loudon Park Cemetery. Attending the services from Rock Hall were Mrs. Casey, Legg, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hersch, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Willson, Mrs. Millard Rodney, Mrs. Charles Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Sutton and son, Stanley Sutton, Casey Dowling, Mrs. J. A. Urie and Walter Jester.

Mrs. Catherine B. Cook, aged 67 years, died last Friday at her home in Phillipsburg, Pa. Her remains were brought to Millington on Monday morning by train and interment was made in Millington Cemetery. Rev. J. H. Garner, rector of Holy Cross Chapel, read the burial service and J. A. Tobin was the undertaker.

Independent Cities

St. Louis, Mo., is not in any county. It is an independent city. There are two such cities in the United States.

St. James and Lynch
L. C. Randall, Pastor.

This announcement is written on Thursday, and at this time it is possible to announce that services will be held at St. James on Sunday, the Sabbath school at 10 a. m., and hour of worship at 11 a. m. The pastor will preach on a subject in accord with the day, the last Sunday before Lent.

Lynch Sabbath School meets at 2 p. m., the hour of worship at 3.00 p. m., and Christian Endeavor at 7.30 p. m. Electric lights which make a very pleasing improvement, have been installed in Lynch. You will find these meetings cheery ones.

A special meeting of the Official Board of St. James will convene at 2 p. m. Wednesday next, Feb. 22nd, at the home of Mr. R. G. Nicholson. Members of the Board and interested members of the church be present.

Washington's Virtues

Of all his other virtues, Washington is probably remembered most for his truthfulness. Noland's too, will be pleased if it is remembered most for its truthfulness in all its dealings—a virtue we are constantly striving for.
