WHAT IS LIFE?

Life is only a question soon can be forgot,
But when you find the answer you find it means a lot,
Some times life is dreary, no pleasure under the sun,
And all the time is worry and trouble just begun,
But though its sad and lonely and sorrows has no end.
Just let me ask the question, why don't you be a man,
When I was in my childhood I tried to understand,
But mother always told me I soon would be a man.
As I grow big and older I would go hand and hand,
And ask the same old question when will I be a man?
Life is only a shadow that seen beneath the sun,
When darkness overcomes it you know that life is done,
She says, "my boy, he merry, be happy
And when you find the answer,
What man will you be?
I think about the soldier that beats thekettle drum,
But I don't know the answer because I am so dumb,
If I were a sailor that sails the deep blue sea,
I never know for thinking of Dear Old Maryland,
The silver moon is shining over fields and meadow green,
But, dear my heart is pining for Dear Old Maryland.
Now my trouble is over, the path of sorrow is done,
I've just found out the answer, and life has just begun.
