Safe Secure Profitable

"Safe" and "Secure" are words that instantly suggest peace of mind, serenity . . . . freedom from worry. And this is exactly what ownership of Smith diversified investments implies — Safe as to principal invested; Secure as to safeguards provided, and Profitable as to the generous yield of 6½%.

Our new Booklet, "Making Safety Pay Profits," tells how to capitalize the factor of "Investment Safety."

How Many Will You Save?

IF your newly-arrived chicks could talk they would say: "Do not feed us until we are 72 hours old. We are supplied with food during this period by the remaining part of the egg yolks which we absorbed into our bodies just before we were hatched. When we are 72 hours old give us a feed which will provide life and growth vitamins." There are 1592 hatcheries which say, "Feed Purina." They know what it takes to keep chicks alive and growing. A new shipment of Startena is here. Tell us how many bags you want.

CHURCHES

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
The Word of God
Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.—Psalm 119: 105.

A SAFE RETREAT: — Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort; that hast given commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.—Psalm 71.3.

PRAYER:—May we, O Lard, be as wise as the Coneys, who are a feeble folk, yet they build their houses in the rock.

Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee

Services for Fairlee Charge, May 20th, are as follows: Salem Sunday school at 10 a. m., W. B. Barnes, superintendent; a fine attendance last Sunday. Public worship at 11 a. m. subject "The Ascension," may we with the poet say, the Lord can depend on me. Epworth League at 7.30 p. m., Miss Helen Smith, leader topic "What Can I Expect of My Job." We are having very interesting league services Sunday evenings. A short sermon following.

Union Church, Worton

Sunday school at 2 p. m., B. F. Rash, superintendent; the teachers of this school will be delighted to meet every scholar next Sunday. Public worship at 3 p. m. sermon by the pastor, S. L. Hanby, to which the public is cordially invited. The school at Worton is arranging for a great service on Children's Day. Come let us worship together.

Unless a man honestly tries to improve himself and his work each day he does not know what real happiness is.

Chestertown M. E. Church
W. F. Corkran, Pastor.

Last "Mother's Day" is a precious memory, all the services of the day partook of its spirit. The Sunday school, the public worship, the Epworth League all paid a worthy tribute to our mothers. But it remained for the choir in rendering a song-O-Logue in the evening to crown a golden day.

Now what of tomorrow: 10 a. m Sunday school with every officer and teacher and scholar in place and many new scholars. Go out and bring them in. 11 a. m. public worship, preaching by the pastor and new songs by the choir. 6.45 p. m Epworth League in charge of the new officers, a fine bunch of young folks. 7.30 p. m. preaching by the pastor. Special music by the choir.

Services at St. James M. P. Church for Sunday are as follows: Sunday school will convene in regular session at 10 o'clock, preaching service at 11 o'clock. There will be special music by the choir. Christian Endeavor will meet at 7.30.

A SPLENDID RECITAL

One of the interesting events of the week at Washington College was amusicale given last Friday night under the direction of Miss Louise B. Russell, instructor of music. An appreciative audience enjoyed piano selections by pupils of Miss Russell; Misses Theodosia Chapman, Eleanor Titsworth, Katherine Ayres, Katherine Smith, Sarah Linthicum, Louise Simpers, Miss Sterling and Paul Pippin. Misses Lois Stone, cellist; Alma Metcalfe, violinist, and Loretta Lee, soprano, of Peabody Conservatory, won applause.

On Sunday afternoon, May 20, the second in a series of three concerts will be given by the combined glee club and orchestra of the college The third will be made one of the features of Commencement Week which begins June 2.

MOTHER'S DAY AT CHRIST M. P. CHURCH

Mother's Day proved to be, as usual, an enjoyable occasion in Christ M. P. Church and Sunday school. The school appropriated over $66, the offering, to the High Point School and the Pine Ridge, Kentucky, School for Boys. The Bible Class won the banner which was presented by E. K. Mohr in an appropriate address.

The Triangle Club of young ladies attended in a body. Special music under Miss Clara Usilton's direction was furnished which included an anthem and a duet by Mrs. Charles F. Wheatley and Mrs. L. G. Brown.

Mrs. Arthur Bacon lead an interesting service at the Christian Endeavor hour.

In the evening Dr. G. I. Humphreys, of Salisbury, made the address to a fine audience, his theme being "Footsteps." It was an able discourse and impressively presented Dr. N. O. Gibson, Dr. P. E. Titsworth. T. D. Bowers and C. N. Satterfield had a part in the program. The music included a solo by Mrs. Hessey Miller, of Chester, Pa., violin solo by Prof. F. G. Livingood and a male quartette by Messrs. Bowers, Thompson, Sparks and Usilton.

LAUNDRESS BENEFITED

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Nashville, Tenn.—"I cannot say too much in favor of the medicine. I was in a run-down condition. I worked in a laundry but my health got so bad that I had to give up work. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and began taking it and every time I feel run-down I get another bottle. It is an excellent tonic and I am willing to tell others about it. People take me to be much younger than I am."—MRS. HARRY BORNSTEIN, 406 Second Ave. South, Nashville, Tenn.

"A GOOD CIGAR • FOR 5c — WHAT?"

Here's a cigar which knocks all doubt sky-high

You've often been fooled on 5c cigars, we admit. We don't blame you if you're "from Missouri"—that's the kind of men we're shouting to.

Risk just one more nickel—try a Havana Ribbon. You may get the idea that this is a higher priced cigar cut to five cents for some dark purpose. But there's no catch in it at all. Havana Ribbon is simply an example of what really can be put into a nickel cigar by sincere manufacture and huge production: Ripe, long-filler tobacco—cured, age-mellowed and skilfully put together (no bitter under-ripe nor flat over-ripe leaves). Smoke so sweet, cool, mild and full-flavored, you'll scarcely believe it possible in a 5c cigar.

No question about it, Havana Ribbon is the world's greatest five-cent smoke. Shoot one buffalo coin and see. At cigar counters everywhere. Also sold in Practical Pocket Packages of five cigars.

IN MEMORIAM

Death truly is a mystery. It brings sadness,—it brings heartaches to the kindred who are left with only the memories of "other days" when the green earth was a Paradise and life an endless joy But, why mourn the edict of Him who said "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden?" We play here for a few years on the shores of Time, then vanish. The wisest of us know no more about the realms beyond "The Great Divide" than sands of the sea know of the boundless ocean that is ever about them Charles Frohman remarked as he went to his death on the Lusitania, "Why should we fear death? It is the most beautiful adventure in life." As the mists gather about us and the Grim Angel waits to bear us into the "Great Unknown," 'tis then the Stoic awaits the transition with an abiding wonder at the mysteries of immortality.

Thus, as the vesper shades of May the ninth gathered about the home of James R. Hicks, in Galena; as the tenure of his life was about to reach the eighth decade, he answered the summons from the Everlasting Throne and passed a life of usefulness to the sleep that knows no awakening. He died as he lived, peacefully and quietly; so gradually did the final stage of his illness developed, that he slipped into the Great Silence almost in an unsuspected moment. When an insidious malady weakened his vitality, he seemed to realize it was a permonition of dissolution. The nearer he approached the end, the plainer he could hear the immortal symphonies of the unknown world. But a short while since, he remarked to some friends, "Well, it'll only be a short while e'er I'll be as rich as the richest."

He's gone, and with him the tender solicitude he entertained for his family and today, methinks I hear his voice—

"Oh tell me, Prophet of the Hidden Mist
Since I have found the road that wanders far;—"
How long shall I await the endless tryst.
That hope supreme—that glad reunion 'cross the bar?

Was I to pen his eulogy, I could but say,—He was a citizen without wrong—a neighbor without reproach and a friend without deception. He was kind; tenderly so whenever occasion arose. His ready sense of humor and good fellowship won for him the reward of the entire community. His passing has brought sorrow to a devoted family and to his associates to whom he had endeared himself by his character and his kindly qualities. To have known him as a devoted husband, father and friend is an honor to which our memories will ever bear tribute. To say he will be missed is but a useless recital.

He was born December 5, 1848, in Queen Anne's county, came to Galena July 1871, learned blacksmithing, in which he established himself in 1878 continuing the same trade for 57 years. As survivors, he leaves a widow, Jennie Chrisfield Hicks, four children, Mrs. Etta Stewart, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Ada Cohee, Cecil county; George E. and Jas E. Hicks, Galena; nine grandchildren and one great grandchild. He was buried in Olivet M. E. Cemetery, Galena, Sunday afternoon, May 13, 1928.

So be it. As we contemplate the dispensation of an All Wise God, and bow to the enevitable law, we realize that it was—

"A little pause in life while daylight lingers
Between the sunset and the pale moonrise,
When daily labor slips from weary fingers,
And soft gray shadows veil the aching eyes."
