KENT NEWS.

CHESTER TOWN, Md.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 22, 1856.

☞ The large number of new advertisements has crowded out many articles we had prepared for our paper to day.

☞ Thursday last was general observed as a day of thanksgiving—the stores were closed and business generally, suspended.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.—We regret to learn that a young gentleman named Wm. Price, a resident of Wilmington, Del., was thrown from a horse, near Harmony in this county, on Monday last, and it is feared, fatally injured—the injuries are internal. Doctors Kennard and Whaland, have been in attendance, and doing all that human skill can do, but they entertain but little hopes of his recovery.

THE CABINET.—The Lancaster (Pa.) Express says that the following named gentlemen will be tendered the places respectively assigned them, by Mr. Buchanan:

Hon. Lewis Cass, of Michigan, Secretary of State.
Hon. R. M. T. Hunter, of Virginia, Secretary of the Treasury.
Hon. John Appleton, of Maine, Secretary of the Interior.
Hon. Howell Cobb, of Georgia, Secretary of the Navy.
Hon. James A. Bayard, of Delaware, Secretary of War.
Hon. Jesse D. Bright, of Indiana, Post Master General.
Hon. Josiah Randall, of Pennsylvania Attorney General.

THE SOUTHERN CONVENTION.—Gov. Ligon has appointed the following delegates to represent the State of Maryland in the Commercial Convention to be held at the city of Savannah, Georgia, on the 8th of December next:

Hon. J. V. L. McMahon, Ex-Gov. E. Louis Lowe, Gen. Tench Tilghman, J. H. Luckett, Charles Howard, Wm. H. Norris, Charles M. Keyser, Henry Tiffany, Gustave W. Lurman, Beale H. Richardson, Stephen J. Joyce, Dr. Hanson Thomas, A. S. Abell, Col. J. Alden Weston, Wm. McKim, Charles E. Wethered, Col. H. G. S. Key, Daniel C. Digs, Dr. C. Humphreys, Col. Lloyd, T. Hollyday, Dr. P. Wroth, Col. Groome, Jas. T. Earle, R. McHenry, Gen. McKaig, J. S. Tyson, J. L. Bartol, S. M. Semes G. Schley, C. W. Stewart, E. W. Belt, Dr. C. A. Harding, T. R. Kent, Dr. J. W. Geyer.

Loss of the French Steamer Lyonaise—Rescue of Sixteen of the Passengers and Crew—Uncertain Fate of the Rest.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The bark Elise Capt. Neilson, of and from Hamburg, arrived here this evening, and reports speaking on the 10th a Bremen bark having on board sixteen passengers and the crew of the steamer Lyonaise; hence for Havre on the 1st inst., which was run into by a large ship on the night of the 2d, and abandoned next day. These sixteen persons were picked up in a boat on the 9th, with two others who had died.

Fourteen of the rescued were taken on board the Elsie, but Mr. Schaler and his wife remained on board the Bremen vessel. Among the saved is the second mate of the Lyonaise, who furnishes the above. The second mate and those with him left the steamer on the afternoon of the 3d, consequently they were six days in the boat. The mate says, to his knowledge, the captain and all others on board left the next morning. There were forty passengers on board the Lyonaise. The fate of the rest is not known.

SECOND DISPATCH.

The Wreck of the Lyonaise—Further Particulars—Fearful Loss of Life Apprehended—Great Suffering.

New York, Nov. 15th.—The steamer Lyonaise had on board 39 passengers in the cabin, and these, including the officers crew, and steerage passengers, made about 150 souls. She had also about $20,000 in specie on board.

The collision occurred in a dense fog, and the stem of the unknown ship was cut clean off, damaging her so greatly that it is supposed she sank immediately, as she was not seen afterwards. The steamer was abandoned the next day after the collision, the crew and passengers taking to her six boats and a raft, the latter had forty souls on board, but it is supposed could not have lived through the rough weather that followed!

The boat picked up was the only life boat on board. Nothing whatever is known of the raft and the five other boats and it is greatly feared that all those on them, about one hundred and thirty, have perished. The Lyonaise was built in Southampton, and had been temporarily placed on the New York and Havre line. She was still afloat when abandoned.—The passengers saved suffered terribly from cold, some of their limbs having been frozen.

The names of the lost are: J. J. Jones captain, Wm. Norris clerk, Wm. Robinson, second clerk, H. White, steward, J. Warner, and Wm. Welch, barkeeper; H. Barnes, John Smith, Geo. Daus, Patrick Curley, Alexander and Thos. Wens, and several colored cooks and waiters. Among the passengers lost, are S. Winter, four sisters belonging to Antonagan, Margaret Foster, of Michigan, Wm. Sisson and Wm. Poe.

The Lyonaise had but a small freight, valued at about $50,000, which was partially insured here. The ship cost about £100,000, and was insured in Europe. The captain of the Vigo, her consort says that the Lyonaise was built with seven water-tight compartments, and if all these were gone but two the wreck would still float.

The Loss of the Lyonaise.

New York, Nov. 17.—The vessel that came in contact with the Lyonaise, and caused the disaster to that steamer was the bark Adriatic, from Belfast, Maine, for Savanah, which arrived at Gloucester yesterday for repairs. She sustained but slight damage, and the captain reports he did net suppose the steamer was seriously damaged.

He says that the steamer's light were seen about 20 minutes before the collision. He was on deck at the time, and supposed that the steamer stood on her course, not being aware that any serious injury was done to her.

☞ We take the following beautiful lines from the New York Despatch, of the 16th inst:

Maryland--The Union's Heart.

BY AUGUSTINE J. H. DUGANNE.

Unroll the Nation's crumbled chart—
Half-rent amid Disunion's jars—
And mark the State whose loyal heart
Beats for the Union stars!
Behold a sad, majestic shade
Beside Potomac's margin stand:
One hand on Vernon's tomb is laid—
One points—to MARYLAND!
"Mary!" the name of her whose son
Was Freedom's first and greatest one!
O WASHINGTON! thy mother's name
Could find no worthier strand
Than that which glows with patriot flame—
Unfaltering Maryland!

No need has thou, O Baltimore!
Of monuments to mark thy shore:
While roll the waves of Chesapeake,
The Future of thy faith shall speak—
While sounds the Union's rallying cry,
Thy brave "DEFENDERS" shall not die!

From Alleghany's azure edge,
And down Kotocton's misty ridge,
And up the ancient Warrior crags,
I see a thousand starry flags;
And, woven with every stripe and star,
In scrolls of glory flashing far,
Like sacred talisman,
I see "The Union" writ in light,
And hail that motto, proudly bright,
"AMERICAN!"

Where Calvert's tolerant footsteps trod,
And good Charles Carroll worshipp'd God,
There, deepest in our country's sod,
The NATIVE'S love hath root:
Let slander's tongue the lesson heed,
Nor dare proclaim that Patriot seed
Can wax to Bigot fruit!

Heart of the Union!—trebly steel'd,
To meet and baffle danger's shocks;
Tried—in the changing battle field,
True—at the ballot box!
Heart of the Union!—Maryland!
Clasp thou its banner in thy hand—
Be this thy fealty's prize!
From Susquehanna's joyous tide,
And where Patuxent's waters glide,
To Wicomeco's sunlit side,
Ye southern maidens rise!
Go, crown with wreaths your patriot band—
Go, bless the brave who loyal stand—
Go, greet the sons of Maryland
With lips, and cheeks and eyes:
No sweeter lip, no purer cheek,
No brighter eye in love may speak!
No warmer heart the world command,
Than woman's heart in Maryland!

Faithful amid the False! To thee,
O, Maryland! be endless fame!
Henceforth our Banner-Bearer be—
"THE UNION'S HEART" thy name!
Our FLAG shall fly—our UNION stand,
While beats the Heart of Maryland!

A GOOD EGG.

Somehow or other, we have never liked the above expression; in fact we have always thought it vulgar; but more than two-thirds of its vulgarity has been taken away by the application which we intend to make below.

In our last issue we remarked that we never wanted to hear mention again the names of either Pearce or Pratt; but as much was said during the late canvass about the great personal influence they would exert in their own State, we desire to call attention to the election figures taken at their own doors and in their own immediate vicinity. Three months ago, whenever we would speak of Maryland as safe for Fillmore, some little Locofoco whipper-snapper would always squall out: Maryland is safe for Buck, I know it; Pearce and Pratt are for him, and they can put things through.

While this impertinence always provoked us, yet we never lost our balance, but in a quiet and easy way would remark: Son, you don't know the Maryland folks; they can't be led by any politician, and you will see it. We said this two or three times, when some of the old Democratic codgers wanted us to bet, offering to back their judgment against ours, well we did so, and the consequence has been that we at this time own more hats than any other live Know Nothing in the country. We shall not have to buy any more head gearing until 1860, when the gallant little State will again roll up not less than 10,000 majority for Millard Fillmore. But to the interesting subjects of our sketch:

Mr. James Alfred Pearce lives in Kent county; he stumped Kent county, and Mr. Fillmore lost in Kent county 18 votes only—good egg He also stumped Q. Ann's and Dorchester—the two adjoining counties, and the Fillmore gain in the two was 140—very good egg. In Talbot county this gentleman also spoke, and Fillmore gained 38—first rate egg. In Prince George's county, Pratt's old home which he canvassed from stem to stern, we gained 85—decidedly a good egg.—And in Anne Arundel county, his present residence, the American gain is 23—devilish good egg.

What a pity it is that there were no more double P's in Maryland; but then we should have carried every thing, and nothing would have been left for next time Let no man hereafter say that the expression "good egg," is a vulgar one. The Maryland election has taught these gentlemen a lesson they will not soon forget, viz: common-place men cannot lead the masses, and every one of that calibre who tries it, only succeeds in making himself a very decided jack. We therefore trust that Pearce and Pratt will resign their seats immediately, if not sooner and give way to abler and better men. —Warrentown (Va.) Whig.

A WELL DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—It has been suggested by some of our friends that a splendid flag should be presented by the American party of Louisville to the Americans of Maryland for their gallant and triumphant effort in behalf of American principles. The compliment is well deserved by the Americans of Maryland, and from none can it come with more graceful propriety than from the city of Louisville. We do not know an American in the whole city who will not cheerfully and gladly contribute for this purpose. Let it be done and well done, in a style becoming our party in this city. —Lou. Journal.
