BETTER TIMES FOR FARMERS

An unusual situation exists in Kent. Here is the second week in July and not a personal property sale appeared in any local paper. Furthermore, there are tenants applying for farms. William M. Hurlock is going to discontinue farming near Kennedyville and had seven applicants for same. It has been rented to Charles Smith recently on the Roeder farm. These events evidence a better condition in the farming situation.

SALES OF PROPERTY

Elsewhere in News is noted the sale of two Morris farms to Henry W. Catlin, Esq. While no price is mentioned it is reported to have been about $20,000.

Wm. A. Burk has sold his store property on Cross street to Philip Kratzer, of the Shore Radio, Inc. It is said that the building will be somewhat changed and the Shore Radio will move there about October 1st. The store room now occupied by the radio store will be remodeled, to make a store for the American Stores Co. The price for the Burke property was $4,500.

Dr. H. C. Hughes has purchased the piece of property adjoining the Chester River Yacht and Country Club site in Quaker Neck from William Joiner. The sale was made through H. F. Jefferson, agent. This property is on the opposite side of the newly formed lake and is ideally situated for summer homes.

BETTERTON CANNERY WILL OPERATE

It is good news to hear that the New York Cannery, near Betterton, will operate this year. This cannery will be run by the Snyder Preserving Company and are now contracting for tomatoes at 22½ cents a basket. They will need about 350 acres. As this is a big catsup company and their product only used for this purpose they are not particular about the grade of tomatoes, thus taking both large and small ones.

Tomato fields are looking good in Kent.

YOUNG TURKEYS NEARLY READY

Kent county turkey growers are making active perparations to ship a large part of their young stock to the "squab" markets of the large cities during the latter part of August, provided prices are sufficiently attractive. Never was there known to be such a large number of young turkeys in this county as are being raised this year and if the growers succeed in raising the thousands now feeding on the farms, the total receipts from the industry may reach well over the $300,000 mark. On two farms in the county which have been converted into turkey raising ranches exclusively more than 2,500 young turkeys may be seen any day, while the owners have set between 500 and 1,000 additional eggs for late markets. On the farm of Albert Jervis, of near Still Pond, who has just launched into the business on a large scale this year, there are at present 1,560 lively young birds and he has 500 eggs setting. This is believed to be the largest number of turkeys being grown in the United States on one farm, and the owner is devoting every minute of his time to the task of raising the mammoth flock.

SECRET WEDDING UNCOVERED

While police of New York were chasing Francis Phillips into Canada to prevent him from obtaining possession of $3,000,000 in securities said to have been deposited in a Montreal safe deposit vault, W. Raymond Moody, local press representative of city dailies, uncovered the fact that young Phillips and Miss Helen Carroll Baines, had been secretly wedded here on June 12.

The $3,000,000 in the case was supposed to have been placed in the Montreal vault by John M. Phillips, father of Francis, while the former was under indictment for failure to pay Federal income taxes. The State of New York has prevented young Phillips from opening the safe deposit box on the charge that the money was obtained by his father "through fraud in the sale of sewer pipe at grossly excessive prices."

During the fight over the right to obtain the money the marriave of young Phillips to Miss Baine was rumored. Both denied being wedded. Mr. Moody remembered the names as among those issued married licenses at the local court house recently. Upon showing Deputy Clerk Tom Dixon a photograph of the young lady in question the clerk, who had issued the permit, recognized Miss Baines.

Photographs of the application for the license and of the preachers' certificate held by Dr. Wilbur F. Cochran, were made by Dr. H. B. Simmons and dispatched to the New York Mirror.

The license was issued on June 12, and the couple were married shortly after by Dr. Corkran. The groom signed the application as Frank Phillips and gave his age as 21.

STORM SWEEPS BRIDGE AWAY

Heavy rain storms have swept away the temporary bridge over Chester river at Millington and Gilbert B. Taylor, county engineer, has a large force of men repairing the damage so as to enable traffic to proceed over the river on the Sudlersville-Millington-Massey State highway. A new concrete bridge will shortly be built at that point.

The tremendous rain of early Saturday morning did considerable damage to the roads in Kent. The fill at Davis' Hill was washed out but engineer Shure with his force soon repaired same.

The lake at the Country Club overflowed and part of the embankment washed out causing the loss of some fish, turtles, etc.

ANOTHER PART OF THE LAND OF SWEET CONTENT

Henry W. Catlin, Esq., Buys Two Farms On Churn Creek From Mrs. Walter T. Morris—Owns A Lovely Estate At Kennard's Point—Still Pond Creek And Chesapeake Bay Flow Near By.

The News man was "sold" on Kent county scenery so completely at the Clothier visit that he decided to investigate further, and went into another section of this fair county. Our visit on this occasion was to the magnificent country home of Henry W. Catlin, Esq., and wife. Mr. Catlin is a Chestertown boy being the son of the late Dr. Jos. A. Catlin and for some years practiced law in Kent. He left here when quite young and has acquired a fortune of no small amount in the prosecution of his business. He was gifted with grace and courtesy and with a gentlemanly bearing which would do credit to a Southern statesman in olden days. He is intelligent and with his attractive wife entertains in royal but democratic manner.

Mr. Catlin first bought the Carson Harris farm of 315 acres, located between Still Pond Creek and Churn Creek. Here he transformed the home and property into a place of beauty with landscape and water views which charm and delight the beholder. Here he also built a $10,000 cow barn for cattle, a loft for hundreds of pidgeons, chicken houses and garages, etc. His overseer is Roger Harris who, with his family, occupy a cosy home near the homestead and looks after the farm operations.

Recently Mr. Catlin bought the G. W. Noblette farm adjoining Arnold Willis and comprising 245 acres. This makes 730 acres in this neck of land under Mr. Catlin's management. This week a contract was signed by Henry W. Catlin, Esq., and wife., for the purchase of two farms from Mrs. Walter T. Morris. These farms contain 390 and 200 acres respectively and are tenanted by John R. Goodman and Milton Fogwell. They are located on Churn Creek and gives Mr. Catlin over 1200 acres in one section of Kent. It is reported that these newly purchased farms will be used as ranches on which to raise a fine brand of sheep.

Mr. Catlin has a splendid herd of Pole Angus cattle which he is developing for beef.

The News welcomes Mr. Catlin and his wife to Kent's farming section and bespeak for them a happy stay among us especially when it is learned that he is to develop new lines of agriculture and to be interested in better roads and all those improvements that go with better living conditions. As we see in our minds' eye the beauties of this estate we are lead to close this article with Frank L. Ruth's last lines:

Seek sequestered vale and mountain
head the globe from pole to pole,
Not one spot like "old Kent County"
has the charm to reach the soul.
'Tis the bourne at which men marvel,
'tis the one supremely blest,
'Tis the "fairest of ten thousand" and of God's creation—BEST.

MEXICO'S TROUBLES

Old Mexico is having its more than usual troubles these days. Obregon, who was elected President a few days ago has been murdered and the whole country is stirred by the event.

Aren't you glad you live in the U. S. A.

COL. G. V. HENRY WINS FITH OLYMPAID MEDAL

Col. Guy V. Henry, 3rd, United States Cavalry, commanding officer of the Citizens' Military Training Camp Fort Myer, Va., has just received word that the King of Sweden has awarded him the fifth Olympaid medal for his participation in the Olympic games of 1912.

A recent act of Congress authorizes Colonel Henry to accept the medal, which has been in keeping of the State Department for some years. In 1912 Colonel Henry was captain of the first American Army equestrian team that participated in the Olympics. These were held in 1912 in Stockholm, and for the team's standing in these events he was awarded the medal and diploma by the King of Sweeden.

Colonel Henry is a son of the late Maj.-Gen. Guy V. Henry, famous cavalry officer of the Civil War, the Indian campaigns of the 70's and '80s, holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor and in whose honor a number of veteran organizations of the Spanish-American War or the Army and Navy Union are named. Col. Henry married Miss Mary Rogers, sister to R. H. Rogers, Esq., of Chestertown.

WHEAT THRESHING IN KENT

Thousands of bushels of wheat have been threshed in Kent the past week and some fine crops harvested.

John McKee in Morgnes got 30 bushels per acre off a small lot. Reuben Jamar got 21 bushels per acre.

Possibly the best crop harvested is that of Percy Hepburn on Huntingfield. He got 35 bushels per acre off one field and 30 bushels off another field.

Local buyers were offering $1.28 yesterday.

Irving Brown in Quaker Neck on the Leaverton farm threshed 30 bushels per acre.

WEDDING EVENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Beck, of Baltimore, formerly of St. Louis, announce the engagement of their daughter, Catherine to Mr. F. Maury Jones, of St. Louis. The wedding will take place in Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church in Chestertown, Md., at noon on Thursday, July 26th, following which they will immediately sail for Europe.

Miss Violet E. Lecates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James LeCates, of Chestertown, and Arthur Legg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Legg, of near Chestertown, were married at Easton on Saturday afternoon by Rev. Hearn.

On July 16th at high noon Mr. Lewis A. Collins, who is a merchant of Chesapeake City, and whose home is in Middletown, Del., and Miss Agnes E. Merritt, of Warwick, Cecil county, were quietly united in marriage at Grace M. E. Parsonage, Piney Neck, by the Rev. T. S. Barrett, who is an uncle of the groom. The marriage ceremony was followed by a wedding dinner. The happy couple left after dinner for a trip on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. Visiting some of the towns in the lower part, and will return in a few days to the new home which they purchased in Chesapeake City.

Miss M. Gertrude Blades, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton G. Blades, of Worton, and Newton R. Kelley, son of Mrs. Wm. O. Anderson, of Still Pond, were married by the Rev. N. O. Gibson in the parsonage of Christ M P. Church.

Miss Agnes Merritt, daughter of R. B. Merritt, of Warwick, Md., was united in marriage to Lewis Collins, of Chesapeake City, Md., on Monday morning at the M. E. Parsonage at Rock Hall. The bride wore dark blue georgette with tan hat and stockings and black slippers. Mr. and Mrs. Collins will reside in Chesapeake City, where the groom is manager of the American Store. The bride is a graduate of the Maryland State Normal School at Towson, Md., and for the past three years has taught at West Onwell School, near Elkton, Md.

James H. Conley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Conley, of Middletown, and Miss Dolly Louise King, Millington, Md., were quietly married at Bethesda M. E. Parsonage, Rev. J. B. McCabe performing the ceremony, Saturday evening, June 30th.

The couple were attended by the groom's sister and brother-in-low, Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Saxton, of Delaware City. Mr. and Mrs. Conley will reside in Middletown.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place Sunday afternoon, July 15th, at 3.30 o'clock when Miss Viora Naomi Stevens became the bride of Herman Robert Yerkie, son of Mrs. Bertha and the late Ernest Yerkie, of Salisbury. The officiating minister was Rev. A. Howard Covey at his home in Chestertown. The attendants were Mrs. Edgar Judefind, of Chester, Pa., aunt of the bride and Mr. John W. Yerkie, brother of the groom.

The bride was gowned in white beaded georgette with rhinestone trimmings, and accessories to match, and carried bride's roses. Mrs. Judefind wore white broacaded silk.

The bridal dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Stevens, of near Rock Hall.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Yerkie went to Chester, Pa., where Mr. Yerkie is a contractor and builder and has prepared a pretty home for his bride.

Friends of the bride in Chester gave her a shower and many pretty presents have been received.

The announcement last week that the War Department had approved the Chesapeake Bay bridge plans was premature. But we hope to be able to make announcement next week that the War Department had approved the plans.

DECISION WILL SETTLE 4 ESTATES

Judge Lewin W. Wickes handed down an opinion Wednesday in the case of H. E. Perkins, attorney for C. L. Jarrell and wife, versus the Chestertown Bank of Maryland. The opinion was in favor of the Bank. This verdict will enable the administrator to finally settle four estates, viz., C. L. Jarrell, Mrs. Jarrell, Mrs. Snitcher and S. P. Townshend. The Chestertown Bank was represented by Chas. C. Wallace, Esq., of Baltimore, and Senator S. Scott Beck.

ARRESTED ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Wm. Butler, a young colored man of Kennedyville, was arrested Thursday by Sheriff Hadaway on charge of forging the name of Wm. Crow to several checks. It is said that Butler raised the amount on one check and forged the name of Mr. Crow on two other checks which were cashed by Chestertown merchants.

THE PARKS BUILDING TO BE RAZED SOON

A contract has been entered into with Walter T. Pippin to tear down and salvage the Parks building on High street. This lot will be used as a site for the new Chestertown Bank of Maryland the erection of which will be awarded after plans and specifications are agreed upon.

Work on razing the Parks building will be commenced August 6th. Residents regret to see this elegant brick structure removed.

KENT-SUSSEX FAIR TO OPEN TUESDAY

The great Kent-Sussex Fair, which is held at Harrington, Del., will open this year on Tuesday, July 24, and will continue for the remainder of the week. This Fair is now one of the biggest County Fairs in the United States.

This year all records for live stock home economics, and agricultural exhibits will be broken, as the entry list is now larger than it has ever been in any previous year. Besides the exhibits there will be many free acts, fireworks, and various shows of amusements.

SCHEDULE FOR EXAMINATIONS

A new schedule of examinations for all applicants for operator's chauffer's, or motor cycle license has been issued by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles of the State of Maryland.

The dates for holding these tests are as follows: July 26; August 2, 16, 23 and 30; September 6, 20 and 27; October 4, 11, and 25; November 1, 8, 15 and 22; December 6 and 13.

U. OF VA. MAN WILL BACK SMITH, REPLY TO CANNON

In an open answer to the circular letter sent out by Bishop James H. Cannon and Dr. Arthur J. Barton calling the "dry" conference at Asheville, N. C., the Rev. Dr. William Forrest, professor of Bibical history at the University of Virginia, deplored the entrance of preachers into politics. Dr. Forest also said it was his intention to vote for Governor Smith for President.

"I have long been weary of the unChristian, unpatriotic, unconstitutional bigotry which would penalize an American citizen for his religion by disbarring him from office," Dr. Forrest said. "I pray God that this election may forever banish such outrageous wrong from our land.

"I shall vote for Smith because he is the standard bearer of the Democratic party, which, even at its worst, holds out more hope than its rivel more hope than its rival for the adfor the administration of government in the interests of all the people."

That the collecting of tolls on the Havre de Grace bridge would cease on September 15th was indicated by John N. Mackall, chairman of the State Roads Committee on Manday. He also stated that in five years the bridge had collected about $1,000,000 in tolls. This represents the cost of the bridge plus cost of operation.

Lawrence and Ed. Jackson, both colored and not related, are in the Kent county jail here awaiting a trial on the charge of stealing a crate of eggs from the Pennsylvania passenger train of this branch. According to the charges the two colored men entered the train at one station on this line and left it at the next, carrying with them a crate of eggs belonging to a member of the train crew. Railroad detectives made an investigation of the case on Monday and shortly after Sheriff J. Thomas Hadaway took the Jacksons into custody.
