Farm or Plantation,

called "BLOOMFIELD", lying in Kent county, Maryland, adjoining the lands of Joseph Howard, and others, and of which the late James Gary, died possessed, containing about 265 ACRES.

The soil of this Farm is naturally good and by recent improvements, has been brought to a fine state of productiveness. Its location for beauty and convenience, will compare favorably, with the most choice in the county. It lies directly on Sassafras river and Lloyd's Creek, which which are famous for their fine ducks and shooting grounds—is within a few miles of the Public Granaries, on Turner's Creek, between which, and the cities of Philadelphia and Baltimore, there are regular communications, by Packets and the Steamer Lady Wilmer.

The Farm is under good FENCING and has an abundadt supply of fuel.

The improvement consists os a frame DWELLING, with a Kitchen attached, and suitable Out-buildings, all in good condition.

The Terms

OF SALE, as prescribed by the Decree, are as follows: The purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments of six, eighteen and thirty months from the day of sale, with interest from that day—and to be secured by the bond of the purchaser, with security approved by the Trustee.
