DEMOCRATIC TICKET

For President of the United States:
ALFRED E. SMITH.

For Vice-President:
JOSEPH T. ROBINSON.

For United States Senator:
WILLIAM CABELL BRUCE

For Representative in Congress:
T. ALAN GOLDSBOROUGH.

Woodrow Wilson's daughter introduced Gov. Al. Smith at Boston on Wednesday night where he made a great speech on Farm Relief, Water Power and Prohibition.

A CITIZEN OF STERLING WORTH

No citizen of Chestertown is held in greater respect than he of whom we write, viz., Hon. William M. Slay. As a member of the local bar he ranked high, as a public officer his record is blameless and speaks volumes in his favor. He was a man of uprightness and strength of character, one whose daily life would bear the closest inspection. It was a delight to honor such a man and his demise is regretted by all. He was one of Kent's noble men and did credit to the bar to which he belonged. He enjoyed the esteem and confidence of the citizens of Kent and with all who knew him. He was a man of sterling character.

KENT DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS

The Kent County Democratic District meetings have been well attended. The meeting at Galena last Friday night was addressed by Congressman Goldsborough, W. Frazier Russell, Jr., Esq., Senator S. Scott Beck and others.

The Betterton meeting was addressed by Wm. F. Russell, Senator S. Scott Beck, H. W. Vickers, Esq., S. R. Collins, Esq., and Howard Turner.

JUDGING RESULTS OF THE 4H CLUB

As a result of the State Boys' and Girls' 4-H Club poultry judging at the recent Hagerstown Fair, in which Allegany county won first place, three boys and one girl have been selected to represent Maryland at the national poultry judging contest to be held in connection with the annual Madison Square Garden Poultry Show in New York city the third week in January.

Those who will compose the team to represent the State are: Alton Sisk, of Cumberland, who won first place in the State contest with a total score of 650 points out of a possible 800 points; Lucille Lusby, of Prince Frederick, second prize winner, ho chalked up 610 points; Morris T. Lusby, also of Prince Frederick, who came in third with 610 points, and Matrin Gordon, of Flintstone, fourth with 590 points.

At the Hagerstown contest, which was under the direction of W. H. Rice, poultry specialist of the University of Maryland, and E. I. Oswald, district agent of the University of Maryland Extension Service, the teams lined up in the following manner: Allegany county, first, with a total of 1,760 points out of 2,400 in the score; Calvert, second, 1,650 points; Kent, third, 1,550 points; Montgomery, fourth, 1,400 points; Prince George's, fifth, 1,480 points; Anne Arundel, sixth, 1,410 points; Frederick, seventh, 1,360 points, and Dorchester, eighth, with 1,210 points.

Maryland 4-H Club Dairy Cattle Judging Team placed ninth in the National Contest in competition with twenty-six State champion teams. Of a possible 4800 points, Oklahoma won first place with 4190 points. Maryland score was 3,873 points. The contest was held at the National Dairy Show, Memphis, Tennessee.

Maryland's team was composed of Billie James, Harford county; Frank Sutton, Kent county; Lee Howes, Montgomery county, and alternate, John Burton, Dorchester county.

County Agent H. B. Derrick was coach of the State team, as a result of Kent's judging team winning first place in the State judging contest.

HEALTH MEETINGS

At the open meeting of the Public Health Association of Kent County held in the auditorium of Millington High School October 25th, G. T. Evans, Educational Director of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association, Inc., gave another of his interesting health programs. The meeting was well attended.

A similar meeting will be held in Galena High School Thursday, Nov. 1st, at 8 o'clock. The public is invited. No money will be asked.

THE REPUTATION OF THE EASTERN SHORE IS AT STAKE

There are a number of important issues on which the Republican party has a right to be indicted and rebuked at the coming election. Surely the farmer will recall that agricultural interests have been contemptuously slighted and spurned by the party in power in spite of repeated promises of relief. Surely the American people as a whole will remember when they vote the scandalous sale of the government oil reserves to private interests and the proved corruption of members of the presidential Cabinet in which Candidate Hoover also sat and never opened his mouth as the infamous business went on.

At the same time and in the face of all these facts, the American people and especially the voters of the Eastern Shore seem to be concentrating their thoughts during these last days of the campaign on two questions. One of these is prohibition and the second is religion.

It is not the aim of this editorial to debate either of these questions. The latter is in fact undebatable. Our sole aim is to present a few bald facts to the end that subterfuge, camouflage and hypocrisy may be cleared away and to the further end that Democrats of Kent county and the Shore may not take a stand on election day of which they and the Shore may later have good cause to be ashamed.

The Eastern Shore of Maryland has a tremendous affiliated Democratic majority. For years it has been reputed preponderantly politically dry. In spite of this, it voted strongly for Woodrow Wilson who was wet and who vetoed the Volstead Act. It did the same for the successive Democratic presidential candidtes, Mr. Cox and Mr. Davis, both of whom were also wet. In the last Gubernatorial campaign, it gave a majority of 3500 votes for Albert C. Ritchie who is also wet, seven of its nine counties (including Kent) going for him by sizable majorities. At the same election eight of its nine counties gave Tydings for U. S. Senator splendid majorities, the whole Shore casting a majority for Tydings over Weller of 8,114 votes. Mr. Tydings is also militantly wet.

What do these facts mean? What do they and what may they prove? The answer is simple and unanswerable.

If the Eastern Shore of Maryland on the sixth of November next casts aside its natural political allegiance and declares by its votes its preference for Mr. Hoover, the Republican candidate for president, it will tell the world in language that a school child can understand that it does so for the sole reason that Alfred E. Smith is a member of the Catholic Church. It will pass on to posterity and will inscribe indelibly into its political record that it is either ignorant of, or has no respect for the Constitution of the United States which says:

NO RELIGIOUS TEST SHALL EVER BE REQUIRED AS A QUALIFICATION TO ANY OFFICE OR PUBLIC TRUST UNDER THE UNITED STATES.

It will broadcast to the rest of Maryland and country as a whole that it has permitted foolish and unfounded fears, derived, perhaps, from the reading of trashy, obscene and libelous publications not fit to go into any decent American home and indulging in propaganda which has no more foundation in fact than Unclie Wiggly's Bedtime Stories to lead it estray and make of it a collective and conglomerate consummate ass. It will tel lthe world and its children even to the third and fourth generation that in the year of our Lord 1928 it stood four-square for a bigotry, prejudice and intolerance that puts the Dark Ages to shame.

In the words of the title which we have given to this editorial, — the reputation of the Eastern Shore is at stake. Not only is the Democracy of the Del-Mar-Va Peninsula on trial. Not only is its reputation for tolerance on trial. Its reputation for intelligence is on trial. May those who now delight in calling themselves "Hoover Democrats" meditate these things carefully and prayerfully before it is too late.

THE RIGHT MAN IN THE RIGHT PLACE

It may be regarded as reasonably conclusive that whatever may, or may not, be the extent of any rumored disaffection in the ranks of the Eastern Shore Democracy, Congressman T. Alan Gildsborough should, and will be re-elected.

For at no time in recent years has there developed an Eastern Shore statesman who has so admirably, courageously and efficiently discharged the duties of Representative.

During the several terms that he has been the spokesman of the Eastern Shore in Congress, he has unfailingly and unfalteringly loyal to his constituency; zealous in safeguarding their interests and vigorous in espousing the causes which he felt would be advantageous to their welfare.

There is no question about the fact that his personal views on all important public questions coincide with the majority of sentiment among the people he represents.

Without attempting, either by statement or insinuation, to cast even a fleeting reflection upon either the capabilities or reputation of his opponent, it would be unthinkable for the Eastern Shore to fail to return Congressman Goldsborough. He has been so plainly and emphatically the right man in the right place that it would be an extremely short-sighted policy to prevent his return.

Neither the Nation nor the Eastern Shore can afford to lose men of the stamnia, ability and efficiency of this capable, earnest, splendidly equipped statesman.

He deserves support.

And will WIN!
