CAN THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY COME BACK?

The question is asked, will the party come back, with all its force, as the controlling factor in public affairs in Maryland?

There should be no doubt on the question. The party has been defeated before, and has come back at the next election, just as strong as ever.

The fact that thousands of Democrats voted for Republicans does not make them Republicans—they voted for the opposition candidates as a protest, against the personal views, which those candidates represented and which were in no sense of the word party views. The two side issues, religion and prohibition, are no more the views of the Democratic party, than they are of the Republican party.

In times gone by, thousands of Democrats have frequently voted for Republican candidates, on outside issue, and thousands of Republicans have voted for Democratic candidates for the same reasons.

The Democartic party is still in power in Maryland. It has all the executive officers, it has all the political machinery of the State, it controls all the courts, and it has more than two-thirds of the General Assembly. And so far from being out of power, that it is in power at this day to as great an extent, as ever in its history.

It is true, however, that by a fault of the Democrats themselves, the Republicans are in control of the city government. Although it should be remembered that the city of Baltimore is a corporation, existing, by the consent and permission of the State, and that in the last analysis, the State of Maryland is supreme over the city government. — The Marylander.

WORK BY NUTRITIONIST

Miss Miriam Kincheloe, Kent Co. Red Cross Nutritionist, announces the following program for her work in the county until Christmas. After that, changes will be made to include other schools not included in this schedule.

Monday, Chestertown.—Will talk to High School at Assembly Monday morning. The rest of the school day will be spent in the Elementary School.

From 3.30 to 5.30 p. m., possibility of a colored teachers' class in nutrition.

Will spend one hour at T. B. clinic first Monday in each month.

Tuesday, Rock Hall.—Will talk to High School Assembly first period in the morning. The rest of the morning will be spent in the graded school.

The nutritionist wishes to meet an adults class in the afternoon. The rest of the time will be given to home visiting.

Wednesday, Millington. — High School Assembly, first period in the morning. The rest of the morning to be spent in the graded school.

Will meet an adults class in the afternoon. The rest of the afternoon will be spent in home visiting.

Thursday, Betterton and Still Pond. The nutritionist will divide her time between these two towns on Thursday. She wishes to meet a class of parents on that day.

Friday will be spent in visiting one room country schools not noted in this schedule. The nutritionist can not state a certain time at which she will visit the various schools.

3.30 to 5.30 p. m., possibility of teacher's class.

Saturday will be given to office work.

This program is subject to change if necessary.

The "loafer hen," who eats much and lays little, is the greatest drag on farm poultry flock profits. Replace non-layers with good reliable stock, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and watch the profits grow.

QUAKER NECK

Johnny Goodman spent the week-end with his parents at Quaker Neck.

Raymond Startt visited his parents at the Cliffs over the week-end.

The Standard Bearers of Bond Chapel organization of young girls, organized the following officers: President, Virginia Reed; vice-president, Pearl Chairs; secretary, Rose Starr; treasurer, Mary Lucht.

George Deford has been reported as improving at the Methodist Hospital, Philadelphia.

Mrs. O. E. Yerkes has her mother with her from Clarkesburg, W. Va.

The Crusaders for Christ of Mowbray met at the home of the home of Walter Dickerson Friday evening, it is the aim of this band to inlist all the young people of the community who might be interested.

Elizabeth Walbert, Priscilla Granger, and Barbee Humphreys visited Evelyn Walbert over Sunday.

An Epworth League business meeting was held at Bond Wednesday night after which a social was enjoyed by all, with a very interesting program.

Lillie Lucht is visiting her brother and sisters in Baltimore county.

Lloyd Mulford, of Chestertown, took supper with Elmer Starr Monday.

T. R. Starr and family visited Geo. Grussing Sunday.

The Young Men's Bible Class met Monday evening with a social. Next month they will present their Xmas program.

The plate supper given by Mowbray was a success and a nice fund realized for the League. A group of their young Leaguers attended with Mr. Green.

The revival now being held at the Piney Neck Church by Rev. Barrett taking part in the service and enjoying the service.

8414 COWS TESTED IN TALBOT

In the first complete testing of cattle in Talbot county for tuberculosis, recently completed, the percentage of loss for the entire county was .127 per cent.

There were in all 8414 cattle tested in 969 herds, and of the total number Chapel ranks first of all the districts with 2389.

Easton district is second with 2233. The latter district leads in the number of herds, with 283.

Chapel district sustained the heaviest losses, which amounted to .197 per cent. St. Michaels district was the lowest with .066 per cent.

Other counties report heavier losses on the Eastern Shore. Kent county, not yet completed, is having a loss of 40 per cent., while Queen Anne's shows but 25 or 26 per cent. as far as the tests have been made.

Many farmers who have lost heavily by reactors are stocking their herds with cattle from the Middle Western States where dairying is the leading industry. Dairymen here are now getting greater returns per cow than before the test began, it is generally reported.

The farm flock should not be a "pin money" proposition. Poultry and egg prices for the coming year indicate a good profit for the farmer who has the proper stock and gives it good care. Put good laying stock on the farm, and realize a profit.
