AUCTION SALES

Land Sale.

THE undersigned will sell on

TUESDAY,

The 24th day of MARCH, 1857, at the hotel of John McDaniel, in Chestertown, a tract of Land, containing either 150 or

170 ACRES

as the purchaser may prefer, generally known as the

'Wethered Farm,'

which lies directly on the public road leading from Chestertown to Georgetown X Roads.

The soil of this Farm naturally, will compare favorably with the best in the county, and a large part of it has been improved by the application of lime and is now in a fine state of cultivation.

Its location is one of the most desirable in the county, being within 3 miles of the steamboat landing at Turner's Creek, convenient to places of public worship, schools mills, post office, &c.

The whole of this land is arable with the exception of about 10 Acres which are in

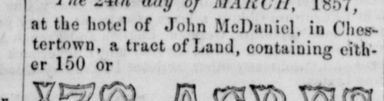

The 150 Acres lies adjoining the village of Harmony on the east side of the road leading to F. Vansant's house. The 170 acres includes all the improvements on the farm which are a FRAME DWELLING HOUSE and the usual out-buildings.

The farm is now divided into 3 fields and under good chesnut fencing.

AT the same time and place he will will sell the

Three Dwelling Houses, the Store House, Blacksmith's Shop and Cartwright Shop, which contitute the village of which adjoins the above tract of land.

HARMONY offers every inducement to purchase, both to the active enterprising Merchant and industrious enterprising Mechanic. It is located in the centre of one of the most wealthy and thrifty neighborhoods in the county. A small capital and proper attention to business, are all that is needed to insure an independent fortune in the course of a few years, in this village.

The terms of Sale are:

One fourth cash, or a few weeks after the sale; one fourth on the 1st October, 1857; the balance in equal instalments of one and two years. The purchaser will be required to give bond with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale, when possession will be given.

R. HYNSON,
Atty. for I. L. Price.

February 21, 1857.

☞ The Del. Journal will copy and send bill to the advertiser.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

THE undersigned, as Trustee, will offer at public sale on WEDNESDAY,

the 18th of March, 1857, at 12 o'clock, M., at the hotel of James Elliott, in the town of Millington, all those

TWO LOTS

situate on Cypress Street, in that village, which adjoin the property of the late Thomas H Horsey and others, together with the improvements thereon, among which there is a Commodious BRICK DWELLING. Mr. Jesse K. Hines, who occupies a part of this Dwelling, or Mr. Thos. C. Ringgold, the owner, will take pleasure in showing those premises to any one who may desire to purchase.

One of these Lots is vacant and is considered one of the most desirable building Lots in the town.

To the man of enterprise, this property presents strong inducements to purchase for it is not be questioned that Millington, is now a village of far more than ordinary promise, since its access to Philadelphia, and other large cities, has been rendered easy, and convenient by the Delaware railroad, from which it lies but few miles.

The Terms of Sale,

As prescribed by the decree, are, the purchaser, or purchasers, shall give bond with security approved by the Trustee, for the payment of the purchase money, in three equal instalments, of three, six and nine months, from the day of sale, with interest from the day of sale.

R. HYNSON, Trustee.

Farm for Sale.

OF about 100 AGRES, situate in Broad Neck, Kent county, on the N.W. prong of Langford's Bay, in the region of Fish, Oysters, Terrapins, Wild Ducks, &c.—has been limed, guanoed, clovered and ashed. This farm has on it upwards of 1000 of the finest red cedar and locust posts, already cut, and about 11000 feet of boards for fencing. There is more than enough manure for the whole corn crop all prepared.

The Dwelling House and Out-buildings have been recently repaired at considerable expense.

The prospect is good for 300 bushels of wheat.

There is an ORCHARD of fine fruit, Apples, Pears, &c., and a well of delightful water—vessels come to the farm landing. $1000 has been expended upon the farm within the last two years.—The posts and boards will be sold with the farm, except 500 ft. of the boards.

The neighborhood is a good one—the owner sells as he wishes to leave the State.

The Terms are: one third cash, the balance in two, three and four years; secured by bond and mortgage.

Possession will be given on the first of April next, but corn may be planted earlier.
