Kent County Local Notes

ROCK HALL

We are in the midst of more excitement and business activities than for many months. Preparations are making for laying a sidewalk on the side of tht M. E. Church and front of M. T. Miller's store. A large amount of concrete is also being put in near the new house of Mr. Hill. Trees are being cut down and ditches opened making way for the new road.

The Worton letter last week in the News mentioned the proposition to call the Fairlee-Catts' Corner road the "Willis Boulevard." Now, we think the Tolchester-Rock Hall road should be named after our friend Marion deK. Smith, because he certainly has aided in bringing Kent good roads.

Several colored men in Elios camp here engaged in a fight Saturday night and one man was wounded so badly that he was carried to a Baltimore hospital. Late reports are that he will recover. His assailant is in Chestertown jail.

Several dice players were arrested Saturday night. This is a sign of plenty of money.

Mrs. Frank Pippin has returned from Easton Hospital and is convalescing at home.

One of our citizens, Ray Sadtler, has sustained the loss of his father, who died at their home on the Crosby Brothers farm last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Taylor went to Baltimore Saturday to visit Miss Mamie Middleton, who is ill of pleurisy at a hospital there.

The Epworth League program on Sunday evening was fine. A vocal solo by Mrs. Owen Selby preceded a scripture reading by Mrs. Irving Crouch. The topic "Getting More Out of Music, Each in His Own Tongue" was taken up by Dr. Livingood, of Washington College, who at the conclusion demonstrated two kinds of music by giving two beautiful selections on his violin, accompanied by Mrs. Livingood at the piano.

Mrs. Joseph Downey, Sr., accompanied by her son, Joseph Downey, went to Havre de Grace. She will spend the winter there as a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Baker.

The Elementary P. T. A. cleared $40 at their Hallowe'en party in the new school building Thursday. The M. E. ladies cleared $16.00 the prior Tuesday.

William Elburn is expected home Friday.

FIRE AT KENNEDYVILLE

The rear building in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Caldwell, in Kennedyville, was gutted by a fire which occurred on Sunday morning about 10 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell were visiting relatives and friends in Philadelphia, and no one was in the house at the time the fire broke out, nor was there any fire in the stoves.

Neighbors on their way to church services discovered smoke emerging from the roof of the home. An alarm was turned in for the Chestertown Fire Department which responded but the men could do nothing but save a small portion of the building. Neighbors and firemen succeeded in getting much of the furniture out of the building. The loss is estimated at $1,000 fully covered by insurance.

Rev. J. W. Bexley, who was assigned to Grace M. P. Church, Centreville, by the Maryland Annual Conference, has been transferred to Wesley Chapel, near Rock Hall. The congregation of the Kent Church made a special request to have Rev. Bexley assigned to that charge and by mutual agreement between the members of Grace M. P. Church and Mr. Bexley this change was made possible. He will make a fine supply to this prosperous congregation.

LOS ANGELES PASS OVER TOWN

The dirigible, the Loss Angeles, passed directly over Chestertown at a low altitude shortly after 7 o'clock Tuesday night. The big airship passed over the center of the town headed in a south westerly direction. After clearing the outskirts of the town it swung around until it was headed almost west, probably in the direction of Baltimore.

The dirigible was at a very low height and many lights were ablaze. The roar of the motors brought people hurrying to the streets to watch the passage of the ship.
