DEATHS.

Charles W. Kibler, Sr., died at his home, Queen street, on Thursday morning after a long illness, aged 71 years. He was raised in Queen Anne's County, was a student at Washington College and was catcher for their ball team at that time. He was one Kent's best citizens.

He came to Chestertown about 1897 and was the pioneer of the grain business from which he, with his two sons, branched out in the grain, coal, phosphate and tomato business until they made one of the leading enterprises of the community.

He leaves two sons, J. Thomas Kibler and Charles Kibler, of Chestertown, one sister, Mrs. Harry Newnam, of Baltimore, two nieces, Miss Edith Harley, of Chestertown, and Miss Lula Harley, of Baltimore, and one nephew, A. S. Harley, of New York.

Funeral services will be held from his late home at Chestertown at 11 o'clock, Saturday, conducted by Rev. J. H. Wright. The bearers will be John H. Newnam, D. Thos. Hurlock, Harry Tucker, Hicks Tucker, P. A. M. Brooks and Dr. G. Allen Jarman. Interment in Church Hill Cemetery; W. T. Hicks in charge of arrangements.

Henry Hooper Klinefelter died at 9.15 on Monday at his late residence, "Sterlingford," near Chestertown, Queen Anne's County, in his 72nd year. Born in Baltimore, the son of the late VanVert Klinefelter, he spent his early life in that city. On April 20th, 1892, he married Miss Emily Hendrix Ford, who survives him. She is a daughter of the late Col. Budd S. Ford, who operated a line of steamers on Chester river for many years. Soon after their marriage they removed to their country home about two miles from Chestertown and were known for their generous hospitality and neighborliness. At one time Mr. and Mrs. Klinefelter operated nine farms most of which are still held by them. He was a nephew of former Mayor Hooper, of Baltimore, who visited him last week. Besides his widow he is survived by two brothers and a sister, Wm. E. Hooper Klinefelter, Van Vert Klinefelter and Mrs. Albert C. Tolson, all of Baltimore.

The deceased was a loyal member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and contributed liberally to all its interests.

The funeral took place Thursday from his late home conducted by Dr. Wilbur F. Corkran, of Seaford, Del., a former pastor, and Rev. J. Harry Wright, interment in Chester Cemetery. The bearers were Wilbur W. Hubbard, W. B. Copper, Mark Creasy, Wm. E. Klinefelter, Jr., Bassom King Kennedy and Hamilton H. Hooper; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Sarah J. Long, widow of the late Charles Long, died at her home in Williamstown, N. J., on Nov. 12. She was formerly a resident of Worton Point, this county.

She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Mollie Leaverton, Charles Long, George Long, Mrs. Laura Seney, Mrs. Bessie Joiner, Mrs. Annie Kernan and Joseph Long.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2.00 o'clock from Christ M. P. Church, interment in Chester Cemetery, C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Omar C. Layman, 28, of Hagerstown, died at the local hospital following a long illness. He was a graduate of the Washington County High School and Washington College. Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Layman, he is survived by an uncle, Dr. J. W. Layman, also of Hagerstown.

James A. Smith, 85, a former resident of Cecilton, Md., and well known was struck by a train at Norwood, Pa., Wednesday afternoon, and instantly killed. Mr. Smith was spending the Fall and Winter with his daughter, Mrs. W. Dawson Wilcutts, in that place, and had only been gone from his daughter's home a few minutes to take a walk when the accident occurred.

Funeral services were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Boyles, near Kennedyville, Md., Saturday afternoon at 2, and interment made in Galena, Md., Cemetery.

The funeral at the Catholic Church in Rock Hall Monday morning of the late Frank Jester, Sr., was largely attended by neighbors and from a distance. Among the latter were noted his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Chase, of Washington, D. C.; a niece, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Asher, of Bengies, Baltimore county; nephews, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jester, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Drew; nieces, Mrs. Edw. Pennington, and Mrs. Jos. Connelly and daughter, of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jester, of Juaker Neck; Mrs. George Bell, of Roanoke, Va.; also Mrs. Rogers Wilson, of Wilmington; Miss Meta Barton, Mrs. Marvin Barton and Edward Barton, of Bentreville. The bearers were Chas. E. and Wm. H. McKee, Frank Asher, Wm. Jester, Albert Baxter, John Wilson; Father Earner officiating, C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Emily Rodney Davis, wife of James Davis, died at her home in Baltimore Sunday evening. The deceased was a daughter of the late John Rodney, of Rock Hall. Her husband and a son, Arnold, survive. Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday evening and the remains brought to Rock Hall on Wednesday morning on the Tolchester boat and interred in Wesley Chapel Cemetery. Mrs. Davis was a member of Rock Hall M. E. Church and Rock Hall Ladge No. 25, Daughters of America. Services were held at the grave and the bearers were members of the order.

Mrs. Thomas A. Hulme died at Atlantic City on Monday, aged about 84. The deceased was a former resident of near Fairlee.
