CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.—Psalm 119: 105.

Peace which Passeth Understanding. John 14:27. Jesus said: Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

John 16:33. These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Prayer: I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

The Gift of the Holy Spirit. John 14:15, 16, 17, 18. If ye love me, keep my commandments. 16. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; 17. Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him; but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. 18. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

Prayer: Thus saith the Lord God, I will put a new spirit within you.

IN MEMORIUM

In loving memory of our baby, Helen Marie, who left us six years ago today to dwell with her heavenly father. Daughter of Vincent and Grace Mench.

Where Helen is there is no pain,
I would not and cannot have back again,
I wound not have her back to see
How much her going meant to me.
I would not want her back to know
How cold the winds of chance can blow;
There is no kinder heart than His
And pillowed there our Helen is!
Where Helen is, how soft the years
There is no grief, there are no tears,
Her brow is all untouched by care,
For she finds only brigthness there.
She'l never feel my heavy heart
In joyful calm she dwells apart.
There are no arms as kind as His,
They clasp her close where Helen is.
Loving Mother, Father, Sister and Brothers. 1t

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear wife and mother, Susie, who departed this life six years ago Dec. 8th, 1923.

The years may wipe out many things
But this they wipe out never—
The memory of those happy days,
When we were all together.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
Gone into the light that shines so fair,
Gone from this earth of sorrows and care,
Resting those hands that did their best,
Gone, dear mother, gone to rest.
It was an early morning hour,
Six years ago today,
An angel of death came down to earth
And bore her soul away.
Keep her, Jesus in thy keeping
Till we reach that heavenly shore,
Then, oh Master, let us have her
Love and keep her as before.
By her husband and Children.

SUPPOSE!

Suppose that in this week's paper
You had read the startling news
That the preachers of our county
Preached to naught but empty pews;
That to all our many churches
Not a single person came;
Would you read it with indifference,
Or with head bowed low in shame?

Would you want to have your children
Live where churches are no more?
Would you want to live with neighbors
Who would close each church's door?
Sure you wouldn't; sounds quite foolish
To suggest so strange a thing.
But if church no one attended,
That's the end that it would bring.

There'll be churches. You will have them.
Whether you attend them or not,
But your life will be more happy
If sometimes to church you go.
You want churches; then attend them.
Don't let others do your share,
Go to church this coming Sunday.
You'll receive a blessing there.

MRS. T. H. WALTERS,
Akersville, Pa.

The fifth annual standard training school for ministers and church school workers of upper Eastern Shore counties completed a five-week course Tuesday in the M. E. Church here. A large score of pupils received certificates from the Rev. C. W. Clark, pastor of Calvary Church, Sudlersville, and dean of the school. Among the faculty present at the closing session were the Rev. James H. Bishop of Wilmington, director of religious education of the Wilmington M. E. Conference; the Rev. G. A. Burslem, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Dover, Del.; Miss Clara D. Bragdon, conference director of elementary work; the Rev. W. L. Hess, promotion chairman, Galena, Md.; the Rev. E. A. Sexsmith, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown and the local church.

Winter is coming—

change your oil!

"THE careful car owner will now drain his engine crank case and start using a lighter oil for the Winter months.

"The careful owner will also use judgment in selecting an oil best suited for Winter driving.

"Penn-o-lene will not only give the same high-grade service in Winter that it does in Summer—but quicker starting at extreme low temperatures, as well.

"Summer or Winter—heavy, medium or light—you can always say with safety, 'Give me Penn-o-lene.' It is the finest motor oil you can buy, and remember—it costs no more than ordinary oils.

"Look for the Penn-o-lene Sign and get your crank case filled with Penn-o-lene for the Winter months."
