1632 CRESCITE ET MULTIPLICAMINI 1854

CHESTER TOWN, Md.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 28, 1857.

☞ The American State Council meets in Baltimore on Wednesday next, the 1st of April. The meeting is a most important one, and we would urge all the delegates to attend.

DIED SUDDENLY.—Mr. John Register, a resident of Trenton, New Jersey, and on a visit to his brother in this place, died suddenly on Thursday morning last. He had just finished breakfast and while sitting talking to his brother, fell from his chair a corpse. The deceased was about 65 years of age.

STATE CASE.—The witnesses for the State against Alfred Reed for the murder of George Vansant, have been recognized to appear in Elkton on Wednesday the 8th April, 1857, at 9 o'clock, A. M. As some have not conveniences for travelling it is important that conveyances should be furnished.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.—A man named Joseph White, alias Joseph Brown, was brought here on Saturday last from Harrisburg, Pa., upon a requisition of the Governor of Maryland,—charged with stealing a horse from Mr. Joseph Money some two years ago. The accused made an unsuccessful attempt to escape on Tuesday night—he succeeded in getting his irons off, and when detected was working through the chimney. Sheriff Rich removed him to other quarters, and double ironed him, where he will, in all probability remain until Court.

FIRE.—We learn with great regret that the Barn and out-buildings of George W. Spencer, Esq., on his Mansion Farm, about a mile below George Town X Roads in this county, was destroyed by fire on Thursday evening last about 7 o'clock.—In addition to the buildings, Mr. Spencer lost about 100 bushels of wheat, 1800 bushels of Oats, and 2500 bushels of Corn, and 12 head of Horses and Mules. Mr. Spencer's loss in buildings and other property must be upwards of seven thousand dollars. The origin of the fire we have not heard, but presume it accidental, or from a spark from the Kitchen chimney. There was no insurance.

BANK FAILURE.—The New Castle Bank of Pa., has failed, it is said, in consequence of the disappearance of one of its officers with some $50,000 of its funds. It appears from the Pittsburg Dispatch that the bank has been in existence eighteen months, and that it was organized by a Wall street broker, through whose operations, it is alleged, it became seriously involved. The runaway officer appears to be a defaulter in $53,000, according to the statement of the directors, but it may be much more. They think the notes out do not exceed eighty thousand, but the amount is probably more. The Dispatch says:

The assets are nominally two hundred thousand, but may prove not worth one-fourth that amount. As the ascertained losses amount to but seventy or eighty thousand dollars and the stockholders are individually liable for the redemption of every note out, we hove little doubt its circulation will eventually be redeemed at par.

ELECTION FOR JUDGE OF THE CRURT OF APPEALS.—The acceptance by Hon. John Thompson Mason of the Collectorship for the port of Baltimore, to which he has been recently appointed, will create a vacancy on the Bench of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, of which he is Chief Judge.

Under the 25th Section of the 4th Article of the Constitution, Governor Ligon is empowered in this event by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to fill the vacancy until the general election next fall; at which time a judge is to be elected by the people, who shall hold his office for ten years, according to the provision of the Constitution.

Governor Ligon will probably appoint to the vacancy for the time being, particularly as the June term of the Appellate Court intervenes: but will scarcely call the Senate together to ratify the appointment.

This circumstance adds another to the long list of Candidates to be voted for next fall; and as it is very certain that the Americans, will elect their nominee from the first Judicial district by an over weelming majority, our opponents are already at work in selecting suitable aspirants to produce schism, if practicable, in our ranks.—Fred. Examiner.

☞ Willis P. Bocock, Attorney General of Virginia has resigned his office.

Temperance.

To the Editor of the Kent News:

Sir: The public mind freed from political excitement is prepared to take a calm and dispassionate view of the temperance question and give to it the consideration which its merits demand. The use of intoxicating liquors, as a beverage, has long been regarded by the virtuous and enlightened portion of our community, as a plain and palpable violation of the moral law, the pleasures of drinking alcohol are guilty pleasures, and the profits of furnishing for that purpose are guilty profits. That "no drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of God," is the teaching of our holy christianity; to indulge in ardent spirits to intoxication, is degrading and beastly, better be a hog at once! "Go fill the sty and brsstle into swine"

The friends of temperance are not prepared to admit the popular reasoning of the worshippers at the shrine of the rosy-god, "that the abuse of a thing is no argument against its use" irom the fact that the most eminent physicians in the United States, "say that all use of ardent spirits (as a beverage) is an abuse."—The man who furnishes the means by which the sober, upright, virtuous citizen becomes a common drunkard and a pest to the community in which he lives, in every light in which it can be viewed, is as culpable as the drunkard himself.—It is a principle in law, that the perpetrator and the accessory in the commission of crime are both guilty. They are wedded together in indissoluble bonds, a fellow feeling "should make them wondrous kind" to each other, they should bear each others burdens as they toil and labour together in the harvest field of ruin, "treasuring up for themselves, wrath against the day of wrath and revelations of the righteous judgments of God." Is it not strange, is not the fact itself "stranger than fiction," that professing christians, men who have taken the bible for their guide should engage in such a traffic?

It would seem that light from every quarter conveying to a few, long since would have burnt the truth into their hearts and conscience, that the sale of rum was an unholy calling—they are moral lepers in the church and should not be permitted to enter the congregation of the Lord. These gentlemen are a kind of hermophrodite, double-conscience christians,

"To good and evil both enlent, Alike a devil and a saint."

There is another class of liquor venders who profess great attachment to the laws, and think there is no immorality in the traffic because legalized by the State; they have no "higher law" to govern their actions The price which they pay for a licence, sanctifies the whole business in their estimation.

"O poverty of earth that we do deeds that win their evil names
And hate the name and not the deed that does it."

ODD-FELLOW.

FOREIGN NEWS.

By the arrival at New York on Tuesday, of the steamship Africa, from Liverpool, we have three days later news from Europe.

Lord Palmerston announced in Parliament that a dissolution would take place in May, and until then he would continue to maintain a firm policy with regard to China, and hoped, with the aid of France and America to compel the establishment of additional commercial advantages.

The signing of the treaty of peace with Persia had been officially announced in the House of Lords, and it has been sent to Teheran for ratification.

The Rusian telegraph reports the signing of a commercial treaty at Teheran, between the United States and Persia, by which American Consuls are permitted to resides in the Persian cities.

Austria seeks a similar treaty with Persia.

The Prusian Ministry has been defeated on the divorce bill.

The Chinese news received by private letters continues unsatisfactory, but there is nothing realy additional.

Reinforcements are being dispatched from England.

It is reported that Commissioner Bowring has been recalled by the British government.

Also, that on the 5th of December the Chinese seized the East India Company's opium depot.

FROM HAVANA.—The Black Warrior arrived here on Saturday night, from Havana on the 17th inst. The news is unimportant. The Commissioners appointed by General Concha to investigate the subject of there being guano on the Keys off the south coast of the Island, reported by telegraph from Trinidad favorable as to quantity and quality of guano found. They were accompanied by Capt. Green, the Discoverer. The Islands are to be immediately opened to the commercial world. On one Key alone the deposit extends to the depth of from four to six feet for a mile in length, and from an eighth to a quarter of a mile in bredth; and this is only on one Key, whilst there are scores of others upon which no doubt exists of there being equal quantities.—Until definite orders are received from Spain, Messrs. Chas. Tyng & Co., merchants at Havana, have sole permission to export the the guano, in return for their having made the government aware of its existence. They however, are to pay five dollars per ton for it besides the usual tonnage dues.—N. Y. Mirror.

BLEEDING SWINE.—The best place to do this is from an arter just above the knee, on the inside of the fore leg. It may be drawn more copiously from the roof of the mouth The flow of blood may usually be stopped by applying cold water with a sponge or cloth.—Allen-

The Maryland Appointments.

WASHINGTON, March 25.

The President's appointments for Maryland are postmoned until to-morrow.

Judge Mason has not yet been positively appointed, but has been tendered the collectorship and has signified his willingness to accept.

L. K. Bowen, it is still said, (now quite positively) will be offered the naval office. This is conceded on all hands.

A spirited contest has been made between the friends of the Hon. Edward Hammond and Dr. Findley of Queen Anne's county, for the post of surveyor. Who will succeed is yet a matter of doubt. Mr. Hammond was an applicant at the first for naval officer, as the caucus candidate, and Dr. Finley was by the same parties designated as surveyor.

The probability is that Colonel Key, the navy agent, will not be disturbed at present. The friends of Mr. Alfred M. Miller are, however, apparently sanguine of his success in this direction.

The post office is in a fog. Dr. John Morris could beyond doubt have this place but he has not applied for it, and it is not as yet positiuely known whether he would accept it Mr. Richardson, of the "Argus," is in a fair way to reach it if Dr. Morris does not step in to relieve him. If the doctor does not take this place he will most probably go abroad.

A strong contest is threatening between Jas. M. Buchanan, Esq., and Hon. Henry May for the misaion to Naples.

The district attorneyship may probably be offered to an old lipe whig. S. Teackle Wallis, W. H. G. Dorsey and I. Nevit Steele, Esqs., are spoken of in this connection.

Major Watkins is so heavily backed that his chances for retention of the marshalship appear favorable. If a change is made it will most likely fall upon one not yet proclaimed.

The appointments of appraisers will not be acted upon for some time yet.

Augustus Gassaway has been reappointed postmaster at Annapolis.

THE SUPREME COURT.—The Supreme Court of the United States is constituted as follows:

Roger B. Taney, of Maryland.
John McLean, of Ohio.
James W. Wane, of Georgia.
John Catron, of Tennessee.
Peter V. Daniel, of Virginia,
Samuel Nelson, of New York.
Robert C. Crier, of Pennsylvania,
Benjamin Robbins Curtis, of Massachusetts.
John A. Campbell, of Alabama.

Of the foregoing, Messrs. McLean and Taney were appointed by Gen. Jackson; Messrs. Cotron and Daniel by Mr. Van Buren; Mr. Nelson by Mr. Tyler; Mr Curtis by Mr. Fillmore, and Mr. Campbell by Gen. Pierce. It will be seen that of the nine Judges, five are from the Slave States, and four are from the Free.

EPIDEMIC — The Oswego Times says that the extent of the new epidemic known by the name of "brain fever," is truly alarming throughout Madison and Onondaga counties.

"A gentleman who has lately visited the former county, informs us that, in some localities, the people are leaving in alarm and dismay. Persons are attacked with the remarkable malady very suddenly, soon become insane, and die in a few hours. We do not know that any have recovered when once attacked by the disease. Duane Brown and Richard Thomas Esqs., two prominent lawyers of Madison county, have fallen victims to it, and we are told in some of the villages, deaths occur daily. As yet there is no rational explanation of the disease."

A NOVEL LICENSE LAW.—Mr. Handford's licens law in the New York Assembly is a most novel feature in legislation. It provides that no person shall drink strong liquors without first obtaiding license, which may be granted by any justice of the peace on the following terms:

For a license to drink lager beer, current or and domestic wines, 50 cents; for strong beer, 75 cents; for whisky and home-made liquors, $1; for French or any important brandy; $1,50; for champange, Burgundy or any foreign wine $5.

Clergymen and editors are exempted from the provissions of the bill on the ground, we suppose, that they belong to the "moral classess" and never drink to excess. The bill was referred to the committee of the whole.—N. Y. Mirror.

SNOW.—To cap the climax of the freezing cold weather of late our citizens had presented to them yesterday morning the singular appearance of a Natchez snow storm in March! and that too while the peach orcharps are in full blossom., For an hour or more snow fell in abundance, but melted as soon as it met the earth.—It was a rare spectacle for our climate.—Natchez Cour., 12th.

SIMPLE MANNERS.—The trial of Geo, Knight for the murder of his wife, which is going on in a rural village in Maine excites so much interest that a daily paper has been started for the purpose of reporting it. The court room has been crowded, chiefly ladies, who both young and old, bring knitting, crotchet and sewing work with them, so that the hall presents (aside from the trial) quite a busy appearance.

☞ The Ohio Cultivato, says, "large farms half tilled, have been the ruination of the west." The same remark would apply with equal force to other sections of the country.

SICKNESS.—The Piedmont (Va) Independent reports much sickness among children in that place. The prevailing complaints are measles and hooping-cough.

THE CLANDESTINE MARRIAGE.—End of the Romance.—The New York Herald of yesterday has the following finale to the Dean and Boker romance:

At seven o'clock last evening Mr. Bertholf, of the Supreme Court, according to the arrangement made on Monday, proceeded to the residence of Mr. Boker, in Twenty-second street, for the purpose of escorting the bride to her husband, who in company with his counsel, Mr. Spencer [illegible] awaiting her arrival at the [illegible] was then at [illegible] Little Jones st. house of Mr. Bertholf, in [illegible]

We will not attempt to describe the affecting scene that took place on the parting of the daughter from her father, mother and sister. It was a paiful one, indeed, and would have drawn tears even from Dean himself. Mrs. Dean bore herself with remarkable fortitude, and under the peculiarly distressing circumstances which surrounded the case showed herself a woman of no uncommon mould.

Dressed in a black satin dress, gray mantilla and black silk bonnet, with a reticule in her hand, she emerged from the home of her parents, and with Mr. Bertholf at her side, stepped into the carriage which had been drawn up in front of the house, for the purpose of conveying her to the arms of him for whom she had sacrificed so much. None of the young lady's relative's accompanied her to the door. No father, mother or sister bade her God speed, as the driver received the order to proceed on the journey. A few minutes after the occurrence of the scene just narrated, the carriage drove up in front of Mr. Bertholf's house and the occupants entered unobserved. Mrs. Dean immediately proceeded up stairs to the room of Mrs. Bertholf, there to compose her agitated feelings, which had overcome her during the drive from her father's house.

Young Dean was sitting in the parlor when his wife arrived, and when he heard her footsteps in the hall a close observer might detect excitement and nervousness strongly depicted in his countenance.—However, he did not make any outward manifestations of either joy or surprise; and when he was told that Mrs. Dean required a few moments to compose herself ere she proceeded further on her journey, he uttered a mechanical "Very well," and remained silent and thoughtful.

After an absence of half an hour the bride signified that she was ready to receive her husband, and Dean was conducted up stairs, where an affecting scene occurred between the pair. The meeting seemed to affect the young lady deeply, for it required half an hour's repose ere she was able to take her place in the carriage and proceed to the lodgings engaged by her husband. But the time passed quickly away, and at 9 o'clock a carriage containing a lady and gentleman, might have been seen emerging from Little Jones St., and, wending its way through Bleecher street towards Eighth avenue, was soon lost in the distance.

We understand that the newly married couple will spend a few days in this city, until the necessary preparations can be made for proceeding to the West. Dean intends going to Chicago, where he has a brother-in-law well to do in the world.

A QUANTITY OF LUMBER, consisting mostly of Hemlock Joist, Scantling, and boards, was taken away from Bells Ferry on the Susquehanna river opposite Port Deposit on the 10th of Febuary, during the great Ice Freshet, and remained for some time near Havre de Grace after which it went out with the Ice and is supposed to have drifted ashore mostly between Sassafras and Chester rivers. The Lumber was mostly in rafts one of which contained a small mixture of Chestnut. Any person having taken up any of the said Lumber will confer a favor by notifying us, and will be liberally rewarded for their trouble.

Maryland Appointments—The President Called to Lancaster by a Death in his Family.

Washington, March 26.—The Maryland appointments were to have been settled to-day in full, but no cabinet meeting was held in consequence of the sad news of the death of Mr. Lade, a nephew of the President. His Excellency, accompanied by his niece, a sister of deceased, will leave to-morrow morning to attend the funernal at Lancaster.

The appointment of Judge Mason as [illegible] Baltimore has been determined on for some time, and the rumor is untrue of his disposition now to decline.

Levi K. Powen, as naval officer, has been likewise designated for the same length of time.

The President also said to-day to persons interested for other candidates for surveyor than Dr. Findley, of Queen Anne's county, that he should give that office to the Eastern Shore. Thus those three appointments are concluded.

The selection of Dr. John Morris is also as positively fixed for the Baltimore post-office as the above, and I learn now he will accept it.

Gen. Thos. McKaig, of Cumberland, is a candidate for the mission to Austria, and is strongly urged. Gov Lowe it is said, also desires a mission. So also of James M. Buchanan and Henry May, both of whom are said to desire the Naples mission.

Steamer Burnt—Lives Lost.

Louisville, March 26.—The steamer Sultana was burnt to the water's edge last night below Hickman's Island, on the Mississippi river. Two persons were killed, and others on board jumped overboard and are supposed to have drowned.

Defaulter Arrested.

Philadelphia, March 26.—Nagenseller the defaulting Cashier of the New Castle Bank, wae arrested here yesterday and taken to Pittsburg last night.

☞ Edward Dowling of Baltimore was tried on Wednesday, in Baltimore county court for committing an assault with intent to kill officer Wm. L. Tayman. The jury after an absence of ten minutes, returned a verdict of "not guilty."
