LARGE ORDER PLACED FOR ELECTRIC LOCOMOTIVES

The Pennsylvania Railroad soon will place a $16,000,000 order for 150 electric locomotives of greater speed and unit power than any previously manufactured.

These locomotives are to be used between New York and Philadelphia and Washington. This new equipment will be part of the Pennsylvania's $100,000,000 electrification plan.

With the new locomotives, which will have a maximum speed of between 90 and 100 miles an hour, running time between New York and Washington may be cut from five to four hours or less.

WEDDING NOTES

The marriage of J. Olin Willis, of Philadelphia, and Miss Mildred Gordon, of Millington, was solemnized Thursday afternoon at 3.00 o'clock, at the Old Unicorn Mill Inn, Queen Anne's county.

The bride was gowned in white taffeta, picoted in silver, with veil to match. She wore silver pumps and hose, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. She was given away in marriage by her brother, Merritt Gordon, of Philadelphia. The maid of honor who was her only attendant was Miss Dorothy Taylor. She wore a white chiffon dress, with black hat, and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Two little flower girls also took part in the service.

The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Willis, of Centreville, is now living in Philadelphia and is connected with the Bell Telephone Company. His brother, Frank L. Willis, was his best man.

The marriage ceremony wos conducted by Rev.G.B.Garner, rector, of Massey and Millington parishes. Mrs. Frank W. Draper, Jr., sister of the groom played the wedding march.

The Inn was attractively decorated in autumn flowers and evergreens. A reception was held in the Inn immediately after the ceremony.

The bride and groom left for a wedding trip that evening. They will reside in Philadelphia. The bride's going away costume was brown chiffon velvet with coat and hat to match.

Mrs. Willis is the daughter of Mrs. Gordon, of near Millington, and the later Elmer Gordon. She has spent much time in Florida, and was graduated from Union Hospital, at St. Petersburg, Florida, as a nurse.

Mr. Willis is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Olin Willis, of Centreville, and for some time has held a responsible position with the Bell Telephone Company with offices in Chester, Pa.
