KENT CO. LOCAL NOTES

BETTERTON

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duffield have been spending several days in Philadelphia.

Among those at home for the Christmas holidays are: Misses Ruth ond Elizabeth Brice, of Washington College; Howard B. Owens, also of Washington College; Miss Sarah Harris, of Teachers' Training College, Fredericksburg, Va.; Talbott Brice, of University of Maryland.

Thomas Warram was found dead at his late home early Monday morning. The deceased hadn't been seen by friends since Friday. Neighbors became alarmed and forced the door when the body was found. Mr. Warram was one of our most industrious and respected citizens.

Lemuel Hickman, who has conducted a poultry farm near here for several years has sold out his business and gone to Philadelphia, where he expects to stay awhile with his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Transeau.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaith and daughter, Miss Virginia Busby, spent Sunday with Mrs. Vaith's sister, Mrs. Frank Young.

Mrs. Thomas Wilmer fell down a flight of stairs and badly sprained her back.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Owens and son, of Chestertown, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owens.

Prof. Charles Willis, of Annapolis, High School, is a holiday guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willis.

Mrs. Elwood Bramble and Mrs. Merritt Sutton were among visitors to Wilmington last week.

Prof. Horoce Wheeler, of Reistertown High School, is spending the vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wheeler.

A Seasonable Reminder

One-half of the work done in the world is done in the United States, according to a Columbia professor. The seasonal reminder: expectant youngsters hand to Santa Claus!

MILLINGTON

Miss Claudia Jeffers, of Chincoteague, Va., is spending two weeks with her sister and brother-in-law, Prof. and Mrs. Harry R. Rasin.

Miss Helen Ashley is spending the holidays at the home of her parents, in Rock Hall.

Miss Marie Vansant was a Christmas Day guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Ross, of Wilmington, Del.

Miss Clara Ballinger is enjoying a well-earned vacation at the home of her parents, near Elkton, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Blackiston and little daughter, Betty, spent the past week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Blackiston, of Double Creek.

Miss Mary E. Numbers, of Clarke School, Northampton, Mass., is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Numbers, during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Rasin, of Kennedyville, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. B. Kirby, of Chestertown, were dinner guests on Christmas Day of Prof. and Mrs. Harry R. Rasin.

Miss Martha Pennington, of Navesink, N. J., and James and Victor Pennington, of Baltimore, are visitors at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Liston Pennington.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred. C. Numbers, Jr., of the State School for Deaf, of Baton Rouge, La., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Numbers, during the holidays.

Suppose a neighbor should desire
To light a candle at your fire;
Would it deprive your flame of light
Because another profits by't.—Lloyd

The world is for the man who is able to put more butter on its bread.

The wholesome habit of speaking kindly, constructively, and charitably is fruitful both to one's own self and to others. Christian Science Sentinel.

ROCK HALL

Wesley Chapel had a good Sunday school attendance, a hundred and sixty-one, many of whom remained to hear a Christmas sermon by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Baxley. Rev. Baxley's class of men presented him with a gold fountain pen as a Christmas token. The children's cantata and distribution of gifts was held on Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock. The school has a new mahogany bookcase for storing the school supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Joyner started by motor for Florida last Saturday going by way of Cape Charles and the ferry. They were accompanied by Mrs. Joyner's daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sappington, of Waterbury, Conn., who arrived Thursday. Another night guest Thursday was another daughter, Mrs. V. A. Hunter of Baltimore. The tourists expect to reman in the South for a couple of months.

Karcher Witt is at home from Shenandoah Valley Academy for the two weeks holiday at Christmas with his parents, Capt. and Mrs. William Witt.

Miss Etta Coleman, student at Shenandoah Valley Academy, is spending the mid-winter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Coleman.

Evangelistic services at the M. E. Church closed Sunday night with one accession to the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Ashley have a fine son at their home in Skinner's Neck.

Mrs. Rose Newell, Miss Elizabeth Weaver, and Walter Weaver. Baltimore, is spending Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gesswein and Mrs. Anna Weaver.

Miss Elizabeth Leary from Goucher College, and George Leary, from Tome Institute are spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Leary.

Mrs. A. L. Hubbard is quite ill of a throat affection.

Mrs. Emory Hogans has been suffering for a week with pleurisy. She is improving.

Policeman (to motorists who nearly collided): "Don't you know that you should always give half of the road to a woman driver"

Motorist: "I always do when I find out which half of the road she wants."

KENT NEWS $1.50 PER YEAR.

DEATHS

Lee Milligan, 24, popular owner and fine manager of the Chestertown Baking Company died last Friday night in the Easton Hospital from blood poisoning resulting from a carbuncle on the back of his neck. Pneumonia, which set in as the poison spread over his body, hastened his death.

He is survived by his widow, a bride of about a year, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Milligan, of Hurlock, and two brothers, Ralph and Melvin Milligan.

Funeral services were held at the home of his parents in Hurlock on Monday, with the Rev. J. Harry Wright, pastor of the Chestertown F. E. Church, of which the deceased was an active member, officiating. The Rev. C. Fred Williams, pastor of the Franktown, Va., M. E. Church South, the clergymen who officiated at the wedding of the deceased, and the Rev. W. O. Bennett, pastor of the Hurlock M. E. Church, assisted with the services. Burial was in the Hurlock Cemetery.

It is understood here that the Chestertown Baking Company would continue in operation under the supervision of Ralph Milligan, who conducts a similar establishment in Hurlock. Mrs. Milligan, the widow it is said, will return to Franktown Va., her native town, and reside there with her parents. She was Miss Mary Foxx and has many friends here.

R. L. W. Crouch, 76, died in Baltimore last Saturday, December 20. He is survived by the following children: Richard T. Crouch, J. Lemuel Crouch, Mrs. John Glenn, Mrs. C. A. Ashley, Mrs. J. Frank Price, Sterling Crouch, John C. Crouch and Mrs. George Kendall. He also leaves a brother, J. Romie, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Bryden, besides 23 grand children and 9 great grand children.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 P. M., from the Piney Neck Church. The Rev. Mr. Barrett officiated and C. L. Dodd was the undertaker. Interment was made in Wesley Chapel Cemetery. The bearers were his four sons, Richard T., J. Lemuel, Sterling and John C. Crouch, John Glenn and George Kendall.

Miss M. Julia Thompson died Dec. 25, 1930, of pneumonia, at the residence of her niece, Clorinda Merritt Graff, 1413 Carswell street, Baltimore. She was the daughter of the late George H. and Clorinda Thompson, of Kent county. She leaves a brother, Jacob F. Thompson, and a sister, Mrs. Ella Merritt, of Baltimore county. The funeral will take place from the above residence this Saturday afternon at 2.30 o'clock, interment in Oak Lawn Cemetery.

The deceased at one time occupied the position of teacher in the public school in Chestertown. She was known far and near as one of the sweetest singers in the music world and her services were in great demany. She was a member of Christ M. P. Church when residing here and no service was ever too much for her to render to its interests. She was a beautiful character and carried about with her those christian graces which add to the cause of christianity and make His name better known among mankind.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Matilda Sherwood, whose death occurred in Westminster, took place last Saturday at the home of her niece, Mrs. George H. Cannan. Dr. E. A. Sexsmith and Rev. Lee Marker officiated.

The deceased was the wife of the late William N. Sherwood, aged 82, and had spent the greater part of her life in Kent county. During her long residence in Chestertown, she was an active member of Christ M.P. Church. She was the mother of the late Rev. William N. Sherwood, at one time pastor of First M. P. Church, Wilmington. She is survived by two brothers, J. Frank Wheatley and William A. Wheatley, of Chestertown. She also leaves a number of nephews and nieces living.

The bearers were J. Frank Wheatley, Joseph N. Wheatley, C. Frank Wheatley, Walter T. Pippin, Charles F. Wheatley and Fred. G. Usilton.

Andrew Downie, for many years owner of Downie Bros. Circus and other shows, died at his home in Medina, N. Y., on Wednesday n[illegible] at 10.30 o'clock after a lingerin[illegible] ness of several months. Mr. Do[illegible] was well known in Havre de Gra[illegible] where he lived for several months each year when he kept his circus in winter quarters.

He sold the show in April to James Heron and in September Charles Sparks purchased it from Mr. Heron.

Mr. Downie was perhaps the best known showman in the country.

Died on December 20, 1930, Mary Blackiston Wilmer, beloved wife of the late Thomas J. Mann and mother of William B. Mann and Medford B. Mann, of Baltimore, formerly of Chestertown. Funeral took place on Tuesday at 6.30 A. M. Services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Kent county, at 10.30 A. M., Tuesday, interment in St. Paul's Cemetery. She leaves a sister, Miss Alice Wilmer, and a number of nieces and nephews.

J. F. Elliott, one of Ridgeley's highly respected citizens, died Friday morning at 7 o'clock at his home after a long illness of heart trouble. The deceased had been employed as bookkeeper for C. D. Lynch for the past three years. He was a fi[illegible] christian gentleman and a citizen of the community highly respected by everyone.

Mr. Elliott was born and reared in Queen Anne's county, and there remained until he moved to Wilmington many years ago, where he was employed as a bookkeeper for a prominent commission merchant firm. Leaving there he located in Rid[illegible] where he had been a resider[illegible] long time. Besides his [illegible] survived by one sis[illegible] Brown, of Price's, a[illegible] William Elliott, of Ch[illegible] eral services were h[illegible] home Monday afterno[illegible] terment at Church Hi[illegible]

Dr[illegible] yea[illegible] cou[illegible] the [illegible] mor[illegible] Herl[illegible] ber [illegible] other [illegible] broth[illegible] ton P[illegible] sister [illegible] Germa[illegible]

The [illegible] town T[illegible] eral hom[illegible] dertaker. [illegible] Wednesday [illegible] E. Perkins [illegible] terment i[illegible] Harry [illegible] and [illegible] take[illegible]

F[illegible] mo[illegible] P. [illegible] St. P[illegible] Monday [illegible] he was tak[illegible] hospital [illegible] from the ho[illegible] daughter, [illegible] Mary Smallwo[illegible] King street, Wilmington. [illegible]

He was a retired farmer [illegible] born and reared in Kent couge[illegible] Mr. Williams was the son o[illegible] Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Williamb[illegible] viving him are his daughool[illegible] Smallwood; five grand chi[illegible] seven great grand children[illegible]

The funeral was held [illegible] parlors of Harvey T. Fariew [illegible] at 2 o'clock on Friday aft[illegible] the [illegible]

Thomas J. M. Warram [illegible] suddenly at his home in [illegible] his 69th year. Mr. War[illegible] highly respected resident [illegible] sided here many years. [illegible] worker. His word was h[illegible] will be missed owing to [illegible] many vocations he followed. [illegible] a member of the Seven Da[illegible] tist Church of Baltimore [illegible] years.

H[illegible] is survived by his wid[illegible] Mrs. Adella Harrison, o[illegible] one brother, William [illegible] Washington, D. C. Tw[illegible] Mrs. Ruth O. Bradley, [illegible] urence Luci, of Philade[illegible] sons, Norman Ray W[illegible] [illegible]rvel O. Warram, Granvil G. [illegible] ram, of Betterton.

Funeral services were held [illegible] home Wednesday afternoon at [illegible] M., Rev. J. C. Oswald, of Wilmin[illegible] officiated. Interment Still Pond [illegible] etery; B. R. Fellows, undertaker; [illegible] bearers were William Crew, Wil[illegible] T. Turner, Lotan Rasin, John B[illegible] Walter Brice, Charley Brice.

Mrs. Martha J. Harrison, 84, w[illegible] of the late William H. Harrison, [illegible] at her late home in Rock Hall [illegible] day, December 21st. Funeral serv[illegible] were held from her late home T[illegible] day, at 11 A. M., with interme[illegible] Wesley Chapel Cemetery. Rev. J[illegible] Baxley officiated, C. L. Dodd, ur[illegible] taker. The deceased is survive[illegible] one sister, Mrs. Sarah A. Maslin. [illegible] bearers were Walter H. Hada[illegible] Marion T. Miller, William Le[illegible] Noble Moffett, Wilbur Joiner, Tho[illegible] Ringgold.

Mrs. Kate Kibler Newnam, w[illegible] of W. Harrison Newnam, died [illegible] nesday at her home, 2206 Ch[illegible] road, Mount Washington. Bu[illegible] be in Druid Ridge Ceme[illegible]

Surviving Mrs. Ne[illegible] daughters, Mr[illegible] and Miss [illegible] timo[illegible] o[illegible]

Wm. Medders & Co. 'Keeping A Better Store' Still Pond, Md

We make FREE DELIVERY via ERICSSON TRUCK to your town.

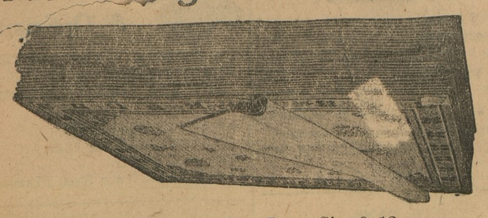
We Begin Our 'JANUARY SALE' Next Week!

Many New Things For The "HOME" Will Be Needed In The New Year.

Best 50c Window Curtains now 35c

Best 75c Window Curtains now 50c

New Rugs All Reduced

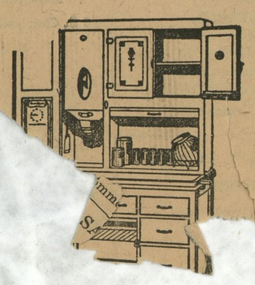


Smith's Axminster, full seamless Rus. Size 9x12. $40.00 value $29.50
The $25.00 Body Brussels Rugs. On sale $19.50
The $18.00 New Art Rugs. Pretty Colors $14.50
The $17.50 Rattan Rugs. All New Patterns $12.50
The New "Gold Stal" Congoleum Rugs. Size 9x12 ..... $8.50

$7.85  $9.85

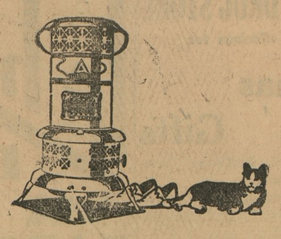
The $10.00 Rockers are now 7.85
The $12.50 Rockers are now $9.85

KITCHEN CABINETS AT LOWER PRICES .....



MADE STRONG VERY CONVENIENT

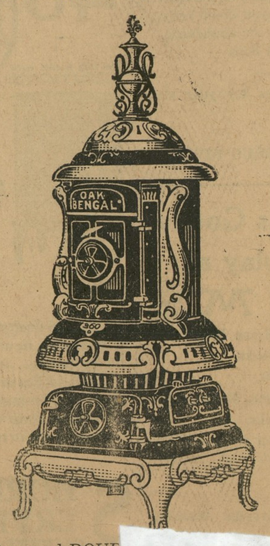
OIL HEATERS ALL REDUCED



The $6.00 Oil Heaters now $4.95
The $7.50 Oil Heaters now $5.95

THE NEW BENGAL DOUBLE HEATERS

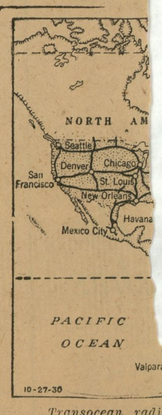
THE KIND THAT HEAT



THEY WORK LIKE A FURNACE

If you want a good DOUB[illegible] you grand service at little cost, con[illegible] These $50.00 Double He[illegible]

Radio [illegible] Fr[illegible]



Transocean radio te[illegible]

Australia is the latest coun[illegible] connected with the United St[illegible] and the principal cities [illegible]

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_26_1-0010