MRS. HODGSON INJURED HERE

Mrs. Mary T. Hodgson is in Easton Hospital suffering from a broken leg having received the injury while standing on the High street curb in Chestertown Tuesday night.

It was about 11 o'clock when the accident occurred and in which three automobiles figured, but no one in the cars was injured.

Mrs. Hodgson, who is serving as a nurse for Mrs. Willis at the home of Harry C. Coleman, teller of the Kent County Savings Bank, had alighted from Howard C. Jones' automobile on the opposite side of the street from the Coleman home after attending the musical comedy, "Meet The Prince," presented for the benefit of the Kent County Health Association. She was standing on or near the curb waiting for traffic to lighten in order to cross to the Coleman home.

An automobile driven by Miss Helen Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank W. Smith, of Fairlee, going north on High street and an automobile driven by Rev. Thomas Butler, colored, of Ridgely, going south on High street, collided. The front of the Smith machine crashed into the colored man's car near where Mrs. Hodgson was standing, the rear of the Smith machine swerving around and striking Mrs. Hodgson. She was thrown violently to the ground and injured. After first aid by local physicians she was sent to the Easton hospital.

In the machine with Miss Smith was her brother, Wilmer. Both escaped injury as did the colored driver of the third car. At a hearing held before Justice Stafford Wednesday afternoon bothdrivers of cars were exonerated of blame.

Meet The Prince A Great Success

The Wheeler Producing Company of Wilmington, scored another success in Chestertown Tuesday and Wednesday evenings when they presented "Meet the Prince," a musical farce, for benefit of the Kent County Health Association. Local talent took their parts finely and greatly pleased the splendid audiences each night. The list of participants were published last week.

As a special added attraction the children of Chestertown presented "The Bouquet," prior to the opening of the musical comedy. Mary Emma Chaires, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Bates Chaires, was featured in the children's number with a song, "A Big Bouquet For You."

Music was furnished by Ed Luckey's orchestra. Mrs. D. B. Ford and Mrs. Mary Covey Griffith were the accompanists and Dr. Fred G. Livingood was the violinist.

Next week will witness the coming of the favorites, Nancy Carroll and Charles Rogers in "Follow Thru" at the New Lyceum Theatre.

TREASURER'S WIFE INJURED

Mrs. Elizabeth Newsome, wife of County Treasurer Clarence Newsome, is in a Baltimore hospital suffering from injuries sustained in an automobile accident near North East, Cecil county, Saturday afternoon.

It was believed that she had sustained a fractured hip, but it was found that no bones were broken.

Treasurer Newsome and wife, accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Newsome, of Chestertown and his nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith, of Betterton, were returning to their homes.

As they neared North East a large truck driving in front of the Newsome car suddenly stopped, causing the Newsome car to crash into the rear of the truck. The Newsome car was upset, but not seriously damaged The other occupants of the car escaped with slight bruises.

Less than one-tenth of a point separated Turner's Creek School and Janvier School in the race for attendance honors for October in Kent county. Turner's Creek, taught by Miss Ann Welch, led the Kent schools with 98.9 minus and Janvier, taught by Miss Frances Orr, was second, with a percentage of 98.8 plus.

Rock Hall High School led the county schools of that group with an average of 95.3 while the Chestertown High School continued to set a fast pace with an average of 95.1.

NOLAND'S TOYLAND ANNEX

Noland, the Chestertown merchant has leased the old Chestertown Bank building on the Main street and in a few days will turn it into a jolly Toyland. It will be run in connection with his other store.

TWO DAY HOLIDAY
FOR KENT SCHOOLS

Kent county teachers and pupils will enjoy a two-day holiday next week to observe Thanksgiving.

Schools will close Wednesday afternoon and not re-open again until the following Monday morning. In numerous institutions special Thanksgiving Day programs will be rendered in celebration of the occasion.

On Thanksgiving Day all banks and numerous business houses will be closed.

WARRAM KILLED BY BIG TRUCK

Thomas Warram, 50, a painter in Betterton, was fatally injured late Friday afternoon in an automobile accident on the State Road near that town.

Mr. Warram was standing on the edge of the State Road to the rear of his automobile, and failed to notice the truck from the opposite direction. The truck was driven by Earl Meeks, of Still Pond.

The rear of the truck struck Mr. Warram, throwing him violently to the road. He was taken to the Easton Hospital, but died shortly after being admitted. Dr. Louis P. Atwell, of Still Pond, rendered first aid before he was taken to the hospital.

Mr. Warram leaves a widow and several children. Coroner Harry L. Dodd, of this town, investigated the accident. After a thorough search into the circumstances the jury exonerated the truck driver and rendered a verdict of accidental death.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT

Four gunners were fined $20 and costs, each, by Magistrate Olin B. Stafford on Wednesday for shooting in Kent county without a resident license. They were William H. Dana, 1505 Race street, Philadelphia; Alvin Kuhn, H. C. Seems and H. S. Mayhorn, the last three living between Millington, Md., and Smyrna, Del. on the Maryland side of the State line. Deputy Game Warden John E. Squires arrested the men near Millington while they were hunting game.

Albert Dashiells, son of the Rev. Clarence Dashiells, Negro preacher of Melitota, was fined $100 or three months in jail after he had started a fist fight in his father's church during a service. He is alleged to have struck another colored youth with whom he had had a quarrel.

Warrants are out for a number of Hungarian farmers who till a tract of land between Millington and the Delaware line. It is alleged a general free-for-all fight ensued following a quarrel among several of the foreign tillers of the soil. Several of them will be brought before Magistrate Stafford by Sheriff J. Thomas Hadaway this week.

Wallace Cann, a well-known Chestertown colored man, was given three months in the Maryland House of Correction for stabbing Mildred Jones with a knife.

BOYS' WORK COMMITTEE

The Chestertown Rotary Club at their weekly meeting last Monday contributed a total of $40 to start a shelf of books for boys in the Chestertown Public Library to be known as the "Chestertown Rotary Club Book Shelf for Boys." In addition to the initial contribution one book will be purchased each month and added to the shelf.

The plan for furnishing the local youths with more reading material was suggested some weeks ago by the Boys' Work Committee of the local club of which James W. Johns is chairman and Rollison Baxter and Stephen R. Collins the other members.

At the meeting of the club next Monday evening a Thanksgiving program will be presented with the Rev. J. L. Marker, of St. James Methodist Protestant Church, this county, as the principal speaker.

Will Walters, colored, lost his appeal to the Court of Appeals and will be taken to penitentiary to serve his sentence of 5 years in a few days.

Kent county citizens surely have lots for which to be thankful.

Even in the drought the water supply has held out and storms have kept away from this section.

CHESTERTOWN BOOTS
WAY TO KENT TITLE

Chestertown High School won the second and deciding soccer game for the championship of Kent county here under a 12 to 0 score. The visitors were no match for the heavy team work of the well coached local highlets who time and again pushed the sphere within striking distance of the enemy goal where the forwards booted or headed it between the posts. Eddie Harris was the star, ably assisted by the remainder of the team who gave a splendid exhibition of team work. The Rock Hall defense was wabbly and could not get going Chestertown will play the Cecil county champs in one of the elimination settos for the Eastern Shore and State titles. Lineup:

Chestertown	Position	Rock Hall
Brooks	goal	Hirsch
Chaires	right fullback	J. McCubbin
Briscoe	left fullback	Parsons
Nicholson	right halfback	Thompson
Rees	left halfback	Donnelley
Johns	center halfback	D. McCubbin
Brice	right wing	Sewell
Hopkins	right inside	McCrea
Harris	left wing	Ashley
Reinhardt	left inside	Rodney
Williams	center forward	Jacquette

Referee: Rayme, Washington College.
Goals: Harris, 2; Reinhardt, Williams.
Wright. Substitutions: Chestertown—Wright, Wallace. Rock Hall—Myers,
Referee: Rayme, Washington College.

A third game between field ball players of Chestertown and Rock Hall will be necessary before the Kent county title is decided, following a scoreless tie Thursday. The first tilt a week ago was won by Rock Hall. Lineup:

Chestertown	Position	Rock Hall
	goal	Atkinson
Harris	right fullback	Downey
Leaverton	right halfback	Leary
Ryan	left halfback	Moffett
Malin	center halfback	Hatcherson
Pyle	right wing	Jacquette
Jewell	right inside	DeFord
Ford	left wing	Parsons
Davis	center forward	Dwyer

Referee: Rayne, Washington, College

The second of a five-game series of field hockey tilts between the Senior-Freshman and Junior-Sophomore teams of Washington College co-eds was a stalemate here each tallying one goal. The Senior-Frosh score came late in the second period with Gert Magill, former South Jersey star, passed to Ann Kreeger, of Chestertown who scored. Elizabeth Brice, of Betterton, made the Junior-Soph tally early in the first period. Following the series the varsity hockey team will be chosen.

Howard B. Owens has been elected president of a newly organized golf association at Washington College. Other officers chosen are William H. Dnneburg, vice-president; Edwin T. Coulbourn, secretary-treasurer; Edward Luckey, chairman of the rules committee, and Virgil Beauchamp, chairman of the equipment committee. The five-hole course in use for the last two years is being continued under the new regime.

Two matches remain in the annual fall handicap match play tourney on the Chester River Country Club golf course for a leg on the President's cup, W. J. Stenger, the club champion, and James W. Johns are to meet in the finals of the upper bracket and the winner will meet Simon W. Westcott in the finals. Westcott swept through the opposition to win in the lower bracket. The winner of the last match will be entitled to one leg on the cup offered by President Stephen R. Collins, of the club. The first player to win three legs gains permanent possession.

The wild duck gunners have been having fine sport the past week. The bag limit has been the rule at Cedar Point, Ringgold's Point and at the Kent Island ducking shore.

Rabbits and birds are reported to be scarce.

Four Queen Anne's county sportsmen next Thursday evening will leave on a 700-mile jaunt into the heart of the deer and wild-goose hunting country of North Carolina. They are J. Olin Poppin and Dr. J. W. Crowl, of Centreville, and Walter Downey and James F. White, of Sudlersville

They will motor to Manteo, North Carolina, 350 miles from Centreville. On Saturday they will hunt deer and the following week will devote their time to goose hunting. Manteo is in the heart of the most famous deer and wild-goose huning country in the world. For many years E. Carville Tolson, of Kent Island, has made annual visits to the Monteo regions and always has found abundance of game. Last year Mr. Pippin and Mr. Crowl also hunted in the same neighborhood.

The only crime now punishable by death is pedestrianism.

SUSQUEHANNA WINS
OVER WASHINGTON

A series of long punts by Gainer, of the Washington College football team, coupled with determined defensive work by the Maroon and Black line was largely responsible for holding Susquehanna University to a 13-to-0 victory here Saturday after the Keystone State outfit had taken the offensive in the first period and on a series of the plunges had sent Glenn over the line for the first tally. Moser dropkicked for the extra point.

The final touchdown for the Selins Grove eleven came as the last period opened and Moser went over following sveral plays through tackle and around both ends. A pass from Moser to Scott failed to tally the extra point.

Both teams fell down on the offense and missed several opportunities to score. While pass after pass attempted by the visitors were grounded, Washington in turn failed to take advantage of openings in the line and the interference bogged down considerably at crucial moments.

The tilt was played on a muddy field and players could neither keep their feet nor hold the ball.

The annual gridiron battle between the Sophomore and Freshman teams, usually witnessed by hundreds of students and townfolk and one of the colorful sports contests of the year at Washington College, will be staged November 24, with the abolition of freshman rules at stake. The two elevens are going through daily drills. No wearer of the varsity letter will be allowed to play and several sophomore players will thus be eliminated Last year the freshmen won and the new ruling makes them favorites again this year.

Local baseball teams are being talked of for Church Hill and Chestertown. These towns will have to go some to beat Galena and Kennedyville.

Coaches Kibler and Crothers of the Washington College football squad have done well with the material at hand. With more athletes to play football Washington College will win games. Otherwise we will continue as in past few years.

Other Colleges, like Western Maryland, St. Johns and Maryland, go after football players and hence they have winning football teams. We can do likewise.

The Turkey Point Ducking Club on Kent Island, owned by Chestertown Sudlersville and Millington sportsmen. is surpassing all other clubs on Chester river in the number of ducks killed during the season. There has not been a shooting day since the opening of the season Nov. 1st that from six to eleven of the club members and guests have not killed the bag limit of 15 ducks after a few hours' shooting. Thousands of ducks crowd the feeding grounds and they are remaining there because conditions for feeding seem to be more enenticing than at most of the other shores along the river. Monday proved to be one of the best shooting days of the season, when 11 gunners bagged the limit by 8 A. M. No wild geese have been killed yet because weather conditions have been too warm.

"Jimmie Foxx," star first baseman and home run hitter of Connie Mack's Athletics, is spending this week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Foxx, at Sudlersville, where he is enjoying several days gunning.

Jimmie has "Bing" Miller, also of Athletic fame, and R. V. Ohl, secretary of the club, and Messrs. Fred and Earle Ohl, as his guests. They secured their licenses to gun in the county at the Clerk's office in Centreville.

Last week one crab house in St. Michaels made public its figures for the season, and they showed that 1,301,365 pounds of crabs were bought from Talbot crabbers since last May. An inspector was there last week and stated that these figures are probably the largest for any one house in the State. Figures are not available for the entire county, but it is believed that there are other houses in the county who have purchased very close to the above amount, not to mention the smaller houses.

It is currently reported that Miss Marian Caldwell will succeed Wm. A. Wheatley as clerk to the County Commissioners.
