INTERNATIONAL GOODWILL CONGRESS

Experts to Discuss Methods of Securing World Peace at Washington Meeting.

Forty speakers of national reputation, all of them expert on international problems, will address the Fifteenth Annual Conference and Goodwill Congress of the World Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches, to be held in Washington, on November 10, 11, and 12. An address by President Hoover on Armistice Day; a Banquet at which Ambassadors and Ministers from foreign countries will be the principal guests; Round Table discussions led by authorities on international relationships; sermons in the Churches and other religious societies in Washington by visiting delegates, will be some of the main features of the Congress.

Among the speakers will be: Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, former Ambassador to Germany; Dr. James T. Shotwell, Professor of History, Columbia University; President Mary E. Woolley, Mount Holyoke College; Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, former Prime Minister of Canada; Justice Florence Allen, Supreme Court of Ohio; Colonel Raymond Robins of Florida; Alanson B. Houghton, former Ambassador to Germany and Great Britain; Dr. John R. Mott, Chairman, World's Committee of the Y. M. C. A.; Professor Parker T. Moon, Columbia University; Dr. Chester H. Rowell, Publicist, California; Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C.; C. C. Wu, Minister of the Chinese Republic; President Robert E. Moton, Tuskeegee College; General John F. O'Ryan of New York; Dr. S. Parkes Cadman of New York; Dr. Fred B. Smith, Moderator National Congregational Churches; Dr. Henry A. Atkinson, General Secretary, World Alliance for International Friendship; Dr. William P. Merrill, Brick Presbyterian Church, New York City; Dr. Joseph Fort Newton, Memorial Church of Saint Paul, Overbrook, Pennsylvania; President Donald J. Cowling, Carleton College, Minnesota; and Dr. James I. Vance of Nashville.

The major subjects to be discussed are as follows: Reduction of Armament; Permanent Court of International Justice; Far East Issues; America's Inter-racial and International Problems; The World Situation and Student Leadership; Essentials of International Goodwill; World Conference for International Peace through Religion; and Unfinished Legislative Tasks.

The meeting on Armistice Day, which is to be addressed by President Hoover, will be held in the Washington Auditorium at 10.00 A. M. The United States Marine Band will play. At 9.00 o'clock at Arlington Cemetery, a special service will be held, Dr. James I. Vance of Nashville presiding. Professor Parker T. Moon will make the principal address.

"Carry on with the Pact" will be the main theme of the Congress. The Washington headquarters of the General Committee of Arrangements, of which Clarence A. Aspinwall is Chairman, will be at the Willard Hotel where the sessions of the Congress will take place. The public is invited to attend these meetings.

Speakers at Goodwill Congress

Some of the speakers at the Goodwill Congress of the World Alliance for International Friendship to be held in Washington, D. C., November 10-12 inclusive, 1930. Left to right:

First Row: Alanson B. Houghton, former Ambassador to Germany and Great Britain; President Herbert Hoover; Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, former Ambassador to Germany.

Second Row: Justice Florence Allen, Supreme Court of Ohio; Dr. Henry A. Atkinson, General Secretary of the World Alliance for International Friendship; President Mary E. Woolley, Mount Holyoke College.

Third Row: Major General John F. O'Ryan; Dr. James T. Shotwell, Professor of History, Columbia University; Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, Pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C.

LIBERTY OF DISCUSSION AT GOODWILL CONGRESS

"A great crisis faces America in its international relationships," declared Dr. Fred B. Smith, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the World Alliance for International Friendship in announcing the International Goodwill Congress to be held in Washington November 10, 11, and 12.

"The opponents of the Reduction of Armament and the World Court are making a strenuous fight in the political field and through general publicity methods, in order to create feeling against them. To have these measures go down in defeat at this time would be disheartening to the friends of international goodwill in every land.

"The Congress of the World Alliance will major on these two great questions. Leaders in the world of religion, education, industry, journalism, and social welfare, will discuss their various aspects. The Congress will be addressed by outstanding authorities. An invitation to attend this Congress is extended to all friends of international goodwill — representatives of city, town, and community religious organizations, to representatives of Church Boards, and affiliated organizations, to representatives of civic, social and fraternal bodies.

"The utmost liberty of utterance at the Congress is encouraged. The program is planned not only to present the conditions throughout the world, but to promote constructive methods for developing international goodwill. The officers and Executive Committee of the World Alliance do not expect to be in complete agreement in all cases with all the views expressed at the Congress but they accord the largest liberty to all."

WORLD ALLIANCE ORGANIZED IN THIRTY-TWO NATIONS

The World Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches, under whose auspices the Goodwill Congress is to be held in Washington, November 10, 11, and 12, is organized in thirty-two different countries, the meeting in Washington being held under the direction of the American Committee, of which Dr. William P. Merrill of New York is Chairman, Dr. H. A. Atkinson, General Secretary, and Dr. Fred B. Smith, Chairman of the Executive Committee.

The Alliance welcomes to its membership men and women of all re-

Relic of Old Rome

A Roman milestone bearing the name of Caesar Augustus was discovered in Italy at Levante di Diana Marina, along the ancient Via Aurelia not far from the frontier station of Ventimiglia. The milestone marked the 553d mile from Rome, and has this number cut on it in Roman numerals. Experts say the milestone belonged to the old military road which ran from Rome to Gaul.

Tidal Computation

"Establishment of a port" is the technical term for the time that elapses between the moon's transit across the meridian at new or full moon and the time of high water at that place, and is used as a basis for the computation of the tides.

STUDENT HEALTH SERVICE FORMED

The Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College has established a department of Student Health Service at the college. President Paul E. Titsworth stated that the department is now in operation under the direction of Dr. Ralph G. Beachley, resident Deputy State program as outlined by Dr. Beachley includes a physical examination for every student at the college, and for those in whom any physical defects are found, a second examination will be given during the next semester. Maids and cooks at the college will be required to undergo physical examinations.

Dr. Beachley plans to give a series of health lectures during the Fall and Winter months to the entire student body, and he will be assisted in his examinations by Mrs. Allen Willson, newly appointed matron and nurse of Reid Hall, the girls' dormitory. The establishment of the health course at the college has been adopted by the authorities as a means of preventing outbreaks of infectious or contagious diseases which frequently interrupt the college classes at all colleges and also to provide the students with opportunities for keeping in fit physical condition during their college careers. The establishment of the course entitles the college to membership in the American Student Health Association which is composed of more than 100. American universities and colleges. Washington College will send representatives to the annual meeting of the association to be held in New York City, December 29 and 30.

Foolscap

Paper in sheets 13 by 16 or 17 inches was watermarked, by old-time paper makers, with a fools' cap and bells. Hence the name. Why it was so marked is something else again. One account states that in the Cromwellian days, after the monarchy had been overthrown and the royal paper monopolies set aside, the foolscap watermark was ordered into the paper by parliament, in place of the royal arms, as a token of derision.
