GOV. RITCHIE AT OCEAN CITY

Gov. Ritchie will spend this week-end at Ocean City, Md., and will be glad to see any Eastern Shore people who are in or near that resort at that time.

ALL CAPABLE MEN

The men named as candidates on the Democratic Harmony ticket are capable, efficient and truthworthy. They are also loyal members of the party and interested in its success locally, in State and in Nation. These candidates as they appear on the ticket are as follows:

For Treasurer—H. Stockton Startt. A man who is favorably known from one end of the county to the other. He is interested in the farmer, waterman and all the avenues of business He is a director of the Third National Bank, member of St. James M. P. Church and active in all civic affairs. that have for their aim progress. He will fill the office to which he aspires with ability and we urge all Democrats to make an X mark opposite his name.

For Sheriff—Robert E. Lee. A candidate who has a special attraction to those citizens who demand prompt service. Born in 1902 on the Decorse farm, near Chestertown, of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lee, he went to school at Fancy and Morgnec working on a farm whenever possible. He was deputy sheriff under Sheriff Goodman for a year and then under Sheriff Hadaway. He married Miss Hadaway in 1927. He has five brothers all of whom belong to the Democratic party and men of high character. He is an estimable candidate, industrious, intelligent, couragous, sober and well equipped to fill the office of sheriff.

For County Commissioners—Samuel C. Loller, of Worton; Leonard Wilson Millington; Charles D. Wood, of Rock Hall. These three men know the needs of Kent's citizens, one being a merchant while the other two are farmers. They are easily approached and will listen to the needs of the people. They are aggressive, experienced, intelligent and capable of managing the affairs of the office in an economical manner.

VOTE FOR THESE FIVE MEN.

COUNTY DROUGHT COMMITTEE

At a meeting of the Maryland State Drought Committee held in Baltimore Friday the following committee was named for Kent county: Hon. S. Scott Beck, President Chestertown Bank of Maryland; Fred. G. Usilton, President Kent County Savings Bank; Linwood A. Sutton, Chestertown; E. Thomas Massey, Massey; J. D. McVean, County Agent. A meeting of this committee will be called as soon as possible and various matters will be considered relating to conditions in Kent and recommendations made to the State Committee.

The followig interesting letter is from a "fighting woman farmer, Annapolis":

I am a farmer and I have several tenants and myself to consider. The President, the Governor and others high in authority are endeavoring to perfect a plan for farm relief.

This is fine, but I am wondering if any of these gentlemen have been farmers, and if they have little of this world's goods. If so, surely they will see that it will be only an extra burden to accept help which involves the payment of interest on borrowed money.

I shall get work now, and better yet, shall shut down and shall not sell this year what little I have to sell. If every farmer will do this, our produce will sell high.

We farmers can live. We had better live on very much less for several years than to face a loan debt. Let us remember what we did without during the World War. Didn't we live on half we have been spending recently, and were we worse off for doing so?

We have no assurance that next year there will not be another drought or destructive storms. Only stand firm now and do without. Don't borrow, never make bills. We farmers are not cowards. All work together and the end will be peace. Let us trust in our Father in Heaven and not in the bankers. We can fight our own way out without begging help from the money lenders.

Senator Dudley G. Roe president of Sudlersville Bank of Maryland and William McKenney, a member of the Board of Directors of the Centreville National Bank, constitute the Queen Anne's County members of the committee named by Governor Ritchie to consider the question of credit of farmers who have been badly hit by the drought. County committees will arrange meetings.

There were about 300 new voters registered Tuesday in Kent. Among them were three colored women who affiliated as Democrats in order to vote for favorite candidate for sheriff.

Next Monday is Primary Election Day. Do your duty by voting.

MAKE FIVE MARKS

There are only 5 marks required to vote the full Harmony ticket next Monday, Sept 8th, as follows:

REPUBLICANS' TICKET

Kent County Republicans met in the Old Lyceum Wednesday afternoon and named a full ticket for the election this Fall. It was a harmonois gathering. The convention was called by Robert R. Hill, chairman of the State Central Committee, where no candidates had filed prior to the primary except for the office of sheriff.

Chairman Hill served also as permanent chairman. Owen C. Smith was secretary.

The following ticket was unanimously nominated by the convention:

For Senator — Henry Brown, of Quaker Neck. He was elected Senator in 1915.

House of Delegates — John S. Owens Betterton, and George W Downey, Rock Hall.

Clerk of the Court — Olin Davis Galena.

Register of Wills—Dr. Frank W Smith, Fairlee,

Sheriff—John M. Vickers, Lankford.

County Treasurer — George Williams, Worton.

County Commissioners—Harry Willis, Betterton; D. W. Ingersoll, Pomona; Daniel W. Hill, Kennedyville.

Judges of Orphans' Court—Fred C Numbers, Millington; M. Wilbur Thomas, Chestertown; John C. Davis Chestertown.

Delegates to State Convention—A Parks Rasin, Charles N. Satterfield Marshall Russell.

State Central Committee—Olin S. Davis, John C. Davis, John T. Stryckling.
