DEMOCRATS FILE

All efforts of leaders of the Democratic party in this county to prevent a primary contest on September 8 for the various county offices to be filled at the November election have failed because of the inauguration of an indpendent movemen among certain members of the party who have announced candidates for county treasurer, sheriff, and three members of the Board of County Commissioners.

Besides, three other candidates have filed their certificates for nomination for sheriff, and one for county treasurer, making five candidates for sheriff, and three for treasurer, accoring to lists filed with the Board of Supervisors of Elections.

The following candidates of the People's Democratic ticket filed: County Treasurer — William H. McKee, Chestertown; Sheriff — George W. Carter, Jr., Worton; County Commisisoners—J. Aubrey Faucett, Pomona; Robert W. Johnson, Galena; Harry M. Stavely, Fairlee.

The following independent Democratic candidates have also filed; Harvey B. Moore, Betterton, county treasurer; George W. Townsend, Pomona, Charles W. Carter, Rock Hall, and Edgar M. Clark, Chestertown sheriff.

The candidates who had filed with the Supervisors of Election for Kent County are:

DEMOCRAT

Governor—Albert C. Ritchie.
Attorney-General—T. H. Robinson.
Comptroller—W. S. Gordy.
Clerk of Court Appeals—James A. Young.
Congress—T. Alan Goldsborough.
Clerk of Court Appeals—James A. Young.
Judge Orphans Court—Edward A. Scott, J. H. Thompson, James H. Groves.
Senate—S. Scott Beck.
Delegates—Arthur H. Brice, E. C. Bowers.
Treasurer—H. S. Startt, W. H. McKee, Harvey B. Moore.
Sheriff—Robert E. Lee, George W. Townsend, Charles W. Carter, Edgar M. Clark, George W. Carter.
Clerk of Court—R. A. Shallcross.
States Attorney—S. R. Collins.
County Commissioners—Leonard Wilson, S. G. Loller, Charles D. Wood, J. A. Fawcett, R. W. Johnson, H. M. Stavely.
Register Wills—Merritt Brice.
State Central Committee—Jennie B. Whaland, Mary Strong Massey, Ella M. Thomas, Elmer S. Jarman, George R. Rasin, Charles F. Wheatley.
Delegates State Convention—Theodore J. Thompson, C. M. Melvin, C. L. Dodd.

REPUBLICAN

Governor—William F. Broening.
Attorney General—David A. Robb.
Comptroller—W. Newton Jackson.
Clerk of Court Appeals—Charles S. Warner.
Congress—A. Stengle Marine, Jerome D. Jefferson.
Sheriff—John T. Vickers.
Delegates to State Convention—A. Parks Rasin, John S. Owens, Charles N. Satterfield, Ralph Williams, Stewart Dorsey, colored, and Marshall Russell, colored.
State Central Committee—Henry Brown, Olin S. Davis, Robert R. Hill, John C. Davis, Daniel K. Johnson, Jr., colored, and John Strycklin, colored.
John N. Bennett and Charles H. Hutchins, colored, had filed for the State Central Committee but withdrew on Tuesday morning.

The Republicans in Kent are in the midst of an old-time factional fight. Having but little hope of winning local offices they bend all their efforts towards the committees which have the power in naming postmasters, etc.

A faction headed by John C. Davis, Robert R. Hill and L. Bates Russell will contest with A. Parks Rasin, John N. Bennett and Henry Brown for control of delegates to the State Convention and the State Central Committee for which the following candidates have filed:

It now appears that A. Parks Rasin and Charles Hutchins will have the naming of the Republican local ticket, if one is put in the field. These two control the present Republican State Central Committee.

Wm. H. Jackson, Jr., candidate for Comptroller on the Republican ticket, arrived in Chestertown Thursday and brought about cessation of hostilities for the present among the warring elements. An agreement was reached whereby the following were agreed upon as members of State Central Committee: John C. Davis, Olin S. Davis and John Stryclin, colored.

Delegate to State Convention: Charles N. Satterfield, A. Parks Rasin and Marshall Russell, colored.

A local ticket will be named before September 8th.

Farmers in Kent county have taken advantage of the serious drought conditions to clean up their fence rows and everywhere throughout the county the roadsides especially where new concrete and slag roads have recently been completed.

IN FINE SHAPE

The Democratic party in Kent is getting in fine shape for the great battle in November when Governor Ritchie and Mayor Broening will match wits for the highest office in the State. The action of the two factions in this county in deciding to bury past differences and support a Harmony ticket in the general election grows each day more commendable and meets with the approval of a large majority of Democrats which will be evidenced in the Primary September 8th.

The two-fold purpose was to bring about a united effort of all elements of the party for the success of the Democratic ticket in the Fall and also to save expense of a Primary. The latter has failed but the former purpose certainly looks rosy.

The people of Kent are weary of bitter strife which has characterized Democratic primaries in past years and it is believed that the decision of the representatives of the two factions to bring about harmony thru the selection of a well balanced ticket composed of representative citizens in the county will meet with the unqualified approval of all Democrats in the county who sincerely have the welfare of their party at heart. We urge the voters to present a united front for the naming of every man on the Harmony ticket.

There is every reason for the compromise and Kent county will be benefited in every way.

The only candidates on this ticket who have any opposition are as follows: County Commissioners, Leonard Wilson, Charles D. Wood and Samuel G. Loller; treasurer, H Stockton Startt and sheriff, Robert E. Lee.

These men are all worthy your support. They are good Democrats and will efficiently fill the offices to which they aspire.

CLUB WEEK

Approximately forty club members and local leaders of Kent county attended Club Week at College Park.

The enjoyment of everyone there was not only physical. The "Spirit of Club Week" was everywhere. It will be with us for a long time. Willingness to serve and ways of serving were demonstrated on every hand. The joyousness and power of this spirit can be imagined only when one realizes that over 800,000 youngsters will meet over the United States this year with the same ideals, hopes, plans and songs that we know.

Is not this a big thing At least our paths this year are bright and next year our torches will be added to the huge fire of service that others may see, far and near.
