KENT NEWS

CHESTER TOWN, MD.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUG. 15, 1857.

AMERICAN NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Thomas Holiday Hicks,

of Dorchester County.

FOR COMPTROLLER,

William H. Purnell,

of Worcester.

FOR LOTTERY COMMISSIONER,

Daniel H. McPhail,

of Baltimore.

FOR COMMISSIONER OF LAND OFFICE

William L. W. Seabrook, of Frederick.

For Congress,

Hon. James B. Ricaud,

of Kent.

☞ The communication from Worton, and also the one from our friend, near the Head Sassafras, will be attended to next week.

☞ The Camp Meeting for Kent Circuit M. E. Church, will commence at Baker's woods, Friday next 21st inst.

FAIR.—The ladies of the Methodist Protestant Church, in Chester Town, contemplate holding a Fair, in the town during the first week of the next October Term of the Court, for the purpose of aiding in the re-building of their Church in the town.

CONGRESSIONAL.—Hon. Henry Winter Davis, was nominated, by a unanimous vote, for Congress, on Wednesday last, by the Americans of the 4th district.

Teagle Townsend has also been nominated by the Americans of the 1st district

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—Two valuable horses and a pair of mules, belonging to Col. George W. Spencer, near George Town X Roads, were killed by lightning during the storm Monday afternoon last. Col. S., we regret to state, has suffered severely lately by the loss of horses—he lost some thirteen, by fire, in April last.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that Mr. John Burgess, an overseer on the farm of Geo. W. T. Perkins, Esq. met with a serions accident on Wednesday last. Mr. B. was feeding a wheat thresher, when his right arm was caught by the cylinder, and completely torn from the body. Dr. Houston was sent for and dressed the limb—he has been suffering intensely and but little hope is entertained for his recovery. Mr. B. is a very worthy man, about 71 years of age, and has a family, we believe, living in Baltimore.

FOREIGN NEWS.—We have three days later news from Europe, by the arrival, at Halifax, of the steamship Canada, from Liverpool, the latest date being August 1st. The vessels of the telegraph squadron had all reached Cork, and where to leave there on the 1st inst, for Valentia bay, where the submerging of the cable would commence. An experiment with the whole length of the cable has been made, and proved highly satisfactory.—At the English races for the Goodwood cup, the American horses, Pryor and Pryoress were beaten. The Indian mail confirms the telegraphic advices from Trieste, except that the capture of Delhi prove to be mere report. A conspiracy has been discovered at Calcutta for a general rising of the natives. In the British House of Commons, the Ministry had been left in a minority of sixty votes on the Superannuation bill, the second reading of which they had opposed. After the vote, Lord Palmerston said that the Ministers would offer no further opposition to the measure. The mutiny in India appears to be colossal. It embraces fifty-six regiments, or parts of regiments, besides twenty other regiments, which were disarmed or disbanded, making in all seventy-six regiments lost to the British. So universal was the movement, that the Bengal army had ceased to exist. In the Chinese waters, near Canton, the British have captured or destroyed one hundred and twenty-seven war junks, mounting 900 guns, and manned by 9000 men.

☞ In the Cunningham Burdell case, at New York city yesterday, the Supreme Court discharged the writ of certiorari, and refused the application to admit Mrs. Cunningham to bail. So she will have to go to prison to await her trial.

IOWA ELECTION.—Chicago, August 11. The Tribune has returns from thirty-four counties in Iowa, which give a majority of 4555 for the Constitution. This vote will undoubtedly be sufficient to carry the Constitution against the Democracy.—The poll is light.

The Next Clerk.

Mr. Editor:—As this is the day upon which the fate of all county candidates will hang permit me to announce the name of John Frazier, jr. of the Upper District, for Clerk. I have known Mr. F. for many years and feel assured that he will carry into the office. Is elected, as much talent and industry as any gentleman named for the office.

JUSTICE.

ADDITIONAL FROM EUROPE—THE GOODWOOD CUP RACE—Halifax, August 12—The lines have been partially repaired, and we now transmit the concluding portion of the public dispatch which has been delayed by the heavy storm and consequent derangement of the wires.

The following meagre particulars of the great race for the Goodwood cup, we gather from the Liverpool papers; none of the accounts at hand give the time of any of the horses.

The French horse, Monarque, won the race. The English horse, Riseber, is placed second, and Fisherman third.

"Gunboat" slipped and fell, and Kestrel and Gemma di Vergy also fell heavily Monarque won by a head, and Riseber beat Fisherman by about three lengths.

"Anton" was placed fourth, and was three lengths behind Fisherman. The American horses, Prior and Prioress, were placed fifth and sixth. All the others pulled up. The finish is said to have been the most exciting ever witnessed.

The English papers remark, but without assigning any reason, that the American horses would have figured more prominently had they been ridden by English jockeys.

The Cunningham Case.

On Tuesday in the court of Common Pleas in New York, Mr. Stafford, as counsel for Emma A. Cunningham Burdell, presented a petition the judge, setting forth that she was unjustly and illegally imprisoned at 31 Bond street, under a warrant issued by Justice Davison, and praying for a writ of certiorari to stay the said proceedings and bring the petioner before the Common Pleas. The petition was accompanied by affidavit signed Emma A. Burdell, and sworn before Asa Butman, Commissioner of deeds.—The writ was granted by the judge, and made returnable yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, but before the papers could be served upon Judge Davison, at Jefferson Market, the District Attorney sent the writ and all the papers before the grand jury, now in session. Of course this would render it necessary to lay a new petition before a judge in order to get the proceedings complete for the return yesterday, and the counsel for the prisoner proceeded to Bond street for that purpose.—Subsequently a second writ was issued, made returnable yesterday.

Mrs. Cunningham, her daughters Helen and Georgiana, and the two little boys, continue to occupy No. 31 Bond street as if nothing at all had happened. No preparations, says the Herald, have yet been made to leave the premises, notwithstanding Mrs. Cunningham may receive notice to vacate at any moment. The present state of her health will, it is supposed, be a safeguard against her lodging in the Tombs. Besides, Justice Davison says he does not want to inconvenience the lady in the least, and has not the slightest objection to her remaining in Bond street for a week or more. The magistrate does not want to give the accused any cause for complaint, and carefully avoids doing anything that might create sympathy where it does not exist. The house does not seem to be the object of much attraction now. People are getting rather tired of gazing at a three-story and basement house. The occupants never make their appearance at the windows or doors, and hence there is but little material afforded the curiosity-seeking public.

Miss Augusta Cunningham, the eldest daughter, who has become so disgusted with her mother's conduct as it was revealed in the late denouement, still continues to reside with her aunt in Lexington avenue. She is but little improved in health or appearance, and will in all probability never fully recover from the shock producted by the discovery of the sham accouchment on the part of her mother. Grief and shame have produced a marked change in the features of Augusta. One could hardly recognize her now as the person testified on the coroner's inquest, has become thoroughly disgusted with affairs of late, for she evinces a strong and apparently settled determination never to put her foot in No. 31 Bond street again, nor to live with her mother as long as she seems determined to play such desperate games with the hope of gaining wealth.—Herald.

CHARGES PREFERRED AGAINST A MINISTER.—The next Philadelphia Conference of the M. E. Church will have an exciting case before it. Charges, it is said, have been preferred against the Rev. John D. Long, author of a work of anti-slavery character. The charges have been adduced by Rev. Mr. Quigley, of the same denomination as the accused, who is well known in Maryland. They are as follows; 1st. Misrepresenting the Philadelphia Conference and the border difficulties. 2nd. Misrepresenting the people of Maryland and Eelaware. 3rd. Misrepresenting the ministers who have labored in Maryland and Delaware. 4th. Misrepresenting the members of the M. E. church. 5th. Misrepresenting the colored people.

☞ It appears from the Louisville papers, of both parties, that the Democrats have only carried only one branch of the Kentucky Legislature. In the Senate there are 20 Americans and 18 Democrats, leaving an American majority of two. In the other House there is a Democratic majority of from twelve to twenty. As a United States Senator is to be chosen, this is important.

THE NEXT HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The Washington Union of to-day states that elections for members of the House of Representatives of the next Congress have now been held in all the States of the Union with the exception of Maryland, Georgia, Mississippi and Louisianna, with the following result; Democrats, 110; Black Republican, 91, American, 8; vacancies, 2. In the States of Texas, Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, and Alabama congressional elections were held last week, and although full and complete returns have not been received, the Union thinks that the actual result will verily the correctness of the figures as given above. Should no changes occur in the remaining for states, where elections are to be held, the next House of Representative will stand as follows: Democrats, 125; Black Republican, 91; Americans 16; vacancies, 2. The House of Representatives consist of 234 members 118 members constituting a majority.—As the case now stands—allowing no change in the four States where elections are to be held—the democrats will have a majority of sixteen in the House.

THE INDIANS AT FORT RILEY.—Immediate Assistance Demanded.—We have received an extra from the Lawrence (Kansas) Herald of Freedom, under date of the 3d instants which conveys intelligence of the deescen of the Cheyenne Indians on Fort Riley as already mentioned by telegraph The extra says:

Official evidence has reached Governor Walker, through commanding officer at Fort Riley, that the cheyenne Indians, inforce, have reached that station, where there is no fortification, and only half a company of infantry. The commanding officer at the Fort asks for immediate assistance, "an attack being hourly expected," and the garrison filled with the wives and children of absent officers and men. The official report represents that "the Indians had driven in all the settlers and committed several murders in sight of the post." Under these circumstances Governor Walker has sent Col. Cooke, with the whole force under his command, to the point of danger. Col. Cooke started with the advance at 8 A. M. to-day, and by forced marches hopes to reach Fort Riley to-morrow evening, accompanied by the Governor. The rest of the troops follow immediately, and will proceed with all possible expedition. It seems to be wisely ordered by Providence that the troops, who are now here so much nearer Fort Riley, should thus be enabled to reach that point in so brief a period, to give speedy protection to the garrison and settlers, and it is hoped, inflict summary chastisement upon this hostile and warlike tribe.

☞ The Congressional election in Nebraska territory has resulted in a poll of 1470 for Ferguson, Indepenent Dem, 1309 for Thayer, Republican, 1114 for Chapman, the regular Democratic nominee, and 1091 for Banker. Chapman was the member in the last Congress. The aggregate vote, as above, is 4684, with one county to hear from Advices from Kansas state that Governer Walker had returned to Lawrence with the United States troops, the apprehensions of an attack on Fort Riley by the Cheyennes having proved groundless. The squatter municipal government of Lawrence met on the 7th and was engaged in perfecting ordinances. The election returns from all parts of the territory indicate a large vote, and nearly unanimous for the Topeka Constitution.

At the election in Kansas under the Topeka regime, ten thousand votes are said to have been polled, and the Topeka constitution was adopted again, almost unanimously. No one was allowed to vote except a six months' resident of the territory.

The contest for Congress in the Sixth District oe Alabama is quite close, so that it will require the official returns to decide whether Houston or Hubbard is elected. So the Washington Star learns from private advices. The probabilities seem to be that Houston is defeated and Hubbard chosen.

DECLENSION.—James L. Bartol, Esq., has declined the Democratic nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals of this State.

S. S. Cunningham, of Washington co., Md., declines the Democratic nomination for Commissioner of Public Works.
