Winans and Denmead, about camel engines, &c., about as uninteresting to the mass of readers, as an account of the deserts of Arabia, they would say, "hold on enough;" but we presume the secret is, they pay well.

THE ST. NICHOLAS.—This boat was returning to Baltimore on Thursday evening from an excursion to Annapolis. with some 125 passengers, and was about passing very close to the steamer Belvidere, when she came in contact with a new schooner that vessel had in tow, which had not been perceived by the pilot until too late to avoid a collision, injuring her very badly. The shock was so great as to prostrate all who were on the deck of the boat and the greatest consternation prevailed among the passengors. It was soon discovered that her bow was stovein in, and the water was rapidly rushing into her hold, while there was no means on board of stopping it The captain prudently ordered her to be headed for Sandy Point, the nearest land, where she was run ashore below the bar, in 7 feet of water.—The passengers remained on board all night and were taken off by other vessels on Friday. The St. Nicholas still lies on the bottom, and cannot be brought up to the city, until she is sufficiently repaired to keep her from sinking. The schooner was also badly damaged.

The Official Vote of the Missouri Election.

ST. LOUIS. Aug. 29th.

The result of the election for Governor, which was held in the early part of the month and upon which there has been so much speculation caused by the contradictory returns received—has at lenghth been determined by the official report; R. M. Stewart, Democrat, being elected over James S. Rollins, American, by 334 majority. She official stands:

For Stewart, - - -	47,975
" Rollins, - - -	47,641
Stewart's majority, - -	334.

BETTING.—It has been judicially decided in this State and the decision has been sustained by the Court of Appeals, that money bet on elections is forfeited to the state for the use of the school fund, and that the stakeholder is liable to be sued by the state for the recovery of the same.

[See Doalevs. Com'rs. of Baltimere co., 12 Gill and Johnson, 494.]

The parties, betting on elections, are also liable to indictment; and as the practice has become a means of corrupting voters, offenders in this respect, should be prosecuted to the extent of the law and made examples of.

LORD NAPIER'S RECEIPT FOR CURING WARTS.—The following passage occurs in Bacon's Natural History:

"The Taking away of Warts by Rubbing them with sorewhat that afterwards is put to waste and consume is a common Experiment, and I do apprehend it the rather because of mine own Experience. I had from my Childhood a Wart upon one of my Fingers; afterwards, when I was about Sixteen years old, being then at Paris, there grew upon both my hands a number of Warts, (at the least one hundred,) in a month's space. The English Ambassadoure's Lady, who was a Woman farre from Superstition, told me one day Shee would help me away with my Warts. Whereupon she got a Peace of Lard, with the Skin on, and rubbed the Warts all over with the Fat side And amongst the rest that Wart which I had from my Childhood. Then shee nailed the Peace of Lard, with the Fat towards the Sunne, upon a Poast of her Chamber Window, which was to the South. The Successed was, that within five week's space all the Warts went quite away: and that Wart which I had so long endured, for Company. But at the rest I did little marvell, because they came in a short Time againe. But the going away of that which had stayed so long doth yet strike me."

DEAD.—Clinton Cook, Esq. a leading member of the Centreville bar, died in that town on the 29th ult.
