PENINSULA FAIR DATES

Dates for the various agricultural fairs on the Delmarvia Peninsula were fixed when representatives of towns making up the Delmarva-Penn Fairs and Racing Circuit met in annual session in Salisbury.

Harrington, July 29 to August 2; Cambridge, August 5 to 8; Tasley, August 5 to 9; Pocomoke City, August 12 to 16; Salisbury, August 19 to 23, and Kellar, August 25 to 30.

State Senator James M. Crockett, of Worcester county, was elected president of the circuit, and State Senator David J. Ward, of Wicomico county, was chosen secretary and treasurer.

"OUR CHESTER RIVER

This famous stream, with record as great,
Affording vast pleasure, we could continuously relate.
Until it would seem, like getting up a book,
And mention each name, who fish with line and hook.

However we will try to state in a few lines,
And mention some attractions of various kinds,
As one vast hobby for many is going after fish,
And they usually afford a mighty tempting dish.

Crabbing also entertain and if chance are caught,
When the law will permit, no matter where sought,
Although experienced people, have a certain location,
To make a large haul and create a sensation.

Then others indulge in oystering as their work,
Which is an an outdoor job for those who labor like a turk,
But in Winter, shooting at geese or else a duck,
Is a marvelous hobby, for those having such good luck.

Then bathing in Summer, down at Rolphs or Bookers,
Is indulged in by many, with a plenty of onlookers,
For these two locations, seem perfectly grand,
With water clear as crystal and fine beaches of sand.

And on that side of our above named stream,
Where the bathing so delightful, as appears in a dream,
As is often the case, when you are feeling so weak,
Especially after an afternoon's swim playing hide and seek.

Another great amusement, is a boat ride also,
On the dear old Chester River, when permitted to go,
By seasonable weather, with a group of friendly guests,
Of people who all love, this amusement the best.

Then think what it will mean, when the new bridge is built,
Over this river near our town, thus avoiding many a tilt,
By cares of all kinds and pedestrians out for a walk,
Enjoying a lovely stroll or else a horse about to balk.

The river is known to afford great delight,
No matter when endulged in, either daytime or night,
And if it could speak, these words would it utter,
I am the greatest in your life, except your bread and butter.

A pleasure to your eye, if you are liking for views,
A comfort to many, assure cure for the Blues,
And if possessed with an appetite, regardless of taste,
You can get from her waters, enough and plenty without waste.

JESSE MEDDERS.

SCHOOL SALARIES

The average salary for white elementary school teachers and principals in Maryland was $29 higher in 1929 than in 1928, according to the State Board of Education. Last year's average salary was $1,185.

This amount represents the result of a series of gradual yearly increases in salaries in the last ten years, from $521 in 1919.

Average salaries in the counties in 1929 ranged from $881 in St. Mary's to $1,518 in Baltimore county. One of the reasons for the higher salaries in Baltimore county was the fact that the classes in that county are larger than in any other county, of the State.

The average paid in Baltimore city $1,822, brings the average for the State to $1,463. Average figures for Eastern Shore:

|---|---|
| Cecil | $1,170 |
| Kent | $1,155 |
| Queen Anne's | $1,151 |
| Talbot | $1,121 |
| Wicomico | $1,114 |
| Somerset | $1,081 |
| Worcester | $1,073 |
| Caroline | $1,061 |
| Dorchester | $1,042 |

In one-teacher schools the average salary was $1,102; in two-teacher schools, $1,161, and in larger county schools, $1,222. The increase of $53 for one-teacher schools since last year led in amount the increases of $19 and $16 respectively for the two-teacher and larger institutions.

The minimum State salary for a normal school graduate is $950 for the first three years of experience, $1,050 for the next three years, $1,100 for the following three years, bringing the maximum of $1,150 after eight years of experience.
