WASHINGTON COLLEGE IS DEFEATED HERE IN DEBATE

Members of the debating team of Albright College, of Reading, Pa., proved conclusively that they were prepared to argue any side of the question about the Kellogg Peace Pact.

The debaters came here prepared to defend the affirmative side of the subject: "Resolved, That the United States Should Withdraw from the Kellogg Peace Pact," against the Washington College team. They were informed that the local college team was going to take that side, and that they would have to take the negative side.

When the debaters had finished their verbal barrages and attacks, Dr. G. H. Ryden, Professor C. B. Michell, and Prof. J. S. Gould, all of the University of Delaware, the judges of the debate, unanimously decided that the Albright team had won the victory.

The Pennsylvania debaters were Alfred White, Raymond Sheetz, Glenn W. Schaeffer and John A. Kleininn. Local students on the affimative were James Clow, Nelson Hurley, Elmer Bennett and Raymond Simmons.

DOVER MAN LOSES LIFE

Trapped by flames and smoke when he returned into his blazing home Saturday night to recover valuables William J. Boyd was burned to death in his second-floor apartment in Dover, Del.

Boyd, with his wife, son and daughter fled in their night clothing from the burning house. When they reached the street Boyd remembered the valuables and dashed back into he building. His body was found by firemen.

The fire started in the Yellow Dragon, a restaurant on the ground floor operated by Lee C. Price. The blaze spread quickly to the second and third floors, causing damage estimated at $35,000.

Boyd was well known in Dover, having been employed at the Downes Music Store, Inc., here as a radio service man. He is survived by his wife, one son about 20, and one daughter, 13. He was past noble grand of Philademic Lodge No. 7, I. O. O. F., of Dover.

The origin of the fire at the Yellow Dragon as yet has not been determined. The place was closed at about 12 o'clock Saturday night and the fire had gained headway before the alarm was given.

CALF CLUB BANQUET READY

The members of the Kent 4-H Clover Calf Club, sponsoring the banquet for those interested in Calf Club Work, have completed all arrangements for the turkey dinner and banquet program to be held at the High School on Friday evening, February 28th. All indications point to an enjoyable time. Over one hundred people are expected to attend. The program is attractive. The boys are hard at work making sure that all arrangements are complete—incidentally they are receiving valuable training.

Capt. Wm. H. Cooper on Saturday closed contracts with farmers near Kennedyville for 300 acres of tomatoes at 27½ cents per basket. Capt. Cooper will truck most of these tomatoes to Chestertown for shipment.

Three cows died "mysterious deaths" until it was discovered that electricity from a milking machine was reaching the stanchion of their stalls, in Bismark, N. D.

One thing this country needs is fewer "surveys" to find out what is the matter, and more remedial action along common-sense lines.

It is considered likely that the Los Angeles motorist who started his car by building a fire under it got his apprenticeship with mules.

DO YOU BUY ON "IMPULSE" OR ON "REASONING"?

PSYCHOLOGISTS tell us that some men buy on "emotion"—others on the grounds of "reason-why."

If you are an impulsive buyer you are safe "obeying that impulse" when you see our showing of Spring Suits—safe because there's sound qualify behind the good looks!

If you want solid reasons,—here they are: (1) Finest fabrics woven, (2) Authenic style, (3) Expert tailoring, (4) The lowest possible prices consistent with fine quality.

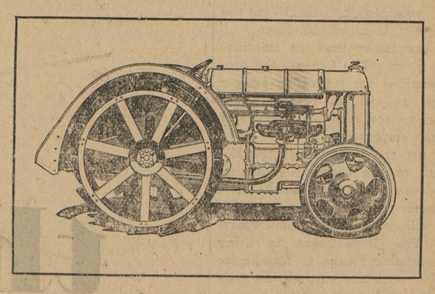
The Improved Fordson Agricultural Tractor develops more power, and starts easily . . . .



A 30-HORSE-POWER engine makes sure of ample power for the field work, for the belt, for every farm job that requires pulling, pushing or stationary power.

A high-tension magneto with enclosed starter coupling insures easy starting. It makes no difference how snappy the morning, the starting system on the new Fordson will operate easily.

Come in and see the Fordson Agricultural Tractor. We want to show you its new features. There are 16 altogether. We want to show you how easy it starts and how the motor sounds. We want to give you a booklet that describes in detail this farm tractor. Ask for a demonstration.

Make Your Flock Average 200 Eggs

EXPERTS say a flock averaging 175 eggs per hen will return a substantial profit. For Bull Brand users an average of 200 eggs and over is not unusual. B-B Vitamized Laying Mash and Scratch Feed supply special egg-making and body-building elements. Make B-B prove itself by testing it against present feed. Unless it satisfies you that it is more productive per dollar of feed cost—your money is promptly refunded. Ask the B-B dealer.
