"ALL ABOARD" FEB. 24, 25, 26

Rehearsals for Chestertown's big musical comedy, "All Aboard," which is to be presented under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Chestertown Volunteer Company, on Feb. 24, 25, 26, started this week under the direction of the Wheeler Producing Company, Mrs. Wheeler being personally in charge, and Chestertown and vicinity are assured another treat in the coming entertainment.

"All Aboard," this year's show, is rather unique the scenes being laid aboard a ship bound for Southern waters. The story is most interesting, and the comedy situations are of the side splitting variety. Throughout the action of the story there are several very attractive and tuneful solo and chorus numbers, and the children, who have always had a prominent part in the Wheeler productions, are to be seen in a special feature number. The cast will be given in our next week's issue.

The Ladies' Auxiliary, who are sponsoring the entertainment, are to be commended for their efforts, and are assured the hearty support of the community.

BIG NURSERY IN KENT

George B. Muth, of Philadelphia, who recently purchased a number of farms in the vicinity of Worton Point comprising 2,300 acres, has employed a force of 25 men to clean up and prune the orchards on the Dr. Haines Rock Point farm near Churn Creek, which is included in the purchase, preparatory to converting the entire 2,300 acres into one of the largest nurseries on the Atlantic Seaboard. There are 13,000 trees in this orchard. State's Attorney Stephen R. Collins, of Chestertown, who is negotiating the transfers of the properties, said today that Mr. Muth will acquire possession of the properties as soon as the necessary papers can be completed. It is understood that the purchase price is clse to $250,000.

WASH. COLLEGE WINS 2 GAMES

The Washington College basketball team defeated a fast Swarthmore five here Tuesday night 52 to 40 in a game replete with thrills from the initial toss until the final whistle. The score at half time was 26 to 20. When our boys got goin' they cleaned things up.

With Stanly Giraitis emerging from his slump, the Washington College basket ball team downed the winning Haverford squad, 31 to 22, here Saturday night.

Although Giraitis was guarded closely, he managed to shake himself loose, and by sinking some sensational shots scored a total of 16 points.

The defensive work on both sides was almost airtight. Especially in the second half was this angle of play so efficient that for considerable time neither team was able to get close to the opposing goal.

This resulted in some long-range firing, some stirring shots being sunk. Alexander scored with two overhand efforts from the center of the floor.

For the visitors Supplee, with five field goals, stood out. This forward played all over the court and made some startling shots for the cords.

The Chestertown High School basketball team had but little difficulty winning over the five of Crisfield High last Saturady evening 30 to 11. The game was played as a preliminary to the Washington-Haverford contest.

The Chestertown High School girls basket ball team also defeated Crisfield girls the same night.

The local schoolboys got away to a fine start and with Hodgson and Clements caging the ball from all angles soon ran up a substantial lead. The local team comprioe Hodgson, Falls, Reese, Clements, Johns, Nicholson.

The Chestertown High School basket ball team defeated Newark, Del.'s fine quint 24 to 22 Tuesday evening at the college.

State Policeman Carl Storm was notified by Corporal Furin, of Fort Eustis, Va., that the latter's car had been taken by Orville Davis and Thomas Farmer, privates in the 51st Coast Artillery, stationed at Fort Eustis, and that the men were headed for Rock Hall, the former home of Davis.

Storm went to Rock Hall and brought the men to the Chestertown jail, where they are being held pending the arrival of Corporal Furin, when an investigation will be conducted.

TURKEY BANQUET IS A BIG SUCCESS

The First Annual Banquet of the Maryland Turkey Growers' Association of Kent County was held on Wednesday night in the High School Auditorium.

A fine turkey dinner was served by the Ladies' Aid of St. James M. P. Church. About sixty members and guests enjoyed the repast.

Genial Wm. G. Smyth presided as toastmaster. Mrs. H. M. Baker, President of the Turkey Association, introduced Mr. Smyth, who turned loose a flow of wit and humor. Mrs. Nell Westcott, Secretary read her report showing the accomplishments of the association. Dr. Titsworth gave a very interesting address. Stanley and Frank Sutton put on two clever numbers with local applications. County Agent McVean and Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Schellinger made short talks. Martin Sutton and Norman Sutton sang a touching duet.

Mr. E. I. Oswald, of the University of Maryland Extension Staff, made the main address. He mingled jokes and humor with a forceful discussion of the importance of organization to meet the mad rush of present day living. "Uncle Jerry" Conover, Dairy Specialist was called to make his bow and made some appropriate remarks.

All present voted the banquet a real success in every sense of the word. The ladies of St. James deserved commendation for the splendid banquet dinner. The programs were planned by Walter M. Kenly and were certainly very original and unique.

The annual business meeting will be held next Wednesday, February 19th at 1.30 p. m., in the Court Room. Officers will be elected for the coming year. Turkey problems will be discussed. All turkey growers are urged to attend.

FINES MAN $5 IN AUTO DEATH CASE

John C. Money, Jr., age 19, of Worton, driver of an automobile in Which Jacob Crowding, 30, his cousin, of the same town, was killed on the morning of January 22, when the car crashed into a furniture van owned by J. Norman Geipe, 1204 Edmondson avenue, Baltimore, was fined $5 and costs Wednesday by Magistrate Olin B. Stafford on a charge of failing to stop for a state road stop sign at an intersection.

Crowding's widow is the daughter of Sheriff J. T. Hadaway. Sheriff Hadaway helped Private Carl G. Storm of the State highway police make the arrest, after which Money was released under bail. The case was appealed.

FENCING, ARCHERY FOR SHO' COLLEGE

The first fencing team at Washington College is in process of creation as feminine students wield the foil daily in the gymnasium under direction of Neal Truslow, former medalist and cup holder of the New York Athletic Club and now resident here. No attempt will be made to stage matches at present but Miss Doris Bell, athletic director for women, expects advancement to be made this year in the rudiments and that by next year students will be well on the way to organizing a fencing team.

Male students are also taking an interest in the sport. Among those now engaged in regular practice are DeWitt Clark who had elementary instruction in Waterbury, Conn.

Dr. Gertrude Ingalls, pdofessor of English, has had several years of instruction. Dean Genevieve Boland and Miss Margaret Brewer are two other members of the faculty who have joined the squad. Women students who have signed up for fencing are Jane White, Katherine LeKites and Elizabeth Baker.

A girls' archery team is also being organized. It will be the first ever formed at the Eastern Shore College. Equipment has been secured for the squad which will be directed by Miss Bell.

Census Supervisor Marine has named John C. Davis as enumerator in the 4th district of merchants and manufacturers. Roger Williams, of near Galena, will enumerate these classes in other parts of county. Other officials will be named later.

Henry Clay Lusby has contracted for 357 acres of tomatoes to be shipped from Shipyard Wharf, near Rock Hall, at 25 cents per basket. Mr. Lusby represents Phillips & Co., of Cambridge.

BUILD THE BAY BRIDGE

Governor Ritchie says the proposed bridge across the Chesapeake bay MUST be built.

The best business heads of the city and State agreed long ago that the bridge MUST be built.

Nature was in a generous mood when she made Maryland and gave her the wonderful Chesapeake bay, perhaps the richest body of water of its size in the world.

But the bay, with its unlimited store of fish and oysters, worth many millions of dollars a year to its people, also divides Maryland into two parts.

The people of the Eastern and Western Shores, bound by all the ties of race and kinship, should be in closer touch with each other. Only the Bay bridge can do this effectively in this age of fast motor transit.

The Bay bridge will bring the beautiful Eastern Shore, with its fertile farms and orchards and its prosperous merchants to Baltimore's door.

It will make Baltimore, with its manufacturies and stores, its theatres and movies, its are galleries and parks, its schools and churches, the gateway to the Eastern Shore.

Baltimore wants the Bay bridge. The Eastern Shore wants the Bay bridge. The whole State wants the Bay bridge.

The Bay bridge MUST be built.—Balt. News, Feb. 7.

Nathan Lieberman, 70-year-old merchant, who, with his wife, was recently attacked and knocked unconscious by two men, sold his store and residence to William Ivins, Jr. of Worton, and will leave for New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Lieberman will live with their children in New York. No trace of the men, one of whom was a Negro and the other of whom wore a white mask, has ever been found after the assault and attempted robbery of the store. Mrs. Lieberman was also beaten and has only recently recovered from the shock. They are fine citizens and their removal is very much regretted.

WHY NOT FARMERS' WEEK

In recommendation of the suggestion in the News recently Mrs. Evelyn Harris, of Betterton, write as follows:

The farmers of the Eastern Shore have had a cut in the price of milk, just at a time when a cut hurts the most. Folk in the cities are listening in every day when the Farm and Home Hour broadcasts advice to farmers, and they hear us told to "cut down on all lines of production." I have yet to hear any radio announcer or speaker tell manufacturers to cut down on the production of butter, lard or any other of the substitutes offered every day in the stores and hotels.

We have "Mother's Day" and "Father's Day" and "Go to Church Sunday" and all sorts of remembering days. Why not have a "Farmers' Week" and everbody in the city who has ever had a chance to be on a farm, for even a day, resolve to buy farm products and not manufactured products. Use but a quart of milk more a day per family and a pound of butter a week more and the price would go back to where it was for the farmer, with no additional rise in price to consumer.

Use lard and not something manufactured from a foreign product; use salad dressings made with eggs and butter, not foreign oils; make hot rolls and hot waffles two or three times a week and the wheat grower will be happy.

Say it with flowers and say it with sweets,
Say it with cigars and say it with eats.
Say it with gum until everyone hollers,
But to talk to a farmer, why say it with dollars.

Say it this month and start it this week. Health will be better for all, both in the city and on the farm.

A "FAMOUS" WEDDING

One of the groups of the Ladies' Aid Society of Christ M. P. Church headed by Mrs. E. A. Sexsmith gave a "Tom Thum Wedding" in the lecture room of the church Thursday evening. The crowd was so great that it was repeated last night. Naomi Russell was the bride, Horace Needles the groom, Charles Dole preacher, Jimmie Bringman the ring-bearer and Sarah Dodd sang "Oh, Promise Me." The bridesmaids were June Maslin, Maryln Lancaster, Mary Emma Chairs, Henrietta Gill, Elizabeth Wheatley, maid of honor; best man Jack Newnam; Jane Goss and Doris Pinder, flower girls.

The "Story of Rubber" will be given at Washington College Auditorium next Wednesday, February 19, admission free.

RUM PLANT FOUND

G. A. Hill, deputy prohibition administrator for Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland, announced Thursday that late Wednesday four prohibition agents working under his orders had raided a still in the woods near Crumpton, Kent county, Md., which proved to be the biggest single still which has ever been found in operation in this district since he has been deputy administrator.

Mr. Hill said that the still was of 500 gallons capacity and was so large that six men could easily have stood up inside of it, had they been able to enter it. The four agents making the raid, had to work for three hours in destroying the still, vats and accessory apparatus, he said. A man named Boulden was found at the still while it was in operation.

The still is larger than the 400 gallons still seized several months ago in a raid at Iron Hill, near Newark, which previous to this time held the record for size, Mr. Hill said. In addition to the still, 4,000 gallons of mash and 50 gallons of liquor were seized.

Boulden was believed to be a mere agent for the owner and not believed to be the owner. He was arraigned today before U. S. Commissioner J. DeWiss Carter, at Denton, Md., and will be held for the Federal Court of Baltimore.
