THIEVES TAKE WIRE OFF POLES

Thieves in this section have been stealing wire from electric poles. Sunday 2.600 pounds of copper wire, valued at $780, were taken from the poles of the East Coast Utility Company, Inc.,with headquarters at Dover.

While the wire was removed from the poles on the State Highway, between Millington and Massey, a distance of six miles, on Sunday, the loss was not discovered until Tuesday afternoon. The robbery was reported to Sheriff Thomas J. Hadaway, of Chestertown, Md., and he with Private Carl A. Storm, of the Maryland State Highway Police, is conducting an investigation.

New poles were recently placed along the road and the wire was strung last week. Workmen had expected to place the power line in operation this week, but were unable to work Monday and Tuesday due to the heavy fog. Officials of the company said that for this reason the loss was not discovered until Tuesday.

The sheriff and State policeman learned from colored persons living in a small settlement along the road that on Sunday a group of two or three white men in a motor truck took the wire from the poles. They paid little attention to the men, thinking they were emplayes of the utility company who had been working on the new power line last week. The men are said to have unwound the wire from the poles and placed it in their truck.

2 BLACK CROWS AT NEW LYCEUM

FAMOUS RECORD AND RADIO STARS NOW IN TALKIES.

Moran and Mack, the Two Black Crows, now add to their phonograph and radio fame by making their first screen appearance in Paramount's all talking comedy "Why Bring That Up?" a rapid fire story of the vaudeville stage introducing many of the numbers that they have recorded. In addition to these they present many new Moranisms and Mackites.

"Why Bring That Up?" is from an original story by Octavus Roy Cohen, the famous author of negro stories.

In the picture you see Moran meeting Mack, the forming of the famous team—their struggle for recognition and you climb with them to success. They show you just how they make up their funny patter and best of all you see them in real life as well as black face, doing their rib-cracking dialect.

Moran and Mack, the two Black Crows, have the backing of an elaborate musical show, in the final scenes of their opus. A dazzling array of stage talent! "Why Bring That Up?" is real, you fairly feel every situation and they are all of such character, just like their records, that a child of eight years can fully understand.

"Why Bring That Up?" is the all talking feature at the New Lyceum Theatre, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week, January 23, 24, 25. There will be a special matinee on Saturday, Jan. 25, at 2.30.

PLAN SONG CONTEST AT FEDERALSBURG

Mrs. Cleveland Smith, director of music in the State Federation of Women's Clubs, presented a musical program before the Woman's Club and spoke informally upon the use of the voice at Federalsburg.

As a result of her talk the club plans to form a singing group to compete in the contest to be held at Salisbury in April in connection with the meeting of the State Federation of Clubs.

At its next meeting Miss Ida Belle Wilson, of the faculty of the Salisbury State Normal School, will present the first of a two-part "Pilgrimage of the Eastern Shore." Miss Wilson will speak on the history of the Eastern Shore.

DR. FERRIS TO DIRECT

The Kent County Musical Society will give the Cantata Penitence, Pardon and Peace during Lent of this year and went over this music at their meeting Thursday night. The rehearsals for this work will continue Thursday, January 16, at 7.45 p. m., and a large attendance is expected. The words of this Cantata are by Rev. W. J. Bettison, M. A., music by J. H. Maunder.

Mrs. Smith, the directress, announced a pleasant surprise for the rehearsal next Thursday.

Dr. Walter Rockwood Ferris, former director of Oratorio Society in New York, will be present and lead in several numbers and also speak. He studied under Le Villa and has a son who is a noted pianist.

The Christmas Festival of Music which the Society gave on December 15, was such a tremendous success that it now plans to make two more public appearances before the close of this season.

Poultry hatcherymen from all sections of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Virginia on Saturday attended the annual meeting of the Del-Mar-Va Hatcherymen's Association at the New Windsor Hotel, Milford. Neal A. Truslow, of the Truslow Poultry Farms, is president of the association.

SUDDEN DEATH OF PROF. CREASY

Prof. Mark Creasy, principal of the Chestertown High School, died suddenly Sunday evening at his home here about 7.00 p. m., aged 63.

Professor Creasy had been in poor health for a number of years but had not been incapacitated from duty. His sudden death proved a shock to the community.

He was born and lived many years on a farm near Bloomsburg, Pa., and after completing his education he traveled abroad and engaged in teaching in the public schools of Hawley, Pa., coming to Chestertown September, 1912.

The deceased was regarded as one of the prominent educators in the State and was always a conspicuous figure in State and county conventions. Professor Creasy was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and during practically his entire residence here had been a member of his official board.

He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Phoebe Creasy, and one brother, Rush Creasy, living near Bloomsburg.

Funeral services were held from the M. E. Church at 1.30 o'clock on Tuesday by the Rev. J. Harry Wright, pastor of the M. E. Church. Following the services the remains were taken Wednesday morning to Lightstreet, Pa., for burial.

The pall bearers were William T. Brown, Harry F. Jefferson, Fred S. Russell, Prof. Owen C. Blades, Prof. W. J. Stenger, W. B. Copper, Wm. H. Elliott and M. A. Suybert; Wm. T. Hicks, undertaker. The floral offerings were many and of beautiful design.

FARM BUREAU BANQUET

The Kent County Farm Bureau held its seventh annual banquet on Wednesday evening in the assembly hall of the Chestertown High School. More than 150 were present, and the dinner was served by women of St. Paul's P. E. Church.

E. Thos. Massey presided. William G. Smyth, president of the Kent and Queen Anne's National Farm Loan Association, was toastmaster.

The principal speakers were Amon Burgee, of the Frederick County Farm Bureau, who held his audience spell bound for one and half hours, and M. Melvin Stewart, secretary-treasurer of the State Farm Federation. Mr. Massey, J. D. McVean, Miss Helen L. Schellinger and Mrs. Harry T. Williams also spoke.

Music was furnished by Washington College Orchestra, under direction of Dr. Fred. G. Livingood.

James D. Davis, Jr., secretary-treasurer of the County Farm Bureau, read his annual report, which showed the total membership of the bureau was 265, while the volume of business transacted by the farmer members last year exceeded $100,000.

More than seventy carloads of feeds and farm supplies were handled, he said, and the officers of the bureau now are occupying a warehouse and office building erected last year at a cost of $4,500.

Phil Edwards, colored, of Fredericktown, was stopped by a state policeman on Wednesday and it was found that he had thirty chickens in his car. When questioned as to where he got the chickens he stated that they belonged to his mother. His mother knew nothing about the chickens and Edwards was lodged in the Elkton jail.

Carlton Ross, of Galena, identified 23 of the chickens as his own, and Sheriff Hadaway brought Edwards and the chickens to Kent county on Thursday. Edwards is in jail charged with stealing the chickens.

NAMED ACTING PRINCIPAL

Professor Owen C. Blades, for many years teacher of manual arts and history in the Chestertown High School, has been named as acting principal of the local school for the remainder of the school year. He takes the place of Principal Mark Creasy, who died suddenly last Sunday.

He is a native of St. Michaels, Talbot county, and is graduate of the high school of that town. He was also graduated from the Baltimore Polytechinc Institute and has attended several summer school sessions at Johns Hopkins University.

Nothwithstanding the fact that $1,000,000 of these totals came through bond issues floated during the past year by the Board of County Commissioners for road building, the total deposits are still the highest in the county's history in in spite of unfavorable agricultural profits during the year.

CALF CLUB BANQUET

The Kent 4-H Clover Calf Club will hold its Seventh Annual Banquet on Friday, February 28. Committees are at work on the detailed arrangements. High standards have been set in past years. The boys are out to make this banquet better than any one preceeding. WASHINGTON TRIMS BALTO. U.

Washington College's basketball team won a thrilling game from the University of Baltimore quintet at Loyola College Thursday night by the score of 35 to 34. It was Washington's first game in the race for the State championship.

CHESTERTOWN HIGH BEATS OXFORD HIGH

For the second time this season Chestertown High School defeated Oxford High, when the Kent county basket-ball team smothered Talbot county tossers under a 38-to-18 score.

Coach Harry Russell used 15 men during the tilt and local dribblers scored heavily in the last few minutes against visiting third-string men in preparation for a hard schedule in which the visitors will seek the Eastern Shore interscholastic title.

Chestertown girls defeated Oxford High, 27 to 17.

Non-scoring. Substitutes — Chestertown, Beck, Massey, Pippin, Williams, Vickers, Crew, Wright, McMahon and Kreeger; Oxford, Stevensson and Cox. Referee — Jones. Time of halves—15 minutes.

The Chestertown High School basketball team continued its winning tactics Tuesday night by defeating Easton High. The score was 20 to 18. The work of Don Fall stood out for Chestertown. He bagged four field goals and was by far the most aggresive player on the local five. The schools met in a return game at Easton last night.

BIG MEETING AT ROCK HALL

Junior Hall was crowded with watermen and others at Rock Hall Wednesday night, all interested in the construction of a county wharf. Mayor Keller presided and handled the meeting with skill. Senator S. Scott Beck and Engineer Taylor were present from Chestertown as was Commissioner Jones.

There are several private wharves at Rock Hall and Gratitude but the great need for a public landing has been long noted. The prospect now is bright for a wharf to serve an important Kent industry.

C. L. DODD IMPROVING

Charles L. Dodd, one of Kent's best known citizens, was taken seriously ill Sunday morning at his home in Chestertown and has since caused considerable uneasiness among his large circle of friends. Dr. H. L. Dodd, his brother and physician, is pleased at his improved condition.

E. THOMAS MASSEY CHOSEN

E. Thomas Massey, of Massey, was elected to serve his fifth term as the vice-president of the Maryland Farm Bureau Federation as the 1930 convention of that body was brought to a close in the Lord Baltimore Hotel last Friday. The Farm Bureau and nine affiliated organizations had held convention sessions in Baltimore since last Tuesday.

FIRE INSURANCE RATES REDUCED

The Underwriters' Association announces a reduction on all rates on private dwellings in Chestertown owing to the efficient service from the Volunteer Fire Company and our excellent water supply.

On frame shingle-roof dwellings, the rate is reduced from 33 to 30 cents per $100, and on contents of such a building the rate is lowered from 37 to 34 cents per $100.

The reductions are carried thruout the tariff on dwellings constructed of other kinds of material. This new rate, however, applies only with the corporate limits of the city.

In contending for lowering the basis, the city's new water system and pumping station was the promise upon which city officials and the chamber based their argument. On the same argument the city obtained in October, 1926, a 20-cent reduction in charges for mercantile and industrial buildings.

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING FOR ELECTION

The Kent County Chamber of Commerce meets Jan. 23rd at 7.30 p. m., at the Court House for the purpose of electing directors and officers for 1930 and voting on the constitution and by-laws. A copy of the constitution and by-laws have been mailed to each member for their consideration.
