WASHINGTON College will open on Sept. 15 for Fall term

THOMAS ROBLEY STONE, a lawyer of Buffalo, N. Y., has presented to Washington College a portrait in pastel of his grandfather, the late Rt. Rev. William Murray Stone, who was graduated from the college in 1799.

Bishop Stone was born June 1st, 1779, on a farm near Quantico, Wicomico county. His great-grandfather was William Stone, Colonial Governor of Maryland from 1648-1753. His cousin, Thomas Stone, was a signer of the Declaration of Independence, and another cousin, John Hoskins Stone, was Governor of Maryland from 1794 to 1797. Bishop Stone was ordained priest of the Protestant Episcopal Church in 1803 and was consecrated a bishop of Maryland at a conventon of the church held in May, 1830.

THAT prompt steps should be taken to check the hordes of worthless canines roaming at large over the countrysides, committing destructive and costly depredations upon herds of sheep and poultry flocks, is the sentiment now being voiced in innumerable sections of Queen Anne's county, following a series of raids by dogs upon turkeys and lambs.

The most recent damage occurred over the week-end, when dogs killed 65 large turkeys on the Needwood farm of C. Percy Arrington, near Centreville. Six weeks ago foraging canines killed 3 lambs and a sheep from Mr. Arrington's flock.

During the last few weeks similar reports have been received from various sections of the county, indicating that stray dogs are committing heavy havoc among poultry and livestock. —Centreville Observer.

STATE BOAT, "TECH," FAILS TO SAIL

The Maryland State Press Association, as guests of State Conservation Commissioner, Swepson Earle, enjoyed a days outing on Sunday, even though the State Steamer, "Tech" refused to function Sunday morning when the party attempted to sail from Cambridge.

Commissioner Earle, and party, reached the Shore town on Saturday evening, and were joined Sunday morning by a party from the Eastern Shore and other sections of Maryland, for a cruise of the Chesapeake which was to have taken the party to Solomon's Island, for an inspection of the new Marine Laboratory under construction there. However, engine trouble developed aboard the boat and the party was held up at Cambridge all day Sunday.

Sunday morning Mayor Orem, of Cambridge, who is also editor of the Democrat News, and P. Watson Webb, editor of the Daily Banner and Record, entertained the visitors by personally conducting them on a tour of the Dochester city, winding up with a visit at the Country Club.

Among those in the party from the Eastern Shore were S. J. Shannahan, of the Easton Star-Democrat, and James E. Bird, of the Somerset Publishing Company, publishers of the Maryland and Herald, Princess Anne. Others who joined the party at Cambridge on Sunday were James P. Curley, of the Laurel Leader, and President of the Association; Senator Walter J. Mitchell and Walter J. Mitchell Jr., of the Times-Crescent, LaPlata; John B. Gontrum, Union News-Townson; Grafton Lee Brown, Marylander; Paul Stromberg, Ellicott City Times, J. Wilmer Cronin, Harford Democrat, Aberdeen.

Mr. Earle realizing that his boat was in trouble seemingly went out of his way to try to entertain his guests while they did not go down the bay as had been planned they certainly enjoyed a day's outing with Mr. Earle as their host.

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY'S 11TH ANNUAL HORSE SHOW

Queen Anne's County's Eleventh Annual Horse Show will be staged at Centreville, on Labor Day, September 7th. It is said that all classes in both showing and racing have been filled for weeks.

Eight show classes of riding and hunting horses will be featured in the program and judged in the ring. Six races, including flat racing, steeplechase racing and a sweepstakes, will also be run. All racing this year will be in the colors of the various owners represented.

Awards in all classes will be silver goblets to the winners of first honors. this practice, established some years ago, has been popular, it is said.

The program will begin promptly at one o'clock and will close at six. A dance under American Legion auspices will be held in the First Regiment Armory at Centreville in the evening.

Refreshment arrangements are in the hands of the American Legion of Queen Anne's County and booths have been arranged on the grounds to accommodate those who come early.

KENT SCHOOLS OPEN WEDNESDAY

The Public Schools will open for the Fall term on Wednesday, September 9, with the exception of the Colored Elementary Schools which will not open until Monday, Sept. 28. A Teachers' Institute will be held in the high school building in Chestertown, on Tuesday, September 8, for the white teachers in the county.

J. Donald Best was appointed instructor of Industiral Arts in the Rock Hall and Galena schools by the Kent County Board of Education at its regular meeting Tuesday. Mr. Best will succeed Arthur L. Greenwood, recently transferred to a similar post at the Chestertown High School. Mr. Best comes from Wilmington, Del., where he has taught three years in the high school of that city. He will reside in Chestertown.

Miss Anna May Beasten was named as teacher at Golt School in place of Miss Agnes Newnam, resigned.

Mrs. Annie Duyer Brown was transferred from Rock Hall to the Chestertown Elementary School, where she will fill the place of Mrs. Naomi Russell, who has been granted a six months leave of absence to recuperate her health. Miss Minnie M. Kelley was transferred from Skinner's Neck to Mrs. Brown's place at Rock Hall and Miss Pearle T. Everett, of Queen Anne's, has been named to supply the vacancy at Skinner's Neck.

Other changes have been noted by KENT NEWS heretofore.

The Board of Education heard a delegation of patrons of the Lankford Shcool, who requested that that school be kept open. The request could not be granted due to the fact that a contract for the transportation of the pupils from that area had been let.

An announcement, calling to the attention of Kent school patrons the action of the last legislature concerning school problems, was made by the Board of Education as follows:

"The last legislature changed the regulations concerning school attendance very materially. Formerly, children thirteen and fourteen years of age could lawfully work on the farm or at home in the Fall and Spring. The only school requirement was that such children should attend school for 100 consecutive days during the school year. Under the new law however all children between the ages of seven and fourteen must attend school every day the schools are in session. Children over fourteen years and under sixteen must attend school every day unless regularly and lawfully employed.

"Parents are, therefore, advised to start all children between the ages of seven and fourteen to school on the opening day.

"Parents are also notified that all text books lost or destroyed by children last year, must be replaced or paid for before the child will be given any books, reports, or promotion for the present school year.

OWING to the considerable amount of 1930 unpaid taxes the Board of Commissioners of Talbot County will attempt to have a $30,000 note renewed that was borrowed last year against the 1930 tax levy. The Board does not want to enforce tax payment this fall or winter, and rather than do this it is desired to renew the note. The money was borrowed in Baltimore.

A SPECIAL MEETING of the Easton Council on Thursday revoked the milk dealers license held by eight dairymen, out of the fifteen supply the town. This action was taken upon recommendation of the State Board of Health, who had become advised of the recent milk tests there.

The revoked licenses will remain revoked until such time as the dairymen have complied with the provisions of the milk ordinance.

Julian Chisolm Gale, Virgina Alrich Gale, Elizabeth G. Morris, John C. Morris, Matilda Gale McCullough, Roderick R. McCullough, J. Herman Gale, Edna K. Wroth, Jesse R. Gray, Richard W. Gray, J. Roy Roseberry, Susan Anna Roseberry, Mrs. J. Herman Gale.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County. In Equity. No. 2695.

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a decree assuming jurisdiction; to have the title of the land herein mentioned quieted and established and for such other relief as the case may require.

The Bill states:

1. That under the last Will and Testament of Lillian D. Kelley, late of Kent County, State of Maryland, a certified copy of said Will is filed herewith as Exhibit "A," who died March 9th, 1918, and whose last Will and Testament has been duly probated in the Orphans' Court for Kent County, State of Maryland, in Will Record J. R. C. No. 1, folio 401, and by the terms and conditions of said Will of Lillie D. Kelley, her husband, Dr. J. Horton Kelley, was devised a life estate and upon his death the said estate to be distributed among her heirs at law. Dr. J. Horton Kelley died May 25th, 1926, and the complainants in these proceedings. Mildred Duncan McFarland and Natalie Duncan Yoman are daughters of Lena Kelley Duncan intermarried with one William D. Duncan, both of whom now are deceased And the said Estalena D. Corey, William Duncan Deringer and Harry Hurtt Deringer are children of Harry Deringer, deceased, a brother of the said Lillie D. Kelley. And Mary Ireland now living in Baltimore City is a sister of the said Lillie D. Kelley, she having intermarried with one J. Herman Ireland, now deceased. And Woodland Deringer, a brother of the said Lillie D. Kelley.

2. The said Lillie D. Kelley died, seized and possessed of a Farm, located in the Second Election District of Kent County, a certified copy of said Deed is Exhibit "B."

3. That the said Lillie D. Kelley purchased said property in the year 1897 on March 30th, same having been sold under a foreclosure proceedings of a mortgage given by the said J. Horton Kelley and Lillie D. Kelley. That at the time of said mortgage sale the title for said property was held by the said J. Horton Kelley who took the title and possession of said Farm and property under a devise in the last Will and Testament of his father, John Kelley;

"I will and bequeath unto my son, John Horton Kelley, all my Real Estate lying and being in Still Pond Neck, by paying one thousand dollars to my daughter, Ann Rebecca Parrott, and one thousand dollars to my daughter, Susan Amanda Bowers."

A certified copy of said Will is filed herewith as Exhibit "D." In the above quoted paragraph of the Will of the said John Kelley the Real Estate referred to in Still Pond Neck is the Farm in question and the said J. Horton Kelley took possession of said property and paid the bequests of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars each charged against said property. The said John Kelley died in 1876 and the said J. Horton Kelley had possession of said property until said mortgage foreclosure and upon the purchase of said Farm by the said Lillie D. Kelley she and her husband, J. Horton Kelley, had title and possession of same until their respective deaths, at which time the title and possession of same has been in the complainants of the proceedings. That during the time the said Lillie D. Kelley had title to said property she executed a mortgage along with her husband to one Rachel A. Parrott on the 28th day of September, 1905, and recorded in Liber J. T. D. No. 12, folio 195, which said mortgage is still outstanding and a Lien on said property, a certified copy of said mortgage is filed herewith as Exhibit "C."

4. The said J. Horton Kelley and Lillie D. Kelley and her heirs have held the title to said farm and property in a peaceful and orderly manner for over thirty (30) years, adverse to any of the defendants or any one claiming under them to the right of title or possession to said property or any portion of same they have had actual, hostile, visible, notorious, exclusive and continuous possession of said property for a period of over thirty (30) years.

5. That under the First Paragraph of the last Will and Testament of John Kelley he devised as follows:

"First and foremost I will and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Mary Elizabeth Kelley, one-third of all my Real Estate, also all of my Household and Kitchen furniture, and the residue of my personal property to be sold to pay my debts."

The said defendants are heirs at law of Mary Elizabeth Kelley, now deceased, widow of the said John Kelley. The said Mary Elizabeth Kelley died leaving four (4) children, J. Horton Kelley and three (3) daughters; Florence Kelley, Edwina Kelley and Matilda Kelley. Florence Kelley intermarried with one William F. Wroth, both deceased, leaving a daughter, Edna K. Wroth, now living in Kent County, Maryland. Edwina Kelley intermarried with one James C. Roseberry, both now deceased, leaving a son, J. Roy Roseberry, whose wife's name is Susan Anna Roseberry, and they live in Columbia, South Carolina, and a daughter, Jesse R. Roseberry Gray who intermarried with one Richard W. Gray. They now reside in Baltimore City. Matilda Kelley intermarried with one John Thomas Gale, both of whom are now deceased, leaving children as follows: A Vernon Gale, now deceased, had intermarried with one Virginia Alrich, they having two children: Elizabeth Gale Morris, who intermarried with one John C. Morris, and Matilda Gale McCulloch, who intermarried with one Roderick R. McColloch. Julian Chisolm Gale, widower, who resides in Charleston, West Virginia. James Herman Gale is married and his wife's name is unknown to your complainants and they reside in Waynesboro, Pennsylvania. The above named heirs at law of Mary Elizabeth Kelley claim an interest in one-third of said Farm under Paragraph above referred to of the last Will and Testament of John Kelley. This claim of an interest in one-third of the Farm was not made by said defendants until about four (4) years ago when said complainants were about to sell said Farm and said sale could not be consumated since some of said defendants claimed an interest as hereinbefore set forth.

6. In the year 1927 the complainants entered into an agreement with one Isaac C. Yocum of the City of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, for the sale of said Farm but could not transfer or deed said property to the said Isaac C Yocum since some of the said defendants claimed an interest in said property That said agreement for purchase is still pending and it was deemed best to make said Isaac C. Yocum, one of the plaintiffs in these proceedings.

7. That your orators are without remedy in the premises except in the Court of Equity.

It is thereupon, this 18th day of August, 1931, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 21st day of September next, give notice to the said Julian Chisolm Gale, J. Herman Gale, J. Roy Roseberry, Susan Anna Roseberry and Mrs. J. Herman Gale, non-resident defendants, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor, on or before the 5th day of October next, to show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
