ROTARY CLUB TO VISIT HERE

The Chestertown Rotary Club will be hosts of the 34th Rotary District Conference on Monday and Tuesday. Dr. Paul E. Titsworth is the Governor of this district which is composed of 61 clubs.

The conference is composed of the President and Secretary of each club and is really a school for the officers to acquaint them with their duties as Rotary officials.

The local club has chartered the steamer John Cadwalader, of the Ericsson Line to hold the conference.

This is something new and should prove very popular this hot spell.

The boat leaves Baltimore Manday at 9 A. M. and will cruise on the Chesapeake Bay until Tuesday at 3 P. M.

A stop will be made at Tolchester Monday evening with supper at Hotel Tolchester and a sight seeing trip to Chestertown at 5.30 P. M.

Prominent speakers will address the conference. The local committee in charge is Conlyn E. Noland, J. W. Johns, and J. S. Kreeger. A. S. Turner, Jr., will act as secretary of the conference.

Dr. Paul E. Titsworth. President of Washington College and Governor the 34th Rotary District. was one of the chief speakers at the 50th District Conference at Rehoboth Beach on Tuesday last.

POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT
BUYS 1500 FORDS

The United States Post Office Department has placed an order with the Washington Branch of the Ford Motor Company for 1,500 motor truck chassis, of which 500 will be ¾ ton carrying capacity, and 1,000 of 1½ tons carrying capacity. The purchase of the motor equipment was the largest made by a Government Department since the War. With this order Ford sales to the Post Office Department during recent years reached a total of 2,900 units.

The purchase marked another step in the Department's program of building up its fleet of several thousand trucks and also to replace some of the surplus trucks turned over to the Post Office Department by the Army at the close of the War.

Deliveries are to start immediately and continue as rapidly as the bodies contracted for are ready for installation. The completed trucks will then be distributed to some 60 cities throughout the United States.

REGATTA PLANS

Outboard Marathon Race will be a big feature at the Chester River Regatta which is scheduled for August 21st and 22nd. This is a free-for-all unlimited event open to all outboard irrespective of size or class. This race will start promptly at 12,00 Noon on Saturday, August 22nd. The boat comleting the most laps of the 2½ mile course in front of the Club House at Chestertown will win the event.

The valuable Joseph M. George Trophy, which is offered for the unlimited Outboard Championship of Chester River, is to be kept permantly by the contestant who first wins this event twice.

P. C. Knox, Jr., of Washington, D. C., won the first leg on this cup driving the Sea Lion last year. Mr. Knox, when he competes this year, will find keen competition as many boats on the Chesapeake and Delaware Bays expect to take part. The reason for this keen competition is due to the fact that this is the first marathon that has been held in this part of the country and the outboards are anxious to see what kind of a record they can establish.

Another important outboard event is the Class D for the Paul W. Philips Trophy.

In addition to these important outboard events, the committee has planned a race for every boat that ever sailed the Chesapeake.

PAJAMA GIRLS WILL PARADE

The beach pajama craze has hit the Eastern Shore so hard that the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company intends to glorify the pajama girl at its carnival, according to Fred S. Russell, carnival chairman, who said a pajama parade will be held the night of September 1. Two gold prizes will be awarded, one to the winner in the class of girls from 6 to 14 years and the other for girls 14 and over.

The parade will be led by the firemen's band and judges will be stationed along the line of march down High street. Organizations of all kinds may enter contestants and individual pajama girls may enter the lists from Kent and adjoining counties.

In addition, large retail stores in Wilmington, Philadelphia and Baltimore will be asked to enter contestants wearing beach or street pajamas sold by the respective establishments.

GOOD SALE OF RAMS

The fifth Annual Ram Sale at Centreville, on July 28th, was a real success. Twenty-four rams of splendid quality were sold in short order. Bidding was brisk. The rams sold at conservative values although the prices were considered good in comparison with other farm products. The average price was $21.50, well above the average of the four other sales held this season.

This sale has been distributing good rams for five years. The results obtained from their use have established a demand for good purebred rams. More are needed. Every flock should be headed by a good muttonbred registered ram.

Preceding the sale, the rams were judged by M. C. Sherman, a breeder from Queenstown. His work as judge was closely followed by an interested group.

Hampshires seem most popular in this section. Seventeen rams of this breed averaged $23.41, while the seven Shropshires sold at an average of $17.25.

Five Hampshires and two Shropshires were purchased for use in this county. Lewis Dill, of near Worton, became the very proud owner of one of the best Hampshires. Lewis is making a fine showing with his sheep in the 4-H Clubs. Mrs. Isaac Dixon purchased twofine Hampshires while R. Nelson Stevens bought two Hamps and two Shrops for use on his lower Kent farms.

The rams sold were consigned by three well-known farm, Belair Farms at Bowie, sent ten Hampshires, Pioneer Point Farm sent seven Hamps, two of which toped the scale at 31 each. H. G. Hutton at Grighten, Md., sent seven good Shropshires. S. M. Cox, of Oxford, sold six registered Hampshire ewes at $14 each.

The sale was under the auspices of the Maryland Stockman's Association. K. A. Clark, Extension Animal Husbandman, managed the sale. County Agent McVean served as clerk of the sale.

THE Kent County soldier boys at Camp Ritchie under Major Frank B. Hines and Lieut. Herman Blackway all report a pleasant time. The nights are cool and days hot.

Next Thursday is Governor's Day.

WHERE GEORGE STOPPED HERE

The Maryland George Washington Bi-Centenial Commission, recently appointed by Governor Ritchie, with Mr. DeCourcy W. Thom as Chairman, has formed committees to carry out the work in Maryland. Mr. Alexis Skirven, of Bel Air, Md., has been made chairman of the committee to determine the roads and houses used by George Washington in the State of Maryland.

George Washington's diaries are very complete for a number of years, and he records the visits to different places within the State. He mentions in detail his trips through Rock Hall, Chestertown and Warwick, in Cecil County. The committee, however, has some difficulty inlocating the actual houses where he stoppped in these places mentioned in his diary.

For example, he states, on May 13, 1773, that he "left Annapolis after breakfast, and abt, 8 o'clock set out for Rockhall where he arrived in two hours and 25 minutes. Din'd on Board the Annapolis at Chestertown and supped and lodged at Ringold's (near Chester?). (Govr. Eden accompanied him as far as Philadelphia to attend the races there.")

"May 14, stop'd at George Town on Sassafras and dined and lodged at Mr. Dl. (Daniel) Heath's."

Can any of your readers help the committee locate Ringgold's, which is evidently between Chestertown and Georgetown on the Sassafras. If so, is the house still standing? Also, can anyone locate Mr. Daniel Heath's, which is between Georgetown and Newcastle?

Again, in 1774, on September 1st, he states: "Dined in Annapolis and lodged at Rock Hall. Sept. 2, Dined at Rock Hall (waiting for my horses) and landed at New Town on Chester." (This must have been Chestertown.)

"Sept. 3, breakfasted at Down's (Down's Cross Roads about 16 miles from Chestertown). Dined at Buck Tavern (Carson's)." This is supposed to be about 18 miles Southwest of Newcastle.

On the return trip on October 28th he "breakfasted at the Buck Tavern (expense at Carson's 5s), dined at Down's and lodged at New Town upon Chester."

"October 29, Breakfasted at Rock Hall and reached Annapolis in the afternoon (by exp. Mrs. Howard1L)."

Can any of your readers help us locate the house or houses at which he stopped in Rock Hall, Chestertown, and the location of Down's X Roads and the Buck Tavern (Carson's)

Again in 1791, on returning from Philadelphia, March 23, he "set off at 6 o'clock. Breakfasted at Warwick (Cecil Co., Md.,) bated with hay 9 miles further and dined and lodged at the house of one Worrell's (Thomas Worrell) in Chester, from whence I sent an express to Rock Hall to have boats ready for me by 9 o'clock tomorrow morning."

The next day, March 24th, he "left Chester about 6 o'clock. Before 9 I arrived at Rock Hall where he breakfasted and immediately after which we began to embark."

There are evidently some of these houses which are definitely known by some of your readers, and there are probably legends which have survived that may enable the Roads and House Committee of the Maryland George Washington Bi-Centennial Committee to definitely locate all of the places mentioned in his diary.

Any information which can be supplied by the readers of this paper, should be sent to J. Alexis Shriver, Chairman of the Committee on determining the roads and houses used by George Washington in the State of Maryland, Box 63, Bel Air, Md.

IF THERE is any consolation in it to you, the other fellow is having the same difficulty to get by that you are. He is having the same strenuous fight to keep the rent paid, meet his notes, buy a new car, put the children thru school, pay his life insurance premiums and meet all the thousand and one demands that come to him the same as yours come to you. He may, as they say put on a better front and seem to be getting by easier, but in the majority of instances it is merely because he is a better actor and is better able to conceal his effort.

POSTMASTER Smyth calls attention of the public, especially of parents, whose children are accustomed to opening boxes in the postoffice lobby. Sometimes mail is lost and children without thinking of the seriousness of it take letters and papers which do not belong to them. This is a serious offense and punishable with fine and imprisonment.

BASEBALL today at 2.45 at the Washington College Athletic Field between Kennedyville and Rock Hall.

ELECTED FIRE CHIEF

At a meeting of the active firemen of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co. held Thursday evening Herman D. Blackway was elected chief in place of C. Arthur Bacon resigned. Mr. Blackway has been first lieutenant and has had considerable experience in fire fighting. He will make a competent officer and will have the warm support of the company. Barber Bartley is next in command.

DOES IT PAY ?

Dr. J. T. Power has a farm near Rock Hall from which he threshed 654 bushels of wheat off 17 acres. He kept a strict account of the cost of growing this wheat and the result was $12 per acre. The crop was sold for $268.14 while the expenses were $210, leaving a profit $58.14.

DR. ERROL L. FOX

Word received from Washington College authorities indicates that Dr. Errol L. Fox, professor of chemistry, particulars of whose recent death in Germany was at first a mystery, died of acute appendicitis, in spite of efforts of two Munich physicians to save his life. His body is now being brought to this country by his wife, Mrs. Ethel Fox, who is librarian at the local institution. Dr. Fox recently made an elaborate collection of products manufactured by the duPont Company of Wilmington, samples of which are now on display in the college museum. He went to Germany to study the dye industry. Several employes of the duPont Company are former students of the late chemist.

Dr. T. Howard Fowler was with Dr. Fox and wrote his sister the above circumstances. Dr. Simpers cherishes a postal received from Dr. Fox the day the NEWS published his death.

Word was received from Mrs. Fox this week by Dr. Titsworth saying that she would arrive in New York Saturday, August 1st, with the body of Dr. Fox and interment would take place at Akron, Ohio. Mrs. Fox expects to resume her duties as librarian at Washington College.

ROCK HALL CARNIVAL

The annual firemen's carnival for the benefit of the Rock Hall Volunteer Fire Company started Thursday, July 30th, and last for 10 days.

Aside from the usual attractions each night a number of special attractions have been arranged.

On the closing night a number of valuable prizes will be given away. The firemen's parade will be held on Wednesday night at which time fire companies from many neighboring towns will parade with bands and compete for prizes.

THE Chestertown Bank of Maryland has sold to Miss Laura J. Rees the Paul Massey farm for $7,500. This farm contains 150 acres. a few miles of Chestertown, and in fine condition. Howard D. Rees and family will remove there.

THE 336-acre farm of Charles A. Bogle, of Wilmington, Del., located near Chesapeake City, has been bought by Mrs. Harold K. Bailey, for $28,000. Mrs. Bailey already owned a 300-acre farm adjoining the farm she has just bought.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made of an auction sale on Friday and Saturday nights of this week at Thompson's Store, Up-Town. The store goods are being sold out to make room for an A. & P. Store which will shortly open there under the management of J. Hydie Thompson.

DR. H. B. SIMMOSS has several hundred Gladiolas in bloom on his lot near Barber Bartley's fine home. He also has others which have been in blossom besides other growing plants.

WORK on the Chestertown Armory started Monday with the laying off the building and digging the cellar.

J. R. DONOVAN, brother of Rev. Avery Donovan, who was the agent of the D. M. & V. Railroad Company at Snow Hill, 45 years ago, and who has held various responsible positions with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company since he left there, has retired from the service.

ROCK HALL Cannery is open paying 20 cents per basket for tomatoes in the patch.

CAMBRIDGE FAIR will be held on August 4, 5, 6 and 7, day and night. See adv. in this issue.

BETTERTON dances are very popular.
