HEALTHMOBILE TO BE IN KENT

The Maryland State Department of Health is placing the Healthmobile in Kent from Saturday, August 1 to Saturday, August 15, inclusive, according to the schedule given below. With the Health mobile will be a children's specialist, a dentist, and a public health nurse.

This work is being done by the State Bureau of Child Hygiene in cooperation with the Kent County Health Department and is for the purpose of intensifying the work of the annual preschool summer round-up throughout the entire county.

County physicians, Parent-Teachers' Association and other groups are lending their support to the undertaking. It is expected that all children who are entering school for the first time this fall will be given thorough examination as well as other infants and preschool age children. Results of these examinations are sent to the family physicians in each case. There is no cost whatever in connection with the examination by the Healthmobile staff and parents are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to bring their children for thorough inspection so they may enter their school term without physical handicap if possible.

The county's schedule is as follows:

READY FOR KIDDIES

Beginning within the next two weeks, seventeen children from the tenemant district of New York will cone here to be entertained for at least two weeks by Kent county housewives.

They will be sent by the Tribune Fresh Air Fund of New York which has appointed Mrs. Nell C. Westcott secretary of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce, as county chairman. Each child will be given a physical examination within twenty-four hours of the time the group will entertain for the Eastern Shore, accompanied by a special worker from New York.

Hostesses in this vicinity who will entertain the children will be: Mesdames Joseph Ryan, Allan Urie, C. Ray Sadtler, W. O. Selby, Stewart Edwards, Herman Hill, Jesse Downey and Thomas McCubbin, of Rock Hall; Linwood A. Sutton and John Schauber, Chestertown; Olive Greenwood, Samuel Emory and John White, Fairlee; Lotan Rasin, Betterton; Hillary Akers, Chesapeake City, and Marion Parsons, Still Pond.

The more steps and degrees there are the more delight and honor is there is on the top.—Montaigne.
