WOOLEYHAN HOME DAMAGED BY LIGHTNING

During the thunder storm Wednesday afternoon, lightning hit the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jospeh H. Wooleyhan, who reside on a farm on the road leading from Warwick to Sassafras, Md. The bolt of lightning entered through the roof in the rear of the house and tore all the plastering from the walls, knocked one window frame out, and passed out thru the roof of the back porch and reduced one of the porch columns to splinters. Fortunately the house was not set on fire by the lightning due possibly to the heavy downpour of rain.
