LOCAL NOTES.....

THE MOON will be full Monday.

CHESTERTOWN library will be closed July 4th.

A DOZEN MEN are in Kent and vicinity taking traffic for the Chesapeake Bay Bridge Commission.

MAGNIFICENT blooming hollyhawks are to be seen in profession about Chestertown now.

OFFICER STORM, one of the State Motor Traffic Policemen, came out this week with the new summer helmet. It may be comfortable, but certainly is not very becoming to our good looking motor cop.

EDWARD SQUARES has been appointed dog constable in the First district in place of George Smith, resigned.

THE Del-Mar-Va Peninsula Fertilizer Association are holding their Convention today at the Atlanta Hotel, Ocean City, Md Those attending from Chestertown. are W. W. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ford, Miss Kathryn Ford and C. M. Newcomb and family.

EFFECTIVE July 1. 213 postoffies in the United States will be advanced in grades and 409 lowered. The postoffice at Port Deposit. which is located in Cecil county, Md.. was reduced from a second class postoffice to third class. The postoffice at Galena. Kent county. Md.. and that at Hillsboro. Caroline county, Md., have been reduced from third class postpostoffices to fourth class offices.

AN EXAMINATION for rural carrier at Golts, Md., will be held at Middletown, Del.. applications closing July 10, 1931.

DANFORTH CANN, colored, was held for Court by Justice Wheatley Thursday night. on a charge of larceny of gasoline from a tractor belonging to Mr. Gladsky. of Sandy Bottom.

FIVE white births and seven colored were reported for the month. All cases were attended by physicians.

THREE TEACHERS sailed Wednesday for a seven-weeks' tour of Europe, on an educational trip with the American Inter-Collegiate Tours. They are Miss Margaret Cooper, of Chestertown, Md.. member of the faculty of Harrington High School; Miss Virginia Swain. of Bridgeville, of the Harrington High School faculty, and Miss Evelyn Long, of Laurel. a member of the faculty of Frederica High School. Miss Cooper is a graduate of Washington College and the other two teachers of the Women's College, University of Delaware. They sailed on the Vulcania, Cunard liner.

ACTIVE MEMBERS of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company and a number of guests enjoyed a crab feast at Quaker Neck Wharf Thursday evening.

Included in the list of guests entertained by the firemen were those men who took part in the minstrel show given by the active men in the spring and who are not on the roll of the smoke-eaters.

Captain Herman Blackway was chairman of the committee in charge of the arrangements. Other members of the committee were William Goodman, Ben Hessey. Foster Brown and Harry Fowler.

JUNE PDOVES ITS CLAIM TO BRIDES

An exceptionally large number of couples seeking marriage journeyed to Chestertown Gretna Green during the week. The influx has notably increased since June 1. All the couples were married by local clergymen.

Couples and their ages from Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland include the following:

James P. Kerrigan. 21, and Anna E. McMahon, 21; Charles Webster Taylor, 25, and Arabella Hammond, 18; Earl Hulson, 21, and Margaret Hitchens, 18; Arthur W. Lane. 50, and Sara Webster Davis, 46; Morton J. Sylvester, 33, and Bera Beekley. 22; Felix C. Austin, 21, and Ruth Searles, 20; all of Wilmington.

John P. Chantry, 37. Daytona Beach, Fla., and Edith L. Mendenhall. 31, Wilmington; John Edward O'Neal, 29, Galena, Md., and Ella McCoy Meeks, 18, Chestertown; John Edward Squires. 28, and Emma Everett, 26, Centreville, Md.; George C. Tracey, 47, Englishtown, N. J.. and Alice Louise Goodman, 18, Chestertown; Charles L. Pippin, 21, Crumpton. Md., and Ethel G. Clark, 19, Betterton. Md.

THE New Lyceum is as cool as your home these hot nights.

THE strawberry growers estimate the crop worth $1,500,000 to Somerset, Worcester, Wicomico and Caroline.

NEXT TUESDAY there will be a showing of fine dresses at the Voshell House parlors by Dover merchants. They are priced at $3.95. See adv. in this issue.

COLLEGE SENIORS ARE NAMED TO POSITIONS

Washington College authorities have announced the following appointments of Seniors who received their diplomas at the annual commencement exercises held June 8:

Miss E. Louise Crouse, of Denton, will teach in the Caroline County high school. Miss Marian Norwood Graham, of Marion Station, will become a member of the Berlin High School faculty, Worcester County Miss Geraldine Rogers Harwood. Chestertown, has accepted a position as critic in the Radio Keith Corporation, New York City. Carter M. Hickman Roberts, will teach in the Sudlersville High School. Nelson F. Hurley, Woodbury, N. J., will become a member of the Federalsburg High School. Edwin Theodore Luckey. Baltimore, goes with the seniaric writing department of the Radio Keith Corporation at Hollywood, Cal. Vance A. McCabe, Frankford, Del., has been elected principal of the Frankford High School. Miss Mary E. Morgan, Queen Anne, will teach at Cordova, Talbot County. Miss Edith Stevens Rees, Chestertown, will be director of physical education in the Easton High School. Miss Anna Martha Richardson, Denton, will teach in Caroline County. Lee Roy Sherkey, Snow Hill, goes with Radio Keith Corporation as student manager. Howard Beachamp Owens, Betterton, will take a special course at Columbia University.

ENTER LITTERS in pork production contest. The litter contest, fostered by the Maryland Stockmen's Association and the Extension Service, is a means of stimulating economical pork production through the use of improved methods and using the idea of competition as a means of creating interest. The county prize is $25.00 to the winning litter. There are also $100.00 State prize and a $75.00 second State prize. These prizes plus the competition stimulates the use of best methods of producting pork economically.

KENT NEWS $1.50 PER YEAR.

WEDDING EVENTS

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Rasin, of Kennedyville, have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Anna C. Rasin. to Dr. J. William Urie. 3 West Summit Avenue, Richardson Park. The wedding will take place July 9. Miss Rasin is a teacher in the Kent County, Md., schools. Dr. Urie who has been living near Wilmington for the past year, is a son of Dr. and Mrs. James William Urie, of Kennedyville, Md. The wedding will take place there.

Following the wedding Dr. and Mrs. Urie will take a motor trip and on their return. they will make their home at Richardson Park.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. McCormick. of Lansdown, Pa.. announce the marriage of their daughter, Marie Elizabeth. to Bernard Wilson Cochran, of Galena, son of Mrs. A. Wilson Cochran. on June 20, 1931, at Landsdowne. Pa.

The Rev. William L. Hess, pastor of the Galena M. E. Church, officiated at the marriage Saturday afternoon, in that town, of Miss Margaret G. Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Helen G. Wilson, 2301 West Seventeenth St., Wilmington. and Samuel C. Hanby, 207 Philadelphia Pike. The Rev. Mr. Hess was formerly pastor of the Hillcrest M. E. Church.

Miss Mary Hope Wilson, younger sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. Charles B. Allen, was the matron of honor. Mr. Allen acted as best man.

Mrs. Hanby was graduated from the Tower Hill School last year, and recently completed a business course at Beacom College. Mr. Hanby will be graduated with the class of June, 1932, at the Wharton School of Commerce and Finance of the University of Pennsylvania.

ALBERT Dowling had his tonsils moved on Tuesday of last week at Maryland General Hospital. Finding that healing was not taking place as expected it was decided to take him again this Tuesday, but on Monday hemorrhages began and he was hurried to the hospital. the hemorrhages continuing while on the boat to an alarming extent and leaving him very weak.

LAST CALL for the 10-ton per acre contest.—Any growers of tomatoes in Kent county who wish to stimulate their interest in tomato growing this year are invited to compete in the Ten Ton Per Acre Contest, fostered by the Extension Service and the Tri-State Packers Association. With the tomato market prospects no brighter than they are it would seem the only hope for profit in this year's crop comes from heavy yields per acre on the reduced acreage in the county. It is estimated that the present acreage is some where between 60 and 65 per cent. of that of 1930.

The last date for entries in this contest is July 1st.

Major O. H. Saunders. Governor's Island. N. Y., attended the High School Commencement Exercises at Washington College. Friday. June 19. his nephew Wm. O. J. Carroll being one of the graduates. He also spent the night with his sister. Mrs. Geo. A. Carroll.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES

Judge Lewin W. Wickes and wife, of Chestertown, are attending the Bar Association Convention at Atlantic City.

The condition of Alwyn M. Culp, who is at Church Home in Baltimore, is unimproved.

Mrs. Albert Leffingwell and children, of Scarsdale, New York, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Urie, Chestertown.

Mrs. Chas. W. Whaland, Chairman of the Kent County Democratic State Central Committee, was taken ill last Sunday and has been quite sick this week. She was very much better yesterday.

Mrs. Nora Maxwell, of "Worton Manor," president of the Kent County Health Association, was taken ill Sunday and has been quite sick this week.

Miss Alice Rote, head of the Physicide Education Department of the Y. W. C. A., New Brunswick, N. J., is attending a conference of teachers of Physical Education in Poland, Maine, for two weeks.

John Loud Morris, of McDonogh School, Baltimore, is at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Loud, Worton.

Miss Elizabeth Morris, of Samuel Ready School, Baltimore, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Loud. Worton. She won a substantial money prize for leading the intermediate class in household duties and deportment.

Miss Flora Wheatley is assisting her brother at Tolchester in his manifold duties as superintendent.

Miss Elizabeth Sutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sutton, of near Kennedyville, has been teaching the past year at Smyrna, Del., has accepted a position in Baltimore in social service work.

James W. Chapman, Esq., and daughter, were week-end guests of relatives here,

Dr. H. B. Simmons and bride arrived home from their honeymoon on Thursday evening.

Miss Nelie Walker left Chestertown this week to spend sometime in Spain with friends.

Franklin Wood was taken to Maryland General Hospital and operated on for appendicitis. He is doing very well.

Miss Erma Patrick. formerly of Chestertown. was one of the fifty-three young ladies who received diplomas from the Girls' Vocational School in Baltimore last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick completed a two-year course in Personal Hygiene, in one year by attending both day and night classes, a priviledge given exceptional students. She has a position in a Charles Street Beauty Salon.

Mrs. E. T. Richardson, who has been the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson R. Russell, here, has returned to her home in Baltimore.

Mrs. Harry Lindsay and daughters of Media, Pa., have been the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bacon.

Joseph Lewis, Jr., of Washington, D. C.,, is a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis, here.

Miss Betty Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis, of Chestertown, is in Washington, D. C., as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dumont Lambert.

Mrs. Thomas W. Perkins underwent an operation Tuesday at the Church Home and Infirmary and Miss Edith Harley was operated upon Wednesday at the Maryland General Hospital for appendicitis.

Both cases were of an emergency nature.

Richard Carvel was the guest of Mrs. Carvel at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kratzer, here, over the week-end.

Roland Corey visited New York City the first part of the week on business.

Mrs. Edmund Shuman and Mrs. Raymond Cox, of Clarendon, Va., were the week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Cooper.

Albert, Jr., and Jean Brotemarkle, children of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brotemarkle, of Cambridge, are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Frs. D. B. Kendall, here.

Prof. Louis Thibodeau, of Waterbury, Conn., is the guest of his daughter, Miss Betty Thibodeau.

MEXICAN BEAN BEETLE.—People growing beans should be on the lookout for the Mexican Bean Beetle. They are readily controlled by stomach positions. The Copper Arsenic dusts are very effective but are not safe to use on string beans, due to the possibility of some poison adhering to pods.

What ever material is used care should be taken to get the dust or spray on the underside of the leaves, since this is where Beetles do most of their work.

Head Waiter—What's that chap at the corner table want?

Waiter—Says he wants a little of everything.

H. W.—Make it hash.

Mrs. Ella P. Robinson teacher in Chestertown Elementary School and William Willis, teacher in High School will leave Monday on an automobile trip to California. They are planning to take a southern route going out, stopping at Atlanta some time with Mrs. Robinson's son, Allan who is working with an engineering Co., in New Mexico. From there they will tour California and come back through the mid Western States.

Grace Brown, who lives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. Clark Stoops, in Quaker Neck, was taken to Easton Hospital in the local ambulance for an operation for appendicitis. Viola Biggers, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kinsey, of Chestertown, was taken to the same hospital for an appendix operation.

Robert D. Wilson and family, of Landsdowne, near Philadelphia, have moved down on their farm in Broad Neck, on Lankford's Bay, for the summer.

Francis Hurlock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurlock, formerly of Chestertown, was president of his class which graduated in Cambridge High School last week. He also won the medal for good citizenship or courtesy.

Rev. D. J. Moore and wife, of Millboro, Del., have been visiting friends in Kent.

Dumont Lambert, a member of the Washington police forcer, with his wife, visited relatives here over the week-end.

Prof. Blackiston Wroth, of Georggia, is the guest of his mother and sister.

John Alderson, a former Washington College graduate, now with the R. K. O. as director of a theatre near New York, spent several days this week in Chestertown.

Mrs. Fred. G. Livingood and children will spend the summer at their home in Myerstown, Pa., while Dr. Livingood is teaching in the summer school at Seton Hill College, Greensburg, Pa.

Miss Mamie Hatcherson, of New York, was the week-end guest of her mother, Mrs. C. J. Hatcherson.

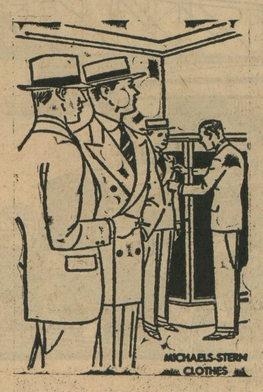
Miss Ida Jackson, of Wilmington, Del., was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Allen.

Misses Mary Ellen and Henrietta Brown left Chestertown on Sunday for Salisbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Groves and Mrs. Elizabeth Baxter motored to Bloomsburg, Pa., and spent the week-end the guests of Mrs. Phoebe Creasy.

Morgan Browne, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Browne, of Baltimore, is spending sometime with his grandfather, Thomas W. Trew, in Broad Neck.

Miss Freda Dorf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.Samuel Dorf, entertained a number of young friends at a party on Friday evening in honor of her promotion from the elementary school in Chestertown.



If You Are Tired Of "Wild" Claims

You'll be glad to seek a pleasant repose in a clothing department where the wildest claims come from the customers and not the salesmen.

We, naturally, cannot help it if one of our customers sits on your porch this evening and tells you that this is the greatest clothing establishment on earth.

We can only show you the clothing and the values that prompted the enthusiasm which, in your case, may be contagious.

Summer Suits

Which include Beautiful, Tropical Worsteds Flannels, Mohair, Palm Beach, Linen and Seersucker

$12.00 to $20.00

NEW LYCEUM THEATRE

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

MONDAY and TUESDAY
JUNE 29 and 30
"CHARLIE CHAN CARRIES ON"
WARNER OLAND
Added — Comedy, Karl Dane and George K. Arthur in "Dizzy Dates," Act and Cartoon.

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY
JULY 1 and 2
JEANETTE MACDONALD
and
JOE E. BROWN
"THE LOTTERY BRIDE"
Added — Comedy "I'll Take That One," Act and RKO Cartoon.

FRIDAY and SATURDAY
JULY 3 and 4
EN
IORDE'
"Wife
and

The James Adams Floating Theatre

COMES TO ROCK HALL

for the week of June 29th to July 4th and will present on Monday

"CHICKENS PREFERRED"

Tuesday
"THE LOVE TEST"

Wednesday
"THE AWAKENING OF JOHN SLATER"

Thursday
"LOVE AND POLITICS"

Friday
"WHAT ANN BROUGHT HOME"

Saturday
"GYPSY SWEETHEART"

Admission - - - - 20c, 35c, 50c

The performance start promptly at 8'15 P. M.

SPECIAL

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION

On The Beautiful Chesapeake Bay

A ROMANTIC MOON
SNAPPY MUSIC
BALMY BREEZES

Aboard The Motorship
"GOV. ALBERT C. RITCHIE"

Make Up A Party And Do Not Miss This Opportunity For An Enjoyable Evening.

Boat Leaves Matapeake, Kent Island

TUESDAY, JUNE 30, 1931

At 9.00 P. M.

Tickets $.50 per Person

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_27_1-0225