BAY RESORTS AGAIN ACTIVE

The opening summer season finds Tolchester bright with fresh white and green paint, its bath houses refurnished, its beach prepared to offer amusement to more vacationists than have ever before visited it in one season.

This year the resort is featuring its championship miniature golf course and a large number of picnic booths erected along the ravines.

At Betterton the Business Men's Association has completed a number of improvements, which will not only add much to the pleasure and comfort of the guests but will prove attractive additions to the bay-side resort. Parking space has been increased, new cement pavements laid in sections where there were none before, a modern comfort station for the accommodation of tourists and day visitors completed, and additional facilities for the safety and pleasure of guests have been provided on the bathing beach.

Chestertown, Rock Hall, Cliff City, Quaker Neck, Georgetown and other places offer advantages to the seekers after fresh air and bathing facilities.

LUMBERMEN'S BANQUET

The Tri-State Unit of the Pennsylvania Lumbermen's Association will hold their annual June dinner at the Hotel Rigbie on Saturday, June 20th at 6 P. M., standard time. About 100 to 125 Lumbermen and their employees are expected. This is the third dinner held at the Hotel Rigbie and a real Eastern Shore menu is served. Soft shell crabs and good old Maryland chicken being the features of the bill.

The dinner this year will be given as a testimonial affair to James T. Eliason, Jr., of New Castle, Delaware, President of the Pennsylvania Lumbermen's Association. The Tri-State Unit takes in territory in Pennsylvania, Delaware and Eastern Shore of Maryland. A. M. Culp, of Chestertown, is chairman, and Howard Turner, secretary.

The program includes a musical entertainment, speaking and dancing. The principal speaker will be United States Senator Townsend, of Delaware, who is a lumberman.

"DAY BREAK" AT NEW LYCEUM

"Daybreak," new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer talkie, which shows at the New Lyceum Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, June 22 and 23, will present the most be-uniformed star the motion picture business has known.

Ramon Novarro, hero of Dr. Arthur Schnitzler's gay love story of Vienna before the war, has worn the uniforms of more armies, it is said, than any other actor of either stage or screen.

When he appears as an amorous lieutenant of His Majesty's Guards in "Daybreak" it will be but one of nearly forty times that he has appeared in the guise of a soldier.

Other appearances of this sort include "The Prisoner of Zenda" (which launched him as a star,) "Scaramouche," "The Student Prince," "Thy Name Is Woman," "Devil May Care," "The Midshipman" and "The Flying Fleet."

Those familiar with Novarro's deft type of acting are very interested in his assignment to an Arthur Schnitzler story. Perhops no modern writer is this man's peer as a creator of highly sophisticated, always amusing and always dramatic love scenes. It will be recalled that one of Schnitzler's early successes was "The Affairs of Anatol," still considered by experts as a classic of its kind.

To preserve the full Continental flavor of the story, direction was assigned to the distinguished French director, Jacques Feyder. A strong cast includes the popular stage star, Helen Chandler, Jean Hersholt, C. Aubrey Smith, William Bakewell, Karen Morley, Kent Douglass, Glenn Tryon, Clyde Cook and others.

THE firemen's carnival at Sudlersville began last night and will continue until June 29th inclusive. Parade nights will be June 22nd for comic and firemen's parade Wednesday, June 24th. Something every night. Full prizes. See adv. in this issue.

THE Chestertown travelers in Europe have been heard from. Dr. Titsworth sent a radio to the local Rotary Club and said he had "some weather" while on the boat James L. Bacchus and S. Scott Beck, Jr., have both been neard from by their parents and report wonderful time on ship and safe arrival in Europe.

ROLPH'S WHARF, on Chester River, is a popular place for swimming and camping parties. Six young Chestertown ladies are spending this week there under the watchful care of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Evans.

THERE WERE over 2,000 at the State Poultry meeting in Queen Anne's Thursday. Mrs. Raskob made a most gracious hostess and Pioneer Point Farms never looked prettier. Lunch was served under a tent by the Legion.

THE Kennedyville cannery is busy putting up asparagus for which they pay $1.25 per dozen. This cannery is operated by F. O. Mitchell & Bro. They expect to run balance of June. This plant will operate on 650 acres of corn.

FOX'S 5c and $1.00 store on Cross street, Chestertown, is advertising in this issue of KENT NEWS some real bargains for next two weeks.

MANY PASTORS ARE CHANGED

No changes were made in the pastorate in the two Wilmington churches in the announcement of assignments Monday at the closing session of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church held in Starr M. P. Church, Baltimore.

The Rev. J. L. Ward returns to First Church and the Rev. R. W. White returns to the Pennsylvania. There were 37 changes involved in the assignment of pastors in Maryland, Delaware, District of Columbia and Virginia.

The next Conference meets in Pocomoke City. The limit in President's term of office was changed from three to five years.

Among the 18 ministerial delegates chosen to General Conference was Dr. E. A. Sexsmith and among the lay delegates was Thos. D. Bowers, both from Christ M. P. Church.

Prior to the closing of the conference, the birth control question bobbed up for considerable criticism and discussion. Protest against indorsement of birth control by a committee of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America was made by a committte of the Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church at closing sessions of the conference in Starr Church.

The conference committee also protested against race-track gambling in Maryland, declared it loved the Anti-Saloon League "for the enemies it has made," and welcomed the League's representatives to the conference and in "our churches."

The report also declared that the metropolitan press was the "exponent of prohibition opposition ranging all the way from absolute repeal of the amendment to radical modification of the present law." The committee noted in this connection tha "we at least have this advantage, that on this issue they are not our friends and we have nothing to expect of them."

The appointments announced Monday night are:

Group Chairmen—A. W. Ewell, W. F. Litsinger, G. E. Leister, J. L. Nichols, E. A. Sexsmith, R. W. White, E. H. Wareheim, C. M. Elderdice, C. E. Dryden, Carroll Maddox, J. H. Lynch, R. Y. Nicholson, J. A. Dudley.

EVENING SUN BAND TO BE IN CHESTERTOWN

The Evening Sun Newsboys Band will be in Chestertown on Monday, July 13, to give one of their delightful concerts. They will spend the night in Chestertown and then continue on down the Eastern Shore. Their trip to Chestertown is being sponsored by the Chestertown Rotary Club.

LOCAL SCHOOL ARE CHAMPIONS

Chestertown High School won the interscholastic baseball championship of the Eastern Shore on the neutral Easton High School diamond Monday, when a pitchers' battle between Coleman and Gillis resulted in a 7 to 6 defeat being handed Mardela High School.

The tilt was staged under direction of the Playground Athletic League of Maryland and the State title contest will be played with Hyattsville High School, Western Shore champs, at Elkton.

RURAL WOMEN'S SCHOOL

The following women are attending the Rural Women's Short Course at College Park this year:

Mrs. Wilbur Morris, Mrs. L. A. Sutton, Mrs. Walter Taylor, Mrs. Elwood Fowler, Flatland Club.

Mrs. Wm. Walter Morris, Miss Louisa Travers, Fairlee Club.

Mrs. Frank Urie, Mrs. Walter Wirts, Rock Hall club.

Mrs. Elmer Thomas, Betterton Club.

Mrs. Jane Chaires, Mrs. Audrey Kaufman, Chestertown Club.

Mrs. E. V. Walbert, Mrs. Aubrey Faucett, Miss Genevieve Brown, Miss Evelyn Brown, Quaker Neck Neighborhood Club.

Mrs. Wilbur Morris will receive a certificate for having attended full time for four years.

Mrs. Frank Urie has attended six years.

THE game of baseball as now played in Kent by the various local League puts the game at the top of wholesome athletic sports. The contests are waged with considerable friendly rivalry and are enjoyed by large audiences as well as giving pleasure to the players. Rock Hall is at the top of the Chesapeake League and won this place by persistent and creditable playing. They have elegant grounds, good management and loyal support from the home folks. Kennedyville, Galena and Millington as well as Church Hill will do their best to dislodge Rock Hall.

JOINS THE ATHLETICS

Joseph Warren Carey, Jr., Washington College sophomore and star pitcher of the Rock Hall nine in the Chesapeake Bay League, Wednesday signed with Connie Mack's Athletics and left with the Champions for Chicago.

Carey, southpaw, will probably be used as a batting practice hurler for the A's the rest of this season. He will return to Washington College in the fall where he is a Junior.

Carey was given a tryout at Shibe Park on Tuesday by Earl Mack and following the workout signed a contract with the World's Champions.

THE NATIONAL Convention of Junior Order met in Baltimore this week. Charles N. Satterfield was on the reception committee and helped arrange the program. Wm. F. Malin and others also attended.

THE poultry plant at Pioneer Point in Queen Anne's, was decorated for the State Poultry Field Day with one hundred and sixteen ribbons won by John Moffett, the manager of the Poultry Department of the Pioneer Point Farms and a former resident of Lynch. These ribbons have been won by the Moffett birds at various shows and exhibitions since 1914. More than half of the collection of one hundred and sixteen ribbons represent either sweepstakes awards or first prizes.

J. S. KREEGER, Chestertown jeweler, is prepared to show you a fine line for graduation gifts.

ALUMNI HOLD FINE BANQUET

The annual banquet of the alumni of Chestertown High School took place on Thursday night last at High School.

Cor. Sec., Dorthea Baxter.
Treasurer, Wilbur Morris.

THE Chester River Yacht and Country Club defeated a golf team from the Green Hill Country Club, Salisbury, 28½ to 7½ in the opening game of the Peninsula Golf League here last Saturday.

Sixteen men from the Newark Country Club will be entertained by Chester River Yacht and Country Club golfers on Sunday at the local course. The match is a return engagement for the one played several weeks ago in Newark. At the Newark meeting the teams were tied, 21 to 21, at the end of the match.

James G. Metcalfe and Dr. G. H. Dana will play for the Spring Handicap Championship of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club and the right to a leg on the President's Cup.

Metcalfe reached the finals by winning over D. W. Ingersoll and Dana advanced by virtue of a default victory over Claude E. Truslow.

DR. H. BENGE SIMMONS WEDDED

Announcement is made of the marriage Thursday, June 18th, of Dr. H. Benge Simmons, prominent local physician, and Miss Anna B. Gehr, of Perryville, Md.

The wedding ceremony performed at noon by the Rev. R. H. Hoover at the home of Miss Catherine Gehr, sister of the bride, in Perryville.

Dr. Simmons, who is president of the Peoples Bank, and his bride will return to Chestertown after a short wedding trip and reside at his home on Spring avenue.

MARIO CAPPELLI, celebrated Italian-American tenor, will give a sacred concert in the Chestertown M. E. Church on Sunday evening, June 28th, at 7.30 o'clock. Signor Capvelli sang at the same church on May 12th and his concert was so well received that it was decided to have him return.

The whole program on the evening of June 28th will be musical. No admission will be charged but an offering for the singer will be received.

JOHN BARTLEY'S furniture store opposite Voshell House has a full stock of rugs, porch rockers, swings, etc.

THE Talbot Board of Education has appointed Edith Stevens Rees, of Kent county a member of the faculty of the Easton High School. Miss Rees was the honor student at Washington College this year, achieving the highest mark in a class of 43.

THE Baldwin Electrical Corporation, owned by George W. Baldwin, of Chestertown, opened a branch store in Centreville in the Sunset Pharmacy building, on Water St.

Frigidaire refrigerators, Maytag Washers, Protane gas for cooking, electrical supplies and wiring will be handled by this corporation. Harry Bishop Keith will be the office manager.
