KENT COUNTY LOCAL NOTES

ROCK HALL

Mrs. Charles D. Wood is suffering from neuralgia of the face.

Miss Bessie Willson, while a guest of Baltimore friends, was taken ill of pneumonia and became a patient in St. Agnes Hospital.

Stephen McCrea, a member of the senior class at the High School cut a foot with an axe a few days ago and several stitches were required to close the wound.

Another serious accident came near causing the death of little two and half year old Jack, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kendall. While returning from Easton with his mother and grandmother, Mrs. Bartus Carter, on Tuesday of last week, the child opened the car door and fell out on his head causing a slight fracture of the skull. He recovered consciousness and began taking nourishment on Friday at Easton Hospital where he was at once taken after the accident. He will be brought home Friday.

Two small citizens have arrived in Piney Neck, Burton Conoway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith, and a little son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vansant.

Mrs. Edward Rodney has returned from Bustleton, Pa., where she was a winter guest of her daughter, Mrs. Damon Rollison.

Mrs. William Davis has returned to her home in Bustleton.

Miss Thelma Downey will finish her course at Maryland General Hospital this month and become a graduate nurse in May.

Miss Clara Joiner has finished her studies at Beacom College in Wilmington and will receive her diploma at the next graduation period.

J. Bird Jacquette has been under a doctor's care for a week being treated for influenza.

Mrs. Joseph Viskovich went to Baltimore Monday after notification of the death of a sister.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Jacob gave them a shower last Saturday evening, the presentation taking place at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jacob. The many beautiful presents included rugs, pictures, decorative linens, silver and glassware. The evenig was spent with music and games. Cake and lemonade were served.

GALENA

Mrs. Samuel Moulton and daughters, Helen and Alice, of Marshallton, and Errol Masten, of Wilmington, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Linda Walls.

Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Hungerford, of Georgetown, returned home Tuesday after spending a few days with her mother. Mrs. Walmsley accompanied them home for a visit.

The Semper Fidelis Sunday School are planning a St. Patrick Day party in the Chapel on Tuesday evening, March 17th.

Rev. and Mrs. Ivanhoe Willis and Miss Campbell, of Wilmington, visited friends in town on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hicks moved on Saturday to their home in Newark, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schelts are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a fine baby girl born last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Redding, of near town, were Sunday visitors in Still Pond with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Caldwell recently spent a few days in Wilmington with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Umflet.

MARCH 22ND, TEMPERANCE SUNDAY

At a meeting of the Kent County W. C. T. U. held in Chestertown this week, it was decided to request the ministers and superintendents of Sunday schools of Kent county to especially observe Temperance Sunday, March 22nd, in all departments of the Schools.

It is believed to be of the utmost importance that the youth of our generation should be taught and the evils of all intemperance.

St. Paul's Church

The monthly parish meeting and supper of St. Paul's Parish will be held at the rectory on Tuesday at 6.30 P. M. instead of Monday the usual time.

Women's Home Economics Club will meet at 2.30 P. M. at Mrs. Harry Fallowfield's. The last year's officers continue for this year. President, Mrs. G. B. Chaires; vice president, Mrs. J. D. McVean; secretary-treasurer, Edythe Hartman.

Dr. G. I. Humphreys, President of High Point College, N. C. preached a fine sermon in Christ M. P. Church Thursday evening. Rev. Mr. White, of Peninsula Church Wilmington delighted his hearers here Monday and Tuesday evenings. The extra services have been well attended and resulted in much good. There was one conversion.

MILLINGTON

Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson is quite sick at her home on Sassafras St.

Mrs. Tilden Brice, Sr., of Baltimore, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Merritt Brice on Monday last.

Miss Margaret Bowers, of Elkton, was a week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Bowers.

Corbet Jones, of Pennsgrave, N. J., spent the past week with his family in Millington.

Mrs. George Higman and son, of Milford, Del., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alenda Smith.

While returning from Chestertown on Saturday night John H. Tobin and C. A. Tobin met with a serious accident. While standing in the road trying to avoid an automobile, Mr. Tobin slipped and fell and had three ribs fractured and Mr. Turner had a slight mark on the face. The driver of the other car got away without stopping to investigate.

The Millington Volunteer Fire Co. was called on Sunday afternoon to the home of Wm. H. Burris on account of a slight chimney fire, which was soon extinguished. The damage was slight. The same company was called to Crumpton Tuesday morning about 7 o'clock by a fire on the property of Wm. R. Bowers. Some one had knocked out a window glass and saturated the inside of a room in dwelling with coal oil and applied a match and then set fire to a chicken house on the same property. The chicken house burned to the ground but the fire in the dwelling house burned the oil off and went out. After damaging the room slightly. The Fire Company saved several chicken houses on the place. The fire bug has not been apprehended up to the present.

A play will be given in Millington High School, Thursday, March 19th, by local talent for the benefit of Asbury M. E. Church, entitled, "How the Ladies Earned Their Dollars."

The characters of the play are as follows:

Mrs. Hannah Smart, Mrs. Roland H. Nelson.

Mrs. Maranda Knowall—Mrs. Hurlock Gale.

Mrs. Thrifty—Mrs. Leo Gale.

Mrs. Martha Easygoing—Mrs. Earl Powell.

Mrs. Samantha Blunt—Mrs. Walter Myers.

Mrs. Maria Doolittle — Mrs. Raymond Edwards.

Mrs. Betsy Toploft—Mrs. Howard Kennard.

Mrs. Phebous Righteous — Mrs. Harold Stauffer.

Mrs. Prudence Wise—Mrs. Hanson Horsey.

Miss Octavia Phim — Miss Edith Jones.

Miss Mollie Sensible — Miss Elizabeth Bottomley.

Miss Dorothy Up-to-Date — Miss Lucil Massey.

Miss Millie Hermaline Franchaise —Miss Clara Bollinger.

Mrs. F. C. Numbers who is very ill at her home is no better at this writing.

KENNEDYVILLE

Services as usual in the M. P. Church on Sunday next.

Services in Grace Presbyterian Church at 7.30 P. M., Dr. Humphreys will preach. All welcome.

James Weer and George Johnston attended at milk meeting in Middleton on Friday.

Mrs. Author Cleaver and little girl and Mrs. Newton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rutter. Mrs. Newton remained for a visit with relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. Humphreys, of Smyrna, Del., spent Wednesday with friends here.

Miss Blanche Redmile and Mrs. James Groves entertained the Sewing Band at Miss Redmile's home on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. George Glenn and Mrs. Acca Crew attended the funeral of Mrs. Marian Crew on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Cleve Tucker, of Washington D. C., visited her sister, Mrs. James Weer the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hurlock visited Mrs. Walter Hill near Phoenixville, on Sunday.

HOME DEMONSTRATION NOTES

Wednesday, March 18th, Quaker Neck Neighborhood Club at Mrs. Aubrey Faucett's at 1.30 P. M. Demonstration. One Dish Meal. Also Film Strip on Pasture. Mrs. P. V. Hendrickson, president.

Thursday, March 19th, Chestertown Women's Club at Mrs. Harry Fallowfield's at 2.00 P. M. Demonstration. One Dish Meal. Mrs. Bates Chaires, Jr., president.

Thursday, March 19th, Fairlee Flower Group at 2.00 P. M. at Mrs. Bayard Sutton's. Mrs. T. H. M. Bramble and Miss Louise Travers, Demonstrators.

Saturday, March 21st, Fairlee Girls Club at Barbara Bigelow's. Corn Bread Demonstration by Barbara Bigelow and Mabel Ackerman.

Saturday, March 21st, Flatland Girls' Club at Mrs. Wilbur Morris' at 2.00 P. M.

Chestertown High School Notes

DID YOU KNOW THAT

Harriett Louise Rogers worked on the Sir Roger De Coverly Papers for half of an hour Thursday night? Harriett claims this is a record.

Willa Newnam fell down the basement steps in the school and tore a ligament in her leg?

Speed ball is being practiced in the Physical Education period by the boys? They are preparing for Rally Day.

Marble fever has appeared at a high temperature in the school busses?

A pencil sharpener has been ordered for Miss Carroll's room? Nearly all of the money has been collected.

PATCHWORK

A new Ping-Pong set has been bought.

The Seniors are entering the Meat Essay Contest.

Mr. Willis spent Sunday in Henderson, Md.

Steady practice is being given to the three one-act plays that are to be given in William Smith Hall.

The Boys' Basket Ball team played Dover Saturday night and won!

This months edition of The Reflector will soon appear.

The 10th grade has just completed studying The Sir Roger de Coverly papers.

In the Meat Essay Contest a student of C. H. S. has won one of the prizes every year except for 1930.

Dr. Lee, who received his P. H. D. from New York University, delivered a most interesting address on Social Conditions In China in the high school Tuesday morning.

Tuesday noon the Soph and Freshmen girls had a basketball game in the Washington College Gymn. The Freshmen won with the score 32-23.

Three new boys have had their names entered on the Chestertown High School's role book. Eugene Thornton has been placed in the 10th grade, "B" division. Eugene came from Middletown, Delaware. Elmer Harrington, formerly from Galena, is now in the 8th and Frederick Gsell from Henderson, is also in the 8th grade.

"Watch the birdie! Now smile!"

The students of C. H. S. heard these phrases quite often Monday. Doctor Simmons was the cause of all this. Monday afternoon he appeared at the high school with his camera and took the pictures of the Senior Class, Junior Class, Sophomore Class, Freshmen Class, Dragon Staff, Reflector Staff and the cast of the Ghost Bird. These pictures are to be used in The Dragon.

RUTH FOX, '32.

FIRE CO. SAVES PROPERTY

Fire last Saturday afternoon badly damaged the home of George Turner, colored, on Cannon street, owned by James Thompson, of Church Hill. The blaze, of an unknown origin, seemed to have started under the roof of the house. It had gained considerable headway before discovered.

The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co. answering the alarm, worked on the blaze with streams from two engines. After a stubborn fight, due to the fact that the flames had spread to many points, the blaze was extinguished.

A chimney fire on John Schauber's place near the college called out the fire company Wednesday.

Charlie Miller, Mrs. Crow, Mrs. Dempsey and Mrs. Robert VanDyke attended P. T. A. meeting at Salisbudy on Thursday.

BETTERTON

Mrs. Catherine Gray Myers passed away suddenly at her home on Bayside last Friday. Funeral services were conducted at her late home on Monday morning, Rev. John White officiated. The deceased had been a generous contributor toward the support of the local churches and other enterprises.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith spent several days with relatives in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Owens and small son were week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owens.

Miss Elizabeth Brice, of Washington College, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Brice.

Mrs. Mary Moore spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Willis and family, near Kennedyville.

Prof. Harold Crew, of North East High School, was a week-end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Crew.

Miss Anna Wilmer, of Philadelphia, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wilmer.

Clifton Myers has been spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Mayme Myers.

The Women's Home Economics Club held a meeting at the school on Tuesday afternoon. A one dish meal was demonstrated.

STILL POND

Mrs. Kate Ford has returned home after spending some time in Wilmington.

Mrs. Charles Jewell has been visiting in Baltimore.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will meet on next Thursday afternoon, March 19th, at the home of Mrs. Wm. Medders.

There will be a special meeting of the P. T. A. at the school at 3.30 P. M. Monday afternoon, March 15th. All patrons are urged to be present and all friends will receive a cordial welcome.

The annual missionary anniversary of the Sunday school will be held tomorrow evening, March 15th. A program is being planned by the school so don't miss it.

Mrs. S. W. Matthews spent several days this week at Worton.

JIM DAVIS CAUGHT AGAIN

Bail of $500 on a forgery charge was set Monday for James Davis, Negro, by Magistrate James R. Cadden in the Central Police Court, Baltimore. He was held for grand jury action.

Davis was returned to Baltimore Sunday by three detectives, who arrested him at his home in Chestertown. He is charged with having obtained an automobile by giving a check for $350 bearing the forged signature of a Baltimore Negro politician.

Jim has been out of the pententiary only a few months. He went to Thos. Smiths hotel, the colored hotel of the colored politician, called up used car house and ordered a car. The car was delivered and the driver handed a check with Thos. Smith's name attached. Davis drove the car here and then gave the officers a chase about town the following day. He was finally captured in bed with clothes and shoes on and delivered to Baltimore authorities. He will likely spend another term in the "pen".

Judge—If you were in that house for no dishonest purpose why were you in your stocking feet.

Prisoner—I heard there was sickness in the family.

ADVERTISE IN THE KENT NEWS

DEATHS

John H. Newnam died at his home in Church Hill Tuesday morning. He was for years a vestryman of St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church and also a director in the Church Hill Bank. For several years he lived in Chestertown and was esteemed highly by all who knew him.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Bessie Newnam; one daughter, Mrs. Austin F. Shure, of Baltimore, and a son, Harrison Newnam, Texas. Funeral services were held in St. Luke's Church at 2 P. M. Thursday by the Rev. W. C. Eastburn, interment in Church Hill Cemetery.

The Rev. W. C. Eastburn officiated. The bearers were Daniel Potts, Howard Stewart, Thomas W. Perkins, Edwin Valliant, James Brown and R. H. Collins, interment in Church Hill Cemetery.

"Aunt" Martha Bowser, aged 90, died at her home on Calvert street Sunday. She was a loyal servant in the Dodd family for many years and her daughter, Jane, is employed by A. M. Culp and wife on the Avenue.

Mrs. Mary Ireena Crew wife of Madion Crew, of Baltimore, formerly of Kent county, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, on Monday morning, March 9th, of double pneumonia, aged 19 years.

Funeral service was held from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grussing, near Fairlee, on Wednesday at 2 P. M. Interment Chester Cemetery, Charles L. Dodd, undertaker.

Rev. Mr. Wright, of Fairlee, conducted the sedvice. The choir of St. James, sang sweetly "Old Rugged Cross," "Rock of Ages" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus. The flowers were beautiful and many of them which in a small way expressed their love and esteem for Mrs. Crew.

The pall bearers were Walter Greenwood, Harry LeSage, Archie LeSage, Russell Starr, Harry Pardee and George Startt.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Ruth Cummings, widow of John Cummings, were held from her home at the Greenway Apartments, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Cummings died suddenly Sunday afternoon. Born on the Eastern Shore of Maryland near Centreville, she was the daughter of the late Thomas LeCoursey Ruth and Rebecca Augusta Ruth. She lived a time in Chestertown, but spent the last forty-eight years of her life in Baltimore. She was 83 years old.

Surviving her are three nephews, Frederick S. Ruth and Thomas DeC. Ruth, of New York, and Walter N. Ruth, and a grandniece, Elizabeth Wickes Earle. The Rev. S. Targart Steele officiated at the funeral services at the home. Interment took place at 3 o'clock in Chester Cemetery, Chestertown, with the Rev. C. L. Atwater, rector of Emmanuel P. E. Church, of Chestertown, officiating. Charles L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Beatrice Stephens, widow of the late Wm. B. Stephens, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. G. Ringgold, in Philadelphia, February 24, 1931, intedment in Mt. Moriah Cemetery, Philadelphia.

Frederick Augustus Marker, Sr., a former resident of Price, died at Clayton, Del., Thursday morning of last week. He was in his ninety-fifth year.

Rev. J. Lee Marker, pastor of St. James M. P. Church, is a grandson.

WORTON

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Williams entertained at a Turkey dinner Sat. evening, about forty were present.

Miss Helen Hurlock spentlast week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Money of Kennedyville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Money and son Albert and Mr and Mrs. Walter Moffett and sons Harrison Robert & Walter Jr., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Dwyer Sunday.

SOLDIERS GIVEN HELP

Vice-State Commander Jesse Maxwell has opened an office in Gill's ice cream parlor for helping all soldiers in handling their bonus papers. He will be at this place on Monday from 10 a. m. to 2.30 p. m. and Saturday from 12 to 5 p. m. He has all forms necessary and is doing this work free of charge to all veterans and Legion members of the Jarman Post of which Thos. Kibler is captain.

After next week commander Maxwell will be at the new headquarters of the Legion on Princess St., near High.

Some people do an awful lot of talking just to prove they have nothing to say.

Puns in advertising posters have been banned by the London subway

SPECIAL SALE

FOUR WEEK OLD COCKERELS

15c

To make room in our brooding house for ten thousand Leghorn pullets we are offering a limited number of cockerels at half price. This is a wonderful opportunity to raise Leghorn broilers that will insure you a good profit.

It will only be necessary to feed these birds a few weeks and you will have broilers weighing 1½ lbs. to 2 lbs., the size that hotels and summer resorts prefer. Brooding house is not necessary. Almost any building will do if you can heat it a little.

Take advantage of this wonderful opportunity. Place your order at once.

We have recently installed a new battery brooding system which enables us to supply mixed chicks suitable for broiler purposes. Price 10c each. These chicks will be five or six days old when you get them. You will find them easy to raise and profitable. Come in and see them. They are a real bargain.

Truslow Poultry Farm, Inc.

Chestertown, Maryland

WATCH FOR THE

Big Opening Sale

OF MEN'S AND LADIES' OPENING UP AT ROCK HALL, MD.,

March 20th, 1931

We will carry a full line of Men's Suits, Men's Work Clothes, Ladies' Silk Dresses, Ladies' Afternoon Dresses and many other smaller items at prices that will be within the reach of all.

TRADE WITH US AND SAVE MONEY

S. SLOM

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAN HALL

ROCK HALL, MD.

Lyceum Theatre

ONE NIGHT ONLY

Tuesday, March 24th 1931

RETURN OF THE OLD FAVORITE

LESLIE (DOGGIE) DUYER with his DIXIE FASHION-PLATE

MINSTRELS

CAST OF 35 PEOPLE. 7-PIECE ORCHESTRA 7

Benefit of Council, No. 58. Daughters of America

SWEET SINGERS FUNNY COMEDIANS

BUCK AND WING AND TAP DANCERS

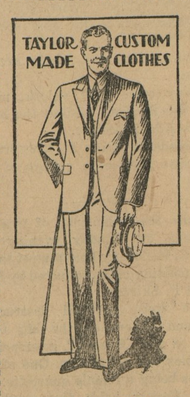
QUARTETTES DUETS MUSICAL ACTS

WITH PROVOKING SKETCHES MONOLOGUES

General Admission . . 50 Cents

RESERVED SEATS.

DON'T MISS THIS SHOW



Now is the time to order THAT Spring Suit for

EASTER

We specialize on Taylor-made Custom Clothes and THAT means quality, smartness and sound efficient workmanship.

Big selection of fabrics

At $22.50 to $45.00

JAMES E. NEWTON, Tailor.

103 Court St. 7mch-1m Chestertown, Md.

IT'S MORE THAN A WRINGER

Tune in—Enjoy the Maytag Radio Hour over N. B. C. Coast to Coast Blue Network—Every Monday 9:00 P.M., E. S. T. — 8:00 C. S. T. —7:00 M.T.—6:00 P. C.T.

The Maytag Roller Water Remover with large flexible top roll and large firm bottom roll wrings all parts of the garment evenly dry. Enclosed, self-reversing drain and automatic tension. The rolls may be quickly separated five and a half inches between centers. Exclusively Maytag—superior to all other methods of drying.

NEW MAYTAG TABLE IRONER

Can be used wherever there is an electric wall plug. Has rapid-heating Alakrome Thermoplate—an exclusive Maytag feature.

Phone for a trial home washing. If the Maytag doesn't sell itself, don't keep it. Divided payments you'll never miss.

THE MAYTAG COMPANY—Founded 1893—Newton, Iowa.

GEO. W. BALDWIN

Phone 361 Chestertown, Md.

The Maytag WASHER PORTABLE IRONER

Maytag washers are available with in-built gasoline multi-motor for homes without electricity

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_27_1-0374