GOVERNMENT FINANCES.—The President in his message states that the financial affairs of the Government have been successfully administered. The receipts from all sources during the year, including loans and balances in the treasury July 1, 1863, were $1,394,796,007 62, and the aggregate disbursements upon the same basis were $1,298,056,101 89—leaving a balance in the treasury of $96,739,905 73. The public debt on the 1st of July last was $1,740,690,489 49; and should the war continue for another year, the debt may be increased by about five hundred millions. The President says, "As the debt is held for the most part by our own people, it has become a substantial branch of national, though private property;" and certain suggestions are made to Congress in connection with its general distribution among the people.

The National Banking system, he says, is proving to be greatly acceptable to capitalists and the people, and he hopes that very soon there will be in the United States no banks of issue not authorized by Congress, and no bank-note circulation not secured by the government. Five hundred and twenty-four national banks have already been organized.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue expresses the opinion that the present year's revenue, including the additional income tax, will be at least $265,000,000. If it is desirable to increase this to $300,000,000, he recommends a tax on sales of one-half of one per cent. to make up the deficiency, to be imposed for one year only, as after that the present tax lists will yield the required amount. The only important changes recommended by the Commissioner are taxes on petroleum and on tobacco in the leaf, with corresponding reductions in the refined and manufactured products. The estimated receipts of the special income tax authorized by joint resolution of July 4, 1864, are $[illegible],000,000. The tax paid by National Banks during the first seven months of the current fiscal year, amounts to $164,461 21.—Boston Jour.

JAMES SPEED, Esq., left our city on Friday for Washington, upon the summons of President Lincoln, to assume the position of Attorney General of the United States. Associated as we have been publicly with Mr. Speed upon the Union platform of Kentucky until the Presidential canvass temporarily separated us, we know his unswerving loyalty, and we are convinced that he is not of the fanatical class which denounced those who supported McClellan as traitors. No more faithful or honests gentleman can be found than James Speed. He has always been an emancipationist upon principle, both in a humanitarian and economic point of view, and it was therefore natural that Mr. Lincoln should call upon him to assume the high, dignified and responsible position of the law adviser of his Cabinet. We feel every confidence that he will bring to the discharge of his duties ability, integrity and close application.—Louisville Jonrnal.
