KENNEDYVILLE W. C. T. U.

W. C. T. U. of Kennedyville held a very interesting and instructive service in the Kennedyville M. P. Church last Sunday evening. The entertainment consisted of singing by the choir solos, duets and some very interesting talks on prohibition.

The program was about as follows: Singing by the choir and audience, followed by prayer.

A very beautiful solo was sung by Mrs. Nellie Kenedy.

Duets by Mrs. Howard Toulson and Mrs. Ralph Geary. Our local president Mrs. E. T. Othoson deserves great credit for the able manner in which she conducted the service. She had as her helper, Mrs. Robert C. Young, who by the way, composed a little song, for the small children which was very beautiful carried out.

These little tots varied in ages from 6 to about 10 years. Mrs Youngtaught ht these little folks and the song was entitled,"Please sign the Pledge." Each of these 6 little tots wore a white sash across the shoulder hanging at one side. Each sash had a large red letter on it which was as follows. P—L—E—D—G—E. They marched around the room up inside the altar and back of the Atar rail. Mrs. Clara B. Glenn played the march for them. After taking their places behind the altar rail they sang their little song "Please sign the Pledge" another song by the little folks was,"Our task Mrs. Glenn at the organ This certainly was an inspiring sight. These boys and girls were well trained [illegible] their parts well.

These are boys and girls of today but will be the men and women of the future, perhaps in this locality. Little six year old Ella May Ireland read as the scripture lesson the 23rd Psalm from a card given to her sometime ago by our good friend Mrs. Augusta Hessner. Miss Emma C. Shafer gave an interesting talk on prohibition as did also Mr. Wm. T. Hague.

These talks which were very interesting and instructive were enjoyed by all. Last but not by all means least was a brief talk by our county president, Mrs. Leonard Price. Mrs. Price is a very pleasant speaker and knows how to present the cause she is working so hard for. We are always glad to hear Mrs. Price talk. We are glad to say that some signed the Pledge.
