Annual Report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue reports that the amount of revenue produced by the act of July 1, 1862, and its supplements, considerably exceeded the estimates. Without the amendment increasing the tax on whiskey from twenty to sixty cents per gallon the law would have produced at least $100,000,000, being $20,000,000 more than the estimate of the Secretary of the Treasury, and $15,000,000 beyond the minimum stated in his report.

THE INCOME TAX.

It appears that the amount of income tax collected last year was $23,656,033 98. He believes this figure to represent pretty fairly what a levy of three per cent. under the provisions of the late law would produce. On this basis he figures $34,986,035 21 as the amount which a five per cent. tax would yield.

TAX ON REAL ESTATE.

A rule requiring the tax on real estate to be assessed on its rental value would be conveniently practicable, and would obviate the necessity of the vexatious inquisitions now required in ascertaining the comparative value of live stock at different periods of the year. The commissioner is unable to see why a man who consumes his income should not be taxed for it as well as one who saves it; nor why one who lives in his own house should not be taxed on its rental value as much as if he let it to another and put the rent in his purse. If it be deemed right to allow the occupant of his own homestead such a portion of its rental value unassessed as would suffice to pay the rent of a moderate dwelling, the excess of the annual value of the homestead above that sum might be taxed. An allowance of three or four hundred dollars might not be unreasonable, while the same amount should be allowed to a lessor of real estate for rent actually paid.

PAYMENT OF THE DEBT.

The Commissioner closes with a statement showing that if the war were to end leaving us a debt of four thousand millions of dollars, and an annual expenditure of fifty per cent. more than in the year preceding the war, our present revenue law would yield enough to pay the current expenses of the nation, including the six per cent. interest on our debt, and leave a surplus which would extinguish the debt in ninety years, even with our present production and population; and in half of that time at our present prospective increase of production and population.

THE INCENDIARY PLOT—Another and More Decisive Attempt Demanded.—The following advertisement appears in a late number of the Richmond Whig:

To All Whom it May Concern:—The failure of our employees to do their work recently with skill in the city of New York, makes it necessary for the Brotherhood to meet and concert measures for a more decisive execution of the great retaliatory duty they have taken upon themselves at this juncture. Our own homes have been destroyed in violation of all the rules of war, and we must make our ruthless enemy feel the weight of our justly aroused vengeance in the very centres of his resources and wealth. We can do it—do it effectually. You are therefore ordered to meet in this city, by delegates from our several associations in Virginia, North and South Carolina, at 8 o'clock on the evening of the 15th instant, for business.

By order of the GREAT BROTHER.

A NEW ISSUE OF COUNTERFEIT FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.—A new issue of counterfeit fractional currency, among the best yet put out, has recently been circulated in this city. The engraving is well done, but the notes have not the clear, distinct impression of the genuine.—Phil. Ledger.

"TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN."—We call the particular attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. L. MASTBAUM. He has just opened a fresh arrival of Men and Boys' Clothing and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, "all of his own make." Mr. M's goods have been favorably tried, and have always proven to be exactly as represented. His Stock for the coming Holidays has been selected with unusual care, and is the largest in this town; and the prices are lower than the same class of goods can be purchased on this peninsula. We would therefore advise our readers not to forget to call at Mastbaum's during the Holidays, and suit themselves in Garments, which for style and durability, cannot be surpassed. ...

LAND SALE.

THE undersigned will sell her Farm at PUBLIC SALE, on TUESDAY,

The 3rd day of January, 1865,

at the "Voshell House," in Chestertown, at 12 o'clock, M.

THE FARM,

is situated in Kent county, Maryland, on the public road from Chesterville to Galena; one of the finest and most healthy neighborhoods in the county.

It is convenient to places of Public Worship, Schools, Mills, &c.,—very near the villages of Chesterville and Galena, and but a few miles from the public landing af Georgetown.

It contains

120 Acres,

of which at least 115 are arable, and the balance is in WOOD.

It is divided into FIVE FIELDS, and under good Fencing; nearly all the outside or line Fences are New.

Four of the fields are in CLOVER, and the other in WHEAT. All of the fields, with the exception of a few acres recently cleared, have been LIMED.

The purchaser, on complying with the terms of sale, will be put in possession of the Farm, with the growing crops.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

are a Frame Barn of good size, nearly new, with a Corn Crib; Stabling for five horses attached, and a detached Stable for two horses.

TERMS OF SALE are as follows:—One-third part of the purchase money cash on the day of sale; the residue in equal instalments of one and two years. The remote payments to be secured by the bond of the purchaser, with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale.

For further particulars consult RICHARD HYNSON, Esq., my attorney, at Chestertown.

ANNIE E. WAY.

Dec. 10, 1864—ts.

N. B.—This farm is positively for sale; and if the above terms shall not suit the convenience of any one who may desire to purchase, they will be modified.

TAX PAYERS TAKE NOTICE.

THE Tax Payers of the First Tax District of Kent County are hereby notified that their Taxes for 1864 are now over-due. Some persons are under the impression that Taxes are not due until the first of January, but this is a mistake. They are due and collectable on the first day of July in each year, and interest is demanded of Collectors on the entire amount of State Tax not paid in by the first of January.

Persons having claims against the County, levied in my hands, are pressing me for the money, and unless Taxes are paid in more promptly, I shall be under the necessity of proceeding at once to levy and collect them according to law. It is hoped that this notice will be sufficient to induce immediate payment, and that I may be saved the unpleasant duty of resorting to the law in any case. The change in the Constitution which forbids an extension of the time for collecting taxes, renders long indulgence, as heretofore, altogether impracticable.

For the convenience of Tax Payers I will be at the following places on the days named:

On Tuesdays, at the Register's Office, Chestertown.

On Thursdays, at Gray's Inn Creek Steamboat Landing.

On Saturdays, at Roland's Store, Bell Air.

JOHN P. EDES,

MARYLAND, Kent County Orphans' Court, December 6, 1864.—On the application of George Vickers and Mary Ann Baker, Executors of Samuel E. Baker, late of Kent county, deceased:

Ordered, That they give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate, in Kent county, Md., and that the same be published once in each week for the space of four successive weeks, in the Kent News, printed and published in Kent county.

In testimony that the foregoing is truly copied from the minutes of the proceedings of the Orphans' Court of the county aforesaid I have hereto set my hand and the seal of office affixed this 6th day of December, 1864. Test, JOS. P. IRELAND, Reg. of Wills for Kent county.

In compliance with the above order this is to give notice, that the subscribers, of Kent county, have obtained from the Orphans' Court of Kent county, Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of Samuel E. Baker, late of Kent county, dec'd. All persons having claims against the deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof legally authenticated to the subscribers on or before the 17th day of July, 1865; they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate.
