SAY PAIR GOT INTO SCRAP AT SHOW BOAT

John Lepore, 28, and Reynolds Reed, 30, of Dover, Del., were fined $5 and costs Friday by Magistrate R. L. Alderson following a fight on a wharf at Georgetown, Md., where they, together with two Dover girls, had gone to attend a performance on a show boat tied up on the Sassafras river at Georgetown.

Sheriff John T. Vickers, of Chestertown, and State Officer Carl G. Storm, stationed there, were called to the scene by residents of the town and placed the men under arrest, on disorderly conduct charges.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, God in His allwise judgment has seen best to remove from our community and Woman's Auxiliary, our loyal sister and co-worker, Martha Steinmetz Duffield. Be it therefore

Resolved, That the members of the Auxiliary will greatly miss our departed sister and that we will cherish with loving remembrance her whole hearted support and her delight in performing countless deeds of kindness. That we are very grateful to have been associated with one of such noble character and refining influence. That we express our sympathy to the bereaved husband in his great sorrow and commend him to the gracious Saviour who doeth all things for the best. Be it also

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved husband (Chas. H. Duffield) and a copy written into the minutes of the Woman's Auxiliary.
