R. HARRISON COLLINS. C. COX HOPPER.

COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

SPAIN now sues for peace. Negotiations are being carried on through the French minister at Washington.

THE SPLENDID OPPOSITION which Col Mullikin is working up for Congressman Barber in Talbot, his home county, should certainly be worth one hundred votes to the democratic nominee in the Congressional contest

THE POLITICAL FEATURE of the Wm. N. Boggs muddle has become disgustingly apparent throughout Delaware. What was supposed to be a search for the looter of the Dover bank and his abettors, has to all intents and purposes drifted into a system of political persecution.

THE JURY in the case of United States Senator Kenny, was discharged on Monday, having taken twenty-five ballots and failed to agree. They stood seven for acquital and five for conviction. It is a matter of deep regret that Senator Kenney could not clear himself of the serious charge against hlm.

A RECENT RULING by the department at Washington has given increased vigor to the campaign of the aspirants for the Chestertown post office. Petitions and a general campaign has been in progress during the past ten days. It is claimed that Dr. Barber has stated that the candidate having the endorsement of the County Central Committee will hold the winning card. The applicants so far announced are: Messrs. C. M. Lucas, Hiram Brown, J. B. Burchinal, and W. H. Lambert, Jr. Mr. Lucas is claimed to have the endorsement of Mr. Westcott, chairman of the Central Committee, and many think that this gives him substantial advantage in the race.

OF COURSE the congressnal fight in the first district will be closely watched by republican observers and critics. Here is a bit of news dropped from the pen of Editor Philips L. Goldsborough:

"It is said that neither Kent, Queen Anne's nor Talbot will present candidates. Kent would send a delegation for Harrison W. Vickers if he would have it so, and so would Queen Anne's for Philemon B. Hopper under the same circumstances, but they will not, it is said. It is known that ex-Senator Chas. H. Gibson would take kindly to a nomination again and would prize it highly if his county should bring up his name, but his friends in Talbot are hardly in a position to do this for him."

UNLESS ALL POLITICAL SIGNS FAIL it is evident that Col. John Walter Smith is to be the congressional candidate for the first district. Col. Smith has a record already made, and is reponsible, to a greater extent than any other one man for the free school book law, a measure which a prominent republican declared several days ago has resulted in an annual saving to himself and three neighbors, of forty dollars. The first congressional district rolled up in round numbers fifteen hundred for the Democratic ticket last fall, and with a sharp, vigorous campaign should be good for a two thousand majority for the Democratic nominee this fall whoever he may be. The date and place for the nominating convention is August 25th at Ocean City.

MAJOR STEWART'S TALK.

An Interesting Letter from the Hustling Free Silver Champion.

Easton, Md., July 25th, 1898.

EDITORS CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT:

At divers times and in divers places have you and other of our kindly local editors been pleased to compliment me by enrolling my name among congressional possibilities in this district, for which please accept my thanks.

And yet, as Talbot democrats well know, I am not an aspirant for either congressional luxuries or honors. I have had but little to say publicly on this subject, alike deprecating a possible flavor of insincerity or affectation and the "unpleasantness" of a little too previously declining an unexpected, undesired position, before it is tendered.

For some time past, let me but take up the fight for bimetallism, tariff for revenue only, an income tax, or against trusts, combines, the unjust domination of corporations and the money power, and lo! in and out of Gath is it told that I have an axe to grind—a handy, hefty, Congressional axe! All of which goes to prove how selfish we mortals be, that it should be thought incredible, inconceivable, that a man may work for the public weal and not for his private interest.

And now having made another effort to divest myself of the insinuation of personal ambition, let us examine the conditions of this district.

THE CHICAGO PLATFORM.

Democrats like myself, who not only voted the ticket, but heartily endorsed the Chicago platform demand that the Congressional Convention shall reaffirm this platform; we want no jugglery or equivocation, but a bold and open reiteration of the great principles contained in that exposition of true democracy.

Notwithstanding assertions to the contrary, the free coinage of gold and silver is now, as it was in 1896, a pre-eminent issue. Bimetallism, the free coinage of gold and silver, is now and always has been a democratic principle. Monometallism—the single gold standard—is unconstitutional, and was foisted on the country by fraud in 1873.

Jefferson, Madison, Jackson, Polk and Benton, in fact every great statesman of this country, were advocates of the free coinage of gold and silver.

The Chicago Platform is right, not only on the money question, but also on tariff, income tax, trial by jury; in fact, it is a true exposition of democracy, and the supreme law of the party, and it is the bounden duty of the coming Congressional Convention to endorse it and nominate a man in hearty accord with the principles contained therein.

WAR.

Since the adoption of the Democratic National Platform, war has been declared; it was sanctioned of democrats and republicans alike, the ranks of the army are filled by democratic and republican patriots, and our convention should pass resolutions pledging hearty support for its successful prosecution. This is an American question, not a partisan one.

In the Revolution there were tories; in the war of 1812 there were unpatriotic opponents; in the Mexican war unpatriotic men did all they could to embarrass their country; they said it was a war of conquest, unconstitutional and imperialistic; a war waged for territorial expansion, etc., etc. Now, we are sorry to relate among the same sort of people the same cry is heard in the land. But fortunately for the country these, although noisy, constitute but a small portion of our people. Again, I say, that the congressional convention of the first district should not only endorse the Chicago Platform, but it also should do, as has been done by every democratic convention that has met since war began, endorse the war, and pledge support to the government. This is Americanism, patriotism, democracy.

CUBA, HAWAII, MONROE DOCTRINE.

Some of our congressmen egregiously blunder in opposing the administration in regard to Cuba and the Hawaiian Islands. The President is simply adopting old democratic polity. The republicans have again stolen democratic thunder, and because they have done so, some of our congressmen think they must oppose the administration. "Territorial expansion" and the "Monroe Doctrine" are democratic principles. These are not inconsistent as many are taught to believe. Except Alaska, all the territory acquired from France, Spain, Mexico—in fact, our vast domain was acquired under democratic rule.

Jefferson and Madison understood the Constitution as well as any men who ever lived. Yet these men thought it constitutional to annex Cuba and Porto Rico. Jefferson, as did Washington, opposed foreign political alliances; in fact, Jefferson coined the phrase "entangling alliances." Yet both Washington and Jefferson favored our alliances with France. In 1823 Jefferson favored an alliance with Great Britain in relation to the Monroe doctrine. It was always American doctrine, that the U. S. had a right "to interfere when its own security or essential interests were endangered by internal transactions of another State."

Jefferson in favoring an alliance in 1823 with Great Britain in regard to the enforcement of the Monroe Doctrine, said "that the war in which the proposition might engage us, is not her war but ours," therefore we had the same right of forming alliances as any other Christian nation.

In regard to Cuba, Jefferson in 1823 said, "I candidly confess, I have ever looked on Cuba as the most interesting addition that ever could be made to our system of States."

John Quincy Adams, Secretary of State in Democratic Monroe's Cabinet, a patriot and constitutional lawyer, said, "It is scarcely possible to resist the conviction that the annexation of Cuba to our Federal Republic will be indispensable to the continuance and integrity of the Union itself."

HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

So far as the Hawaiian Islands are concerned, the U. S. have, since 1842, applied a sort of Monroe Doctrine in the Pacific.

Mr. Legare, Sec. of State in 1843, said, "That the interests of all commercial nations require that we should not be interfered with by foreign powers; the U. S. are more interested in the fate of the Hawaiian Islands than any other nation can be. These islands bear such peculiar relations to ourselves, that we might even feel justified consistently with our own principles in interfering by force to prevent them from falling into the hands of a great European power"

In 1850 Daniel Webster, Sec. of State, said, "The situation of the Sandwich Islands in respect to our possessions on the Pacific, and the bonds between them and the U. S. are such, that we never could with indifference allow them to pass under the dominion of any other power."

But it was the great Marcy, democratic Secretary of State in Pierce's Cabinet who said that the U. S. should own and govern the Hawaiian Islands; he knew what democratic doctrine was in 1853, it is the same to-day; this democratic policy has been successfully carried out by the present administration. Forty-five years ago Secretary Marcy said, "The intercourse between our Pacific ports and the distant east is destined to be upon as large a scale as that which we now enjoy with all the world. It seems to be inevitable that they must come under the control of this government. This government will receive the transfer of the sovereignty of these islands with all proper provisions, relative to the rights and interests of the people thereof, such as are usual and appropriate in territorial sovereignty."

This democratic policy was endorsed by Secretaries Fish and Blaine, and has been accomplished by the administration.

For more than a quarter of a century, the calumniators of Democracy have deceived the people by slang expressions, and mere jugglery of words. When democrats were advocating and demonstrating that protective tariffs were unjust and injurious to the American people, the republicans replied with the lilly catch-words, "Do you want European pauper labor to come into competition with free American labor? if not, then vote for protection."

When democrats were denouncing the fraud by which silver was demonetized, and striving to restore the money of the Constitution, the same crowd of money, lenders, tariff-barons and monopolists, yelled out fifty-cent dollars, dishonest money, and thus for a time fooled many people.

And now, when patriots are standing by their country and democratic volunteers filling the ranks of the army, Americanism is attempted to be silenced by the cry of imperialism.

W. E. STEWART.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address.

VALUABLE FARM

on Chester River, one mile from Chestertown. The property will be first offered in three parcels.

PARCEL NO. 1

Contains 139 Acres,

11 and 98-100 Square Perches of Land,

AND INCLUDES

The Dwelling,

PARCEL NO. 2

Contains 160 Acres,

and 76 and 35-100 Perches of Land.

It has no buildings thereon, and occupies that part of the farm bounded on two sides by Chester River, and lying adjacent to "The Chambers Farm" and Parcel No. 1, the same being entitled to a right-of-way as now used over Parcel No. 1.

This is one of the most beautifully located farms in Kent or Queen Anne's counties. It lies on a high bluff commanding a beautiful view of Chester River within full sight of Chestertown, and opposite the fine farm and residences which at this point line the shores of Chester River. It offers an ideal spot to one desiring a proper location for the erection of a country residence. The soil is a rich medium loam, is excellently adapted to trucking, small fruits, peaches, pears, etc. The waters of Chester River at this point abound in fish, crabs, oysters, and in winter one of its points offords one of the best blinds for ducks and wild fowl on the river. It has for years been the subject of comment of the citizens of Chestertown that, owing to the peculiarly favorable soil of this farm, anyone who owned the place and tilled it properly, had his fortune in his hands in growing truck, &c., for the Chestertown market, which has world-wide fame as being one of the most expensive markets for vegetables, fruits, &c., and therefore a most desirable one for the growers of same.

TERMS OF SALE:—One-third of the purchase money cash on the day of sale, and the residue in two equal installments in one and two years from the day of sale.
