ADDRESS

OF THE

Carrier of "The Kent News."

January 1, 1865.

Old Time hath round the world his journey trod,
And left mementoes strown above and 'neath the sod—
Has opened once again the New-Year's door
To take us with him to an unknown shore.
The untried Future—both near and far-away—
Hangs portentous o'er the present day.
This interview revives our annual cheer,
Yet we sigh to say "Good bye"—departed year.

Thanks, gentle patrons, for each kind word spoken;
Thanks for all kindness, and for each generous token
Given to me, poor "devil," and to the "News,"
Which far and wide its wholesome knowledge strews.
The world's grand changes as they onward move,
War, Science, Art, Religion, Death, and Love;
These are its tribute to the world's proud store,
And, unexhausted, freely promise more.

Our country's honor makes my young heart proud,
While noble heroes on my memory crowd;
Their deeds of valor surpassing far
Historic heroes of the "olden" war.
And who among them may I boast to name,
And write their prowess on the scroll of fame?
Grant and Sherman, Meade and "Little Mac,"
And many others on and off the track.

Thankful for our Heavenly Father's care
And for the mercies of the ending year,
The fields have yielded an abundant store
And Nature smiles as heretofore—
But, oh! the battle rages still o'er sea and plain
And cove and copse are bloody with the slain;
Sad hearts are breaking—and night winds sigh,
While brothers fight and groan and die.

Columbia's flag is still unfurled
And challenges as ever the whole wide world:
But statesmen will ye heed my simple song—
Know ye that victory is not always to the strong.
Prudence is valor and ever paramount to right,
And moderation full nobler than might.
Our nation's unity is enough to save;
For this alone we sacrifice the Brave.

We hoped a year ago the war would end,
And to this object all our words and wishes tend:
But darkness still obscures the scene,
With here and there a light between.
But ultraism is master of the hour,
And wields a grim and ruthless power.
But wisdom, I trust, will reassert her sway,
And truth and patriot virtue win the day.

Of loyalty very much is said and heard,
But after all it is a doubtful word;
Fanatics parade and preach and pray their creeds,
And party for its own "ipsi dixit" pleads.
My motto is my country first and last and ever,
From this I will not swerve—no never;
Loyalty to country is my Resolution—
"The Union as it was" and the "Old Constitution."

And now believe me—for I am your friend—
I hope ere long this dreadful war will end;
That Peace will come our hearts to cheer,
And add its blessings to another year.
Oh God! great source of peace and power,
Let mercy speak and rule the hour;
Avert thy wrath—bless friend and foe,
And schemes of demagogues and rebels overthrow.

Now Patrons, are you pleased with me?
If so, my song deserves a fee.

Chestertown, Jan. 23, 1864.

SEQUEL TO THE HERMIT AND DUCK.

BY THE BARD OF MARBLE HALL.

Time rolled along like the brook by the deer,
And the boy grew up to a man;
Now the Hermit had promised him often before
To take him to Baltimore then.

So one morning when fell Indian summer's deep haze
O'er the forest all stripped of its leaves,
And the sun looked aloft like a world in a blaze
And the wind gently moaned of its griefs;

The hermit and youth started Baltim reward,
While the fresh-hearted youth in delight
Runs ahead and then back o'er the moss-covered sward,
Till he's weary and foot-sore at night.

The first thing they saw when they entered the street,
Was a lady in full walking dress,
With a smile on her face most bewitchingly sweet,
That seemed lurking in each raven tress.

"What is that," said the youth, "'tis an angel I know,
This is heaven! we've got there! good luck!"
"Now don't be a fool," said the hermit, "I trow
"Your angel is only a duck."

"Oh! we'll take a pair home," said the youth with delight,
"Let me catch it and pat its sleek head,
What a quack for a duck! as she screamed with affright,
What a waddle! he said as she fled.

The duck 'in good order' 'fell back' very fast,
And the youth still kept up the chase,
Till he reached No. 40 West Baltimore street,
And he now is "the Bard" of the place.

For you see the lady ran into Marble Hall to claim protection, and the youth followed in his innocent pursuit. Messrs. SMITH BROS. explained to the youth his mistake, and gave him a NEW SUIT OF CLOTHING to buy him off. He has since given up chasing ducks and gone to writing "Machine poetry" for Messrs. Smith Bros. & Co. Marble Hall Clothing House, No. 40 West Baltimore St., who have the largest, best and cheapest stock of thoroughly sponged Ready Made Clothing in the city. Also a heavy stock of Piece Goods, which they make to order quickly, neatly and durably. o15.

BAUGH'S
RAW-BONE PHOSPHATE,

UNSURPASSED FOR PRODUCING A

Heavy Growth of Wheat and Grass,

AND ALL FALL CROPS, AND PERMANENTLY ENRICHING THE SOIL.

IT CONTAINS the fertilizing properties of Guano, Bone, Stable Manure and Lime.

Producing in many cases larger crops by fifty per cent. than either of the above articles, when used separately.

It is a highly concentrated manure, being made from Bones containing all their original animal matter. No Burnt Bones are used.

It has been used by thousands of farmers in this State, with the highest satisfaction. It has proved a perfectly reliable substitute for "Peruvian Guano," being sufficiently quick in its action on the crops, and in all cases enriching the soil, and it is permanent in its effects.

The demand last Spring was greater than the supply. It would be well, therefore, for farmers to send in their orders early, either to the subscriber or to any of his agents, from whom circulars can be obtained, giving a list of many persons who have used it, and certificates.

Price in Baltimore $75 per 2000 lbs., cash.

HORSES. FOUTZ'S HORSES.
Celebrated Horse and Cattle POWDERS.
CATTLE. CATTLE.

THESE Powders have proved, after a trial of several years, to be superior to any preparation of the kind in use—The chief superiority of these Powders arises from the fact that they are composed of Medicines that have Laxative, Tonic and Purifying properties. The Laxative ejects crudities from the stomach and intestines, the Tonic gives strength to the system of the Horse, and the purifying medicines contained in them cleanse the blood, and lay the foundation for a healthy and vigorous circulation. The use of them improves the wind, strengthens the appetite and gives the horse a fine, smooth and glossy skin—thus improving the appearance, vigor and spirit of this noble animal. These Powders are not intended, as most powders are, to bloat the animal, so as to give him the appearance of being fat when not really so—but, to remove the disease and promote his general health.

These Powders will strengthen the stomach and intestines, cleanse them of offensive matter, and bring them to a healthy state. They are a sure preventive of Lung Fever, and a certain remedy for all diseases of the Horse, as Glanders, Yellow Water, Distempers, Founder, Heaves Slavering Coughs, Fevers, Loss of Appetite, and Vital Energy, &c. These Powders, if used two or three times a week through the winter and spring, your horses will never get the Lung Fever, Colic or Botts. A few doses of these Powders will remove the worst cough on any horse. Were owners of Horses to feed a few doses of these Powders every year they might save the lives of many valuable Horses.

MILCH COWS.

The properties this Powder possesses in increasing the quantity of Milk in Cows give it an importance and value which should place it in the hands of every person keeping a Cow. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

HOGS.

In all diseases of Swine, as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs and Liver, &c., by putting from half a paper to a paper of these Powders in a barrel of Swill, the above diseases can be cured or entirely prevented. By using these Powders the Hog Cholera can be prevented. Prepared by
