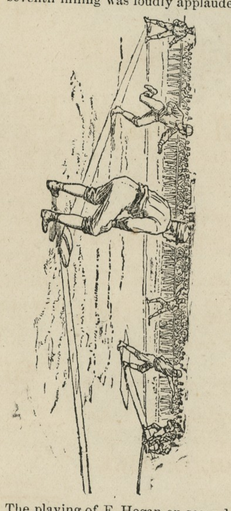
SPORTING EVENTS.

Baseball the Leading Topic in Kent Sporting Circles.

The Rock Hall baseball club arrived in Chestertown about noon Saturday and crossed bats with the Washington College team in the afternoon. The game up to the seventh inning was decidedly the best played on the grounds this year. The game opened with Rock Hall at the bat. The first batter was N. Boyer, who made a neat single hit and scored on a two bagger by Hogen, who also made a run, thus making two runs in the first inning. Sewell struck Leaverton out and Duer and Brice was put out on first by Ashley. At the end of the third inning Rock Hall had scored six runs and the college had a nest of goose eggs. M. Sewell in left field played a faultless game, and took in every fly that came there. In the second inning he captured a high fly from Massey's bat and one from Gould's.

B. Ashley on first base stoppe d a grounder knocked by Williams which made the third man out. When the college boys came to bat they made rally under Prettyman's coaching and made six runs. Leaverton made a long hit and sent Perkins home while Leaverton scored on hit by Duer; Gould made a long hit and sent Brice home. In the fourth inning Williams of the college made a pretty stop and put Ashley out on second. Clarke played well at the bat as did also Leaverton and Massey. In the fifth inning Sewell fooled the college boys by making bunt and scored a run by wild throwing to bases. In the sixth inning Williams, who had hurt his finger was superseded at short stop by Porter. Leaverton's run to second in the seventh inning was loudly applauded.



The playing of F. Hogan on second base was faultless. He accepted every chance, and together with Pitcher Sewell did some very effective work. The playing of the Rock Hall club was very creditable, the outfield being especially strong, but the college boys could out-bat them. J. Davis caught well and so did Duer. Prettyman was very effective, but was wild at times. He struck out thirteen men, while Sewell struck out ten. The following is the score:

Game at Still Pond.

A good game of ball was played at Still Pond Saturday between the home team and Locust Grove. The battery work of the home nine was especially fine while the batting of Harris, Porter and J. Owens was hard to beat. C. Hayes and Scotten batted well for the visitors as did C. Hurtt. The following is the score:

The "Little Potatoes" were beaten at Church Hill by a score of 22 to 12. The battery for town was Oliver Jones and Charley Turner; Church Hill, Joe and Wm. Armstrong.

The "Sunflowers" of Chestertown expect to play the Morgan creek nine to-day.

The Baltimores have dropped to third place. They will be fortunate not to drop any further.

Lady Bicyclists.

The appearance of lady bicyclists on our streets Tuesday created considerable curiosity, as it was the first appearance of a lady on a wheel in Chestertown. The ladies rode here from Tolchester and ate dinner at the Gilpin house. They were courteously entertained by Mr. Joseph E. Gilpin, and paid a visit to Mr. C. F. Stam, local league consul for Kent. They started for the beach at three o'clock after taking a ride through the town. The riders were Mr. James B. Reed, president of the Chesapeake Wheelmen, of Baltimore, leader, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Slee, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Doane and Miss Rabold, representatives of the Ladies' Alpha Cycle Club, of Baltimore. One of the party was overcome by the heat near Mr. J. F. Copper's and gladly accepted the invitation of Mr. Skirven to ride back to Tolchester. Mr. Reed and party were delighted with Kent, and stated that the county is included in the list of summer excursions to be made by the club.

Decoration Day.

Decoration day, May 31st, was observed in Chestertown by a parade of the colored Charles Sumner Post, Grand Army of the Republic, headed by the colored band, led by Henry Miller. The G. A. R. was commanded by Perry H. Landing, with Thos. Carmichael as adjutant. Isaac Freeman was first aid to the commander and Lev Wilmer was marshal. The line of march formed at Brown's hall, on Cross street, and after making a circuit through the principal streets of the town placed flowers on the graves of the seven white soldiers buried in Chester cemetery—Col. Edward Wilkins, James Vickers, Benjamin Vickers, John Morgan, Wm. Shea and Dr. Adam Vannort, and the eight graves of colored soldiers buried in the colored cemetery. Independent of the parade no further observance of the occasion took place, other than the closing of the banks and public offices.

In the Courts.

The following is from the records of Esquire Johnson's court: George Yorker, colored, was arrested by Bailiff Kelley, on Saturday charged with assault and battery on a child; fined fifty cents and cost. John Lynch, white, was arrested by Sheriff Comegys, on Saturday, charged with having stolen an iron pump handle from Mrs. E. R. Wickes, and using it in the pump of Mr. T. Blackiston. Wm. Johnson, col. was arrested on Saturday night, by Bailiff Kelley, on a charge of drunken and disorderly conduct. He was fined, with costs added. Bailiff Kelley also arrested Joseph Davis, colored, for assault and battery upon his wife; committed to jail, but afterward released, and cost and fines divided between the parties. Wesley Cooper, arrested by Sheriff Comegys, charged with swearing at George Garey, declared not guilty.

Levy court, full board present. James T. Brice, constable, presented a written report of salvage collected by him, on drift logs found by him at Betterton landing, which report was accepted, and the amount less commission was passed over to the board. The board was further engaged in examining, approving and passing accounts for levy.

Orphans' court, June 2d, 1891.—Present, Judges Fisher and Moffett. Rachael C. Clayton, administratrix of John S. Clayton, deceased, filed an inventory of the personal property of her decedent, and obtained an order to sell the same. Joseph R. Usilton, administrator of Sarah A. Skirven, passed his first and final administration account. Joseph R. Usilton, guardian to Charles R. Skirven, passed his guardian account.

Summer is Here.

The First of June opens the summer. Will it be summer? The season so far has been propitious despite the complaints casually heard. The fruit, grain and vegetable crops are in a most promising condition; the precarious winter has passed and the uncertain spring has been endured with success. Everything looks promising and hopeful, for the first of June is here and is warm.

Yet there seems to be a sense of apprehension abroad; a feeling of insecurity; a dread of disaster as if a coming event was casting its shadow before. The farmer is uneasy. He has had his crops fail again and again after he had thought himself safe and although this year the promises are much better than usual the still trembles as if each night he expected a blighting frost.

June is here, however, and so far we have escaped. It is about time people were looktng on the bright side of things. Summer is here and let us hope we have escaped disaster altogether this season.
