The Big Temperance Convention in Boston—Closing Scenes—Why Woman was Made—Eloquent Speeches.

Special correspondence of the News.

The convention held in Boston, the opening exercises of which were briefly related in my last, was a grand success. Lady Henry Sommersett with her sweet, well-trained voice, whether it rose in prayer or was poured forth in tender, persuasive words, as in the annual sermon of the Woman's Christian Union, which she preached on Sunday, won all hearts.

Miss Frances Willard was again elected as the World's President, and the twelfth time re-elected as president of the W. C. T. U. of the United States. Seven representative women of this country and of other countries were appointed to escort her to the chair; she was greeted by the waving of handkerchiefs and clapping of hands, and in the course of her remarks on the occasion alluded to her first acceptance of the position. She received an offer on the same day of a lucrative position as principal of a seminary in N. Y., and though the W. C. T. U. was then in its infancy and without money and she had her own and her mother's living to make, she felt the call as from God and as imperative and accepted it as such.

Forty of the churches of Boston asked and received lady speakers to fill their pulpits on Sunday. I had the pleasure of hearing our own Hannah Whitehall Smith, formerly of Baltimore, but now from England, where she resides with her married daughter. She is a sister of our former State president, Mrs. Mary Whitehall Thomas, and author of several books, among them the Christian's which is, perhaps, the most noted, and also author of the monthly Bible Readings, extensively used by the W. C. T. U. in their meetings. She presents the truths of the Bible in a most simple and impressive manner, bring them home to the hearts of all her hearers. She says religion was made for man and not man for religion; that it is the most common sense thing in the world, and she has the happy faculty of making it appear so to her audience.

One evening was given up to the Ys., Mrs. Frances J. Barnes, National Superintendent, presided. The Ys., "wise, witty, winsome and pretty" came marching in, nearly 200 of them, singing: "We are the daughters of the King." It was a most surspiring sight, and the immense audience which packed even the upper galleries, gave them a royal welcome.

Physical culture was particularly emphasized and is receiving much of their attention, as the sound mind is necessary to offset the temptations of liquor, and it means better bodies, better minds and purer brain. One speaker remarked that women were responsible in a measure for the drinking habits of society, as their unhealthful styles of dress and improper cooking, or rather seasoning of food, causes a physical degeneracy which is a provoking cause of the desire for stimulation. This looking up the bad laws and bad drinking habits of man, and the consequent crimes, has led to a corresponding insight into their own faults and deficiencies and a determination to reform them. God bless America, was sang by a young colored man of the Y, and a superintendent of the juvenile department remarked that the two great problems confronting the nation today were, how to educate the colored people, and what to do with the foreigners deluging our country. She said the colored people love our country and the foreigners will, also, when they become better acquainted with its principles and more inoculated with its customs and habits. Members of the department of our work among foreigners are actively engaged in distributing, publishing and translating into many different languages instructions in our laws and the principals of good government, and warnings against the whirlpools of sin and destruction awaiting them by the hands of the liquor dealers. Many of them are distributed in foreign ports that they may study them on the passage over, and still more are distributed upon the arrival at our shores.

Fraternal delegates from temperance organizations all over the country were introduced and spoke briefly. One from the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, Rev. Father Cleary, he said: We are here today to pledge you our hearty co-operation; too long have we been kept apart by misunderstandings; there is something in your organization which appeals to the heart of the Catholic, who knows no cast and no color when men are to be redeemed, and I thank you for the hearty invitation which your president has extended us, and pledge you hearty co-operation.

Most encouraging reports come from the prohibition States, one, whose State debt amounted to $800,000, has cancelled the debt and has now $200,000 surplus, with no use for jails and prisons, except for lodging for tramps.

From Miss Willard, with her clear, incisive words and witty repartee, and Mrs. Mary Lathrop, of Michigan, who has been styled the Daniel Webster of the W. C. T. U.; Mrs. Hoffman, named the Missouri Cyclone, from her pungent, pointed and ready replies in her official capacity as "sergeant-at-arms" of the conventions; Mrs. Rounds of Ill., as she told of her thrilling experiences and hair-breadth escapes in the early days of the crusades, to the delegate from South Africa, a full blooded African, where they have already ten Y. societies, who sang by request in his rich, full, clear voice, "God is able to deliver us," all was intensely interesting, and I often wished everybody could share the good things with me, and especially Kent countians.

The convention closed with a contest for the grand gold medal, the largest one next to the diamond. The prize was secured by a young lady, although a young man came within a small fraction of it. Mr. Demorest has thus far given away 20,000 medals of all kinds costing him $50,000. The Western and Southern states take the lead in this work. Nebraska is at the head with 2,300 including the only three diamond medals yet given. North Carolina is the only Southern state that is preparing for a diamond medal contest. The delegate from South Africa held in her hand a child's paper published in that benighted land from which she read in substance that God made Adam and when he looked on him he said "I can do better" so he made woman and he liked her so well, he made a great many more of them than men. Massachusets responded, that must be the reason the women of that state were so largely in excess of the men. VISITOR.

ACME BLACKING is cheaper at 20 cents a bottle than any other Dressing at 5 cents.

A LITTLE GOES A LONG WAYS

because shoes once blackened with it can be kept clean by washing them with water. People in moderate circumstances find it profitable to buy it at 20c. a bottle, because what they spend for Blacking they save in shoe leather.

It is the cheapest blacking considering its quality, and yet we want to sell it cheaper if it can be done. We will pay for a recipe that will enable us to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING at such a price that a retailer can profitably sell it at 10c. a bottle. This offer is open until Jan. 1st, 1893.

$10,000 Reward

MUSIC AT YATES'

There is "music at Yates'," especially in the Overcoat Room and Children's Department. The constant hum of business gives a "snap" and a "go" to the whole establishment.

The choice Clothing of the season is upon our tables—upon its merits principally we rely to advance our reputation. The moderate prices of course will also have their say.

To Users of "Fish-Brand" Goods.

The cloth used in our Fish Brand Jackets and Pants has always been of unexcelled strength and durability, but we have just discovered that the mill which has made the cloth for the past ten years has, thro' a mistake, delivered us a small quantity of cloth which is far below our standard. This defect was not known to us until some of the goods had been placed upon the market, and as we intend that the Fish Brand goods shall be the standard for strength, durability and waterproof qualities, we hereby inform all users of these goods that we have authorized every store-keeper handling Fish Brand Oiled Clothing to give at once a new and perfect garment for any that have been torn and are not of the usual strength.

SADLER'S BRYANT & STRATTON COLLEGE BALTO.

FOUNDED IN 1864 by the present executive—27 YEARS of continuous and successful management—Increased annual attendance—Now occupying four buildings—Stands unrivaled in facilities for educating YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN for success in life. In deciding upon a school for their children, PARENTS should send them to THE BEST, because it pays. It may require the expenditure of a few dollars more at first, but it will prove the cheapest in the end. CHEAP tuition is very dear, because it means cheap teachers, cheap surroundings, inferior facilities, and offers NO opportunities for securing POSITIONS for its pupils and graduates. This Institution, owing to its HIGH standard of excellence, has placed in desirable positions more young men and women from Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, than all similar institutions combined.
