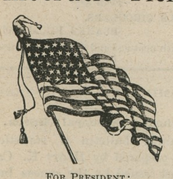
SATURDAY MORNING.....SEPT. 10, 1892

Democratic Ticket.



FOR PRESIDENT:

GROVER CLEVELAND,

Of New York.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:

ADLAI E. STEVENSON,

Of Illinois.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY MEETINGS!

THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS of Kent County are invited to meet in the several election districts of Kent county, at the usual voting places,

On SATURDAY, Sept. 24, 1892,

AT 2 O'CLOCK P. M.,

and select by ballot or otherwise FIVE DELEGATES from each of said districts to meet in Chestertown in county convention on the following MONDAY, Sept. 26, at 11 o'clock A. M., to elect THREE DELEGATES to represent Kent county in the convention to be held at Easton, at noon, on Wednesday, Sept. 28, 1892, to nominate a successor to the Hon. Henry Page, who has resigned his seat in the Fifty-second Congress. The same convention will nominate a candidate for the Fifty-third Congress in place of the Hon. Henry Page, who has declined the nomination.

The mode of selecting district delegates is left to the respective districts, as well as the appointment of judges and clerks, should the same be found necessary, and in the event of a ballot the polls will open at 2 P. M. and close at 6 P. M.

H. W. VICKERS,
A. F. HUEY,
GEO. W. HATCHERSON,
State Central Committee for Kent Co.

DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING!

The Cleveland and Stevenson Banner!

The new Cleveland and Stevenson banner will be hung in its place, between the Voshell House and the hickory pole on the opposite side of the street, on TUESDAY AFTERNOON, Sept. 13, and speeches will be made by orators from a distance. P. D. Laird, Esq., has been invited to attend and address the meeting, and he is expected. The Democrats of the county should come and hear the important campaign issues discussed. The tariff, the force bill, and other questions are vital to every citizen and we should be willing to do something to advance the right.

FOR CONGRESS.

Harrison W. Vickers, of Kent.

The Democracy of this Congressional district is without a Congressional standard-bearer. The acceptance of the Judgeship by Col. Page, leaves a vacancy for an unexpired term and for the ensuing full term, and the official call has been made for a convention to meet at Easton, on Wednesday, Sept. 28, to nominate one or more candidates for these vacancies.

Kent will present the name of HARRISON W. VICKERS, ESQ.

Mr. Vickers has on several previous occasions been a candidate, and strongly urged by his county for Congressional honors, but others have been preferred, and, like a loyal Democrat that he is, he has gone into the battle for his successful rivals, and against the common foe, with his usual earnestness and effectiveness.

The qualifications of Mr. Vickers for this high position are beyond question. He is a forcible and eloquent speaker, a good lawyer, and experienced in public affairs. He is as sound as a gold dollar on all the political issues now before the people. His views are Democratic pure and straight—unadulterated. He is a regular-Cleveland-Stephenson-Democrat. And that expresses the pure article. His father before him was distinguished in public service—in county official station, in the legislative halls of the State and in the Senate of the United States, which, with his private worth, have never ceased to be remembered by a grateful people.

Let the Congressional convention at Easton on the 28th nominate HARRISON W. VICKERS and a brilliant and successful canvas is assured, while the district will be found to have suffered no loss in the national legislature.

We have not one word to say adverse to the worth and claims of the many other distinguished gentlemen named, but only ask that Mr. Vickers shall have the consideration that his merits deserve.

Numerous Candidates.

The indications are that there will be no lack of candidates for congressional honors in this district. In Kent there will be no contest. Mr. Vickers will have a solid delegation. In our sister county of Queen Anne's we hear mentioned the names of Messrs. John B. Brown, A. Ran. Weedon, W. Scott Roberts, P. B. Hopper and E. H. Brown. In Caroline, M. Bates Stevens, Esq., is mentioned. In Worcester Hon. John Walter Smith and George W. Purnell; In Wicomico ex-Gov. Jackson and Senator Toadvine; in Somerset R. F. Bratton, Esq., for the unexpired term, L. L. Waters and H. H. Dashiel, Esq., for the full term. Talbot and Dorchester have no candidates as yet.

It Is Judge Page Now.

Hon. Henry Page has accepted the appointment of Chief Judge of the first district. It may prove a misfortune to the Democratic party of this district, but it is certainly a splendid acquisition to the Supreme Court bench, and of course we should be willing to endure the political misfortune for the gain in the other direction. Gov. Brown certainly deserves great credit for his wisdom in the matter. It may be that Congressman Page's seat will be quickly and fully filled, but his equal in qualification for the place to which he has been called would be hard to find in his circuit. Mr. E. G. Polk, of Mr. Page's own town, thus refers to him: It goes without saying that the ermine, worn by the late lamented Judge Irving, falls with exceeding grace over the shoulders of Henry Page, and the new Judge will shed additional luster on the ever bright judicial escutcheon of this circuit. He will uphold the high rank that our Chief Justice have already held on the Appellate Bench and the scales of justice will never tip in his hands. He is a young man yet, not having completed his fifty second year, though he has had twenty eight years experience at the bar, more than a quarter of a century of training and conflict with the best legal gladiators of our circuit and State.

DANIEL DOUGHERTY, the celebrated orator died in Philadelphia Monday aged sixty-six years.

A PUGILISTIC SURPRISE.

Sullivan Knocked Out and Corbett now Takes His Place as Champion!

James J. Corbett is the champion prize-fighter, and John L. Sullivan's glory as monarch of the ring is gone. In the battle at the Olympic Club house last Wednesday night Corbett knocked out the former champion in the twenty-first round with a terrible right-handed swing, and Sullivan was unable to rise from the ground. The new champion came out of the contest without a scratch, but his opponent was badly hurt and bled profusely. The struggle was won by a man whose splendid physical condition and undaunted courage gave him confidence, which was not disturbed by the prestige of the man against whom he was pitted.

Sullivan's friends dictated the terms of the match and Corbett's friends had to meet them. Ten thousand dollars a side was named as the wager. The Corbett backers agreed to it without demur. That meant $20,000 for the winner. Then came the question of a purse. The Olympic Club offered $25,000 for the mill and the sum was accepted. It was agreed that the winner should have the whole of the purse. The conditions were brief. They were to the effect that a finish under Marquis of Queensberry rules must be fought. This meant that the men must stand up squarely and box, stripped to the waist, each round to last three minutes, with one minute's rest between rounds. Nothing was said about weights, and each man was privileged to carry as much flesh as he pleased.

It was interesting to hear the expressions from the crowds that gathered about the NEWS' bulletin board Thursday morning announcing the result of the Sullivan-Corbett fisticuff in New Orleans the night before. The bulletin said:

CORBETT THE CHAMPION!
SULLIVAN KNOCKED OUT IN 21ST ROUND!

The news was so unexpected that few could believe it, and the expressions of many were along that line. A crowd of young bloods first ran to see it, and most of them turned away quickly and contemptuously with "you don't fool me" manner clearly shown. Others read and lingered and queried: "Where did that come from?" "That's a fake." "O, its too thin." "I don't believe a word of it." I'm glad of it, if its true." "Pity for the bruiser to fall so hard." "Both of them ought to be in prison." "Good for Jim! Greatest man in the world!" "That's a hoax. I came from Centreville just now and they have particulars there with Sullivan winner." "Why the big cuss ain't no man after all." "Just as I predicted; science did it." "I said so yesterday." "I didn't and don't believe it yet." "Pay up ——." "Well that's a go!"

APPOINTMENTS.—Governor Brown has made the following appointments: Leonard A. Pennington, officer of registration, second district, Kent county, vice self, failed to qualify. Wm. H. Ford, supervisor of election for Kent county, vice J. Thomas Pennington, declined; Thomas D. France, assistant officer of registration fourth district, Kent county; Charles B. Warren, assistant officer of registration second district, Kent county.

AT THE FAIRS.—Kent will be represented at the Easton fair next week by a string of trotters. Among them are Polka Belton in the 2.29 class, entered by Mr. George Jones; Tommy M., Sanborn and Grover S., in the 2.45 class; Edgar Dudley, in the 2.25 class, etc.

Sanborn, Mr. Alday Clements' horse, won second money at the Wilmington fair Tuesday. He won the third heat, trotting in 2.37¼, which was the best time made. There were nine starters.

Claudian, belonging to Mr. G. R. Goldsborough, of Easton, dropped dead at Elkton Wednesday, after finishing second in the 2.33 race. He cost his owner $5,000.

ACCIDENT.—The Emma A. Ford did not arrive at her wharf in Chestertown Saturday night until after 9 o'clock, having had to take the Gratitude's place. As the latter boat was leaving her wharf at Centreville on the morning named, one of the connecting rods of the machinery broke and the vessel was compelled to put back. The passengers were transferred by stage to Queenstown to the Ford. The Gratitude was able to get to Baltimore and is now on the route.

A PRETTY STONE.—Mrs. J. Heighe Hill has had a beautiful tombstone placed at the grave of her husband in the burying-ground Shrewsbury church. The design is chaste and extremely pretty. On a beautiful slab of spotless marble, circular in shape, which caps the main shaft are the words—"In memory of Dr. J. Heighe Hill, May 20, 1862; April 24, 1892." At the base is the thought—"I thank my God upon every remembrance of thee." The stone is the finest Vermont statuary marble, and is remarkably beautiful. Mr. A. J. Hynson, states that this is one of his handsomest products. The stone was put in place Wednesday.

A NEGRO LAD about 17 years of age, in the employ of Sereck Shallcoss, Jr., of near Middletown, is turning white. He was originally a dark black. Large white patches are devloping on his face and hands. The rest of his body is reported quite white. The lad is a great curiosity and numbers of people are visiting the farm where he is.

WORTHLESS DOGS.—There is one worthless dog less in Chestertown to-day than there was last Saturday. Mr. William S. Walker shot him after he had killed a large turkey and was running another. It would be well for everyone if more of these good-for-nothing dogs could be shot.

GOLD MEDAL CONTEST.—A good audience assembled in Still Pond Hall Wednesday night to witness the contest for the Demorest gold medal. The first speaker was Miss Mattie Edwards who chose "The Responsibility of Rum Selling," as her subject and she did herself credit. Mr. Stockton Startt took "The Bible and the Liquor Traffic" for his subject and as usual made a good impression. Prof. Judefind led the singing which was very much enjoyed. Miss Clara VanDyke spoke on "The Swallows Must Go" in a very pleasing manner and Miss Macy Hynson recited "Prohibition and the Hope of Our Country."

Owing to the absence of two contestants the gold medal could not be presented. A pretty book entitled "Glimpses of Fifty Years" by Miss Francis Willard was presented to Miss Clara B. VanDyke. The medal contest will be held at Union M. E. Church at an early date.

MR. GEORGE H. WATTS brought to the NEWS office Tuesday a banana cantaloupe weighing ten pounds and about a yard long. It was very fine eating.

RATS.—Master Fred Estes is the champoin rat catcher in town up to date. He caught 29 rats in one night in one trap in Mr. Wm. S. Walker's barn.

DEMOCRATIC CLUBS in Kent can get all the campaign literature they can use by applying to Hon. Murray Vandiver, at headquarters in Baltimore.

CHURCH INTELLIGENCE.

Rev. D. L. Greenfield has been granted a month's vacation by the official board of Christ Church. He states, however, that he prefers to stay at home.

The corner stone of Betterton M. E. Church will be laid next Sunday at Betterton at 3 P. M. Rev. R. W. Todd will preach and conduct the services.

Rev. R. W. Todd will lecture in Still Pond Hall this evening at 7.30 o'clock, on "Old Time Schools and School Teachers." This will be a treat.

Rev. Father McManus who was expected to take charge of the Church of Sacred Heart here has been transferred to Cecil county.

Rev. George L. Ott will take charge of the above named church in Chestertown and St. John's Church, Rock Hall. Rev. Mr. Ott has been stationed at Easton, Md., and comes to Kent with a high reputation. He will take charge of the two churches next Sunday, Sept. 18. There will be no service at these places to-morrow, 11th.

Work has been commenced on repairing St. James' M. P. Church.

Rev. W. R. Mowbray, of Bond Church, and Rev. Chas. S. York, of Salem, will exchange pulpits Sunday, to-morrow.

The dedication of the First Presbyterian Church at Worton is expected to take place this month, possibly on the 25th or the first Sunday in October.

The Seventh-Day Adventists of the Atlantic Conference will hold their annual meeting in connection with a camp meeting in Morrow Park, formerly known as Porter's Woods, twelve miles from Wilmington and one mile southeast of Newark, near the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad, from September 8 to 18. There will be eighty-five tents. Public services will be held in a large pavilion, and children's meetings will also be a feature of the encampment. About 300 delegates, representing the churches in New York, Brooklyn, Wilmington, Baltimore, Washington, D. C., Camden, Mt. Holly and Vineland, N. J., Rock Hall and Ford's Store, Md., and Hollandsville, Del., beside visitors from Philadelphia and other places, will attend.

CHANGES.—Farmers and others who intend to change their homes have already made arrangements for doing so. Among the changes are the following:

James H. Bramble will remove from Queen Anne's to the farm on Fairlee creek tenanted by the late Henry Bamble.

Wm. H. Whiteley will tenant the Airy Hill farm and Enoch Roland, Jr., will take a position in the paper mill.

Aaron Welch, of Queen Anne's, will tenant the Carvill farm.

Clarence Whiteley will take the Dodd farm.

Wm. B. Plummer goes on Mr. S. Vannort's Worton creek farm, formerly Mr. V.'s residence. Mr. Thos. L. Roeder, the present tenant, talks of removing to Baltimore.

Mr. W. W. Hurlock, near Chesterville, will discontinue farming and will be succeeded by Mr. Wm. Anderson, of Queen Anne's.

Thomas McKee has rented the Vickers farm in Quaker Neck. Mr. Gears has not yet decided to rent a farm.

Mr. Carville Maslin will tenant Postmaster Brown's farm.

PEACHES.—Twelve hundred packages of peaches went to Baltimore by the steamer Emma A. Ford last Tuesday. East Neck Island, Kent Island and Quaker Neck were the heaviest shipping points. Nearly all were the Smock variety and not extra. The sales in Baltimore ranged from 50 cts. to $1.50 per basket, and $1 to $2.25 per box. This week will about wind up the peach season for this year. To show the contrast, about the same date last season 25,000 packages of peaches were taken to Baltimore in one day by the Chester river line, and the commission merchants of that city succeeded in finding a market for most of them.

The mountain fruit is now coming in freely. Some of it is very good and some very poor.

Mr. Geo. W. Harper, of Still Pond has shipped most of his peaches to Philadelphia this season, and thinks the price has averaged him about $1 net. His returns have ranged from 60 to $1.75 per basket. There has been no fancy fruit this season.

The price of pears has been much better than last year. Bartletts have ranged from 60 cents to $1 in the cities. Last year they brought only about half as much.

ACCIDENT.—Judge R. F. Moffett met with a painful accident Monday at a bridge near Millington. He was helping to get a wagon out of some difficulty when his hand was caught between the wheel and bridge and a bone in the back of his right hand was broken. He was in attendance at the Orphans' Court meeting Tuesday but had his hand well bandaged.

Thos. Gordon while wrestling on Cannon street with another boy Sunday had his left ankle sprained and was in bed several days suffering from it. He is now able to hobble about.

GAME.—Mr. C. J. Reiche had fine sport killing reed birds on the Patapsco river Monday. He killed over 200. Mr. Massey, of Wilmington visited Mr. H. T. Massey in Chestertown this week. He loves reed bird shooting and says he killed four or five dozen a few days before his arrival here. Two of the Court street club spent the whole of Monday afternoon tramping over fields but did not get a shot. Partridges and rabbits are reported plentiful.

A GOOD OFFICER.—Officer Amos B. Kelley has decided to resign his position as bailiff of Chestertown in order to accept a more lucrative place on the police force of Baltimore. Mr. Kelley has made one of the best all-round officers that Chestertown has ever had and to lose his services at this time is very unfortunate. The commissioners held a meeting yesterday afternoon and arranged to retain his services.

CHARLES SUMNER POST No. 85, G. A. R. of Chestertown go to the national encampment of the grand army at Washington on the 19th inst. The post will leave here on the Ford and take cars at Camden station, Baltimore, and will number about 25 under the command of Col. P. H. Lamden, with G. W. T. Carmichal adjutant. The Lincoln drum corps of Baltimore will go with them.

RENTED.—The Armstrong House on Cross street has recently been given a thorough overhauling preparatory to its occupancy by Mr. Joseph E. Gilpin. Mr. Gilpin has had enough experience in running a hotel to give perfect satisfaction to the traveling public and to patrons of hotels.

The Gilpin House will likely be in charge of Mr. Robert H. Wright next year.

GOOD WORK.—Mr. Crumm was in town this week and expressed his perfect satisfaction with the work at the Starwboard mill. The office there will be one of the finest in the county. Operations are expected to begin by January 1st.

A RARE CHANCE to purchase valuable stock is offered in the public sales advertised elsewhere in our columns.

PERSONAL MENTION.

H. W. Vickers, Esq., was the only member of the committee from Kent present at the meeting of the State committee on Wednesday. Mr. George W. Hatcherson went to the city for the purpose, but finding plenty of "substitute" material present he went off on a trip to Penmar. Mr. Huey's business engagements prevented his attendance. Mr. John Brice and Sheriff Plummer filled the two vacancies.

Rev. Dr. L. W. Bates celebrated his golden wedding anniversary on Thursday the 8th inst. The doctor stands at the head of the M. P. Church in ability and popularity, and with his estimable wife will receive heartily and universal congratulations from his church acquaintances throughout the land on this important occasion. The distinguished divine is now stationed in Baltimore. We sincerely wish him many more anniversaries.

H. H. Barroll, Esq., will be home to-day.

The wedding of Prof. Roland Watts and Miss Anna Hubbard is announced to take place in Chestertown, Tuesday, September 20. It will be quietly solemnized. No cards will be issued in the county.

Mrs. E. O. Grimes and son, Ollie, Mrs. W. B. Thomas and son, Frank, of Westminster, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vannort on High street.

Mr. Wm. W. Stephens, formerly of Worton, but for the past year a resident of Chestertown, removed to Baltimore last Thursday. We regret to lose him and his estimable family. His residence in Baltimore is 2233 N. Calvert street.

Mrs. Harriet Usilton and daughter, Miss Daisy, are at Ocean Grove for ten days.

Misses Jennie and Carrie Francis, of Baltimore, have been visiting their brother, Mr. Harry Francis, near Edesville.

Mr. Elwood Baker spent several days with his parents on Mill street this week.

Miss Cora Massey returned Saturday from a visit to relatives in Delaware.

Miss Katie Smith returned Saturday from a visit to friends in Middletown, Del.

Miss Emily Ringgold, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in town.

Miss Fannie Baker is visiting her uncle, Mr. Wm. Gould, near Booker's wharf.

Mrs. C. V. Newman left yesterday with a party of Baltimore friends for an autumn tour taking in Watkins' Glenn, Niagara Falls and points in Canada.

Miss Fannie Williams, a charming young lady of Wilmington, is visiting Miss Scotten at Locust Grove, Md.

Capt. James A. Russell and Mr. Geo. W. Hatcherson spent several days this week visiting Pen Mar, Bay Ridge, etc.

Mr. Fred Welsh was in town this week and returned Thursday with his family. Mr. Welsh is horse shoer at the celebrated Kite Track at Kirkwood, Del. He states that there are now 250 horses and colts there including some very fine trotters. A half brother of Nancy Hanks, two Wilkes stallions, yearlings that can trot below 2.40 are among the fine stock. Thousands of dollars are spent weekly at this track.

Miss Josephine Wickes has returned from a month's visit to friends in North Carolina.

Misses Devonia Whitlock and Belle Haynes, of Smyrna, have been the guests of friends in Chestertown.

Mrs. S. A. Dodd is enjoying a needed respite from household cares with her brother, Mr. G. E. Lambert.

Master Harry Sappington is visiting friends in town.

Mr. Owen C. Smith, of Baltimore, spent several days at home this week.

Mr. Fred Stevenson, the genial and efficient clerk in Mr. M. A. Toulson's drug store, expects to leave this week for a course in the medical college. He will be very much missed here.

Thos. S. Elliott, Esq., of Baltimore, spent Sunday with H. W. Vickers, Esq.

Miss Caddie Rash who has been visiting friends in Wilmington and Philadelphia, has returned home. Miss Mollie Gill came with her.

C. G. Cary has returned to Newark Del. College to resume his studies.

The Rev. A. Weller of Chesterville has had a happy reunion of his children and their families gathered from the distant west and south.

Miss Wallis has returned to her school in Chesterville.

Mrs. S. Q. Moody, of Chestertown, is visiting her parents at Unity, Montgomery county.

Prof. J. R. Micou was reported better yesterday, though not yet entirely free of fever.

Miss Rebecca Tabler, of Baltimore, is visiting at Mr. C. M. Lucas'.

Miss Ida Jewell is visiting friends in Montgomery.

Mrs. Millicent Beck returned to Washington last Tuesday after a pleasant visit to relatives in Kent.

Miss Julia Ashley, of Indianapolis, Indiania, spent several weeks with friends in Kent and returned last Tuesday.

Mr. Henry Redue, of Baltimore, is the guest at Mrs. Wilkins' near town.

Miss Ruth Bramble, of Locust Grove, is visiting her sister, near Chesapeake.

Misses Etta and Fannie Bramble have been visiting friends near Cecilton.

Mrs. Hattie Redgrave, of Baltimore, has been spending a week with her sister, Mrs. John L. Lewis, of Fairlee.

Messrs. Arthur Donaldson and Joshua Vansant Banks, a nephew of ex-Mayor Bank, of Baltimore, spent Saturday and Sunday the guests of the Misses Masseys near town.

Mr. Wm. Sappington, of Baltimore is visiting friends in town. He is of the opinion that the big fight was a grand fake.

James T. Hepbron, son of the late Louis S. Hepbron, of this county died in Baltimore the first of this week, and was buried in Still Pond cemetery on Thursday. He was in his 35th year and leaves a widow.

S. Hutchinson, Esq., Yardville, N. J., sends us a beautiful bound copy of the "Great Interstate Fair", at Trenton N. J.

Rev. Jos. H. Geoghegan writes to the NEWS from Matthews, Talbot county, Md. Sept. 6th 1892, as follows: "Once more am I glad to write to you with my own hand. I have been very ill with typhoid fever, and at one period I thought I would never write again to any one. I was in bed with that dreaded disease working on me for seven weeks, but now I have been up for more than a week and am rapidly regaining strength. I left my charge today and through the advice of my physician I'll take four or five weeks to rest and recuperate. I have been almost a constant reader of your valuable paper the "NEWS." It is among the first papers that I open on receiving my Saturday's mail. I like it and I think it gets better all the time. May it grow in circulation as it does in interest. At this time I am enjoying the hospetality of friends of my former charge, Kings Creek.

They Bought at Home.

WHAT DOES IT PROVE?—Owners of quite a number of the nicest residences in this town and county have purchased suits and single pieces of fine furniture from McFEELY'S furniture store in Chestertown within the past few weeks, in some cases after priceing similar goods in the cities.

This clearly proves that we sell LOWER THAN CITY DEALERS. Why shouldn't we? We buy from the same manufacturers, and are under much less expense. Call and see me. Paints the cheapest and best.

TO OUR PATRONS AND ALL OTHERS TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

We, the undersigned, composing the firm of J. E. Hendrickson & Co., which has been doing a produce commission business at 328 North Front St., for the past 15 years, have this day mutually agreed to dissolve May 1st, 1892.

This change has been brought about from the fact that Mr. Henkrickson has accepted the position as General Manager of the West Philadelphia Market Company. The entire business of the firm, excepting the live stock, after May 1st, 1892, will in the future be carried on by Mr. Brice, as R. A. Brice. Mr. Hendrickson takes pleasure in recommending Mr. Brice to all the patrons of the old house as a worthy, honest, straight-forward, upright business man, and sincerely hopes that the general public who have so generously supported the old firm, will continue to give its support to Mr. Brice, and feels sure that no one who has been a patron of the old house, will have any hesitancy in supporting the new, as I wish to say that Mr. Brice has the experience and facilities to handle any and all shipments equally as well as the old house ever did, and will be as prompt in making settlements.

Mr. Hendrickson will do a Live Stock business at the yards, 30th and Market Sts., where better facilities are afforded than we have ever had at our place of business on Front St. Full description and particulars will be given in time regarding this line of business. Mr. Brice would recommend to his personal friends and all friends and shippers of the old house to ship their Live Stock to Mr. Hendrickson, as he needs no further words of recommendation from him regarding his ability and manner of doing that line of business.

We have made this change more from the fact that we feel that we can serve the interests of our patrons, than any personal interest it may be to us. We wish to thank our patrons and the public in general for the generous patronage it has bestowed upon us during our co-partnership, and hope that the same may be given to us in our separate fields of labor to do as well as possible by all shippers who may place goods in our hands.

We are, very truly, J. E. HENDRICKSON,
R. A. BRICE.

P. S.—The old cards and other printed matter of J. E. Hendrickson & Co., can be used in shipping to Mr. Brice.

R. A. BRICE,

Late of and Successor to J. E. HENDRICKSON & Co.
